April 27.—A special business of the Vigilant fire company was a Saturday evening. Resolutions of for favors extended during the reir were adopted regarding the Laurel ion fire companies, of York, and the es, of Columbia.

Shawnee, of Columbia.

A motion to give the general fair committee power to decide the controversy over the tove was unanimously adopted. They have reported unanimously in favor of Miss.

Emms Mittendorf, of York, as holding the rest ticket No. 172 that drew the stove; which ticket was drawn from the wheel, on Monday evening, April 20.

A Number of Police Items.

Elizabeth Lawrence, residing in Ragtown, was arrested last evening for being drunk and disorderly by Officer Gilbert. Squire Evans had already committed her for ten days, but Lizzie decided to pay fines and costs and was released.

and shoulders in an outrageously brutal manner.

On Saturday evening Officer Wittick had a warrant placed in his hands for the arrest of a woman for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He arrested her, and Squiro Evans committed her to jail for ten days. The woman is from Lancaster, and is wanted in that city by its officials, she being Emma Graham, who escaped the vigilance of the aberif last week.

A fight occurred on the Harrisburg accommodation train on Saturday evening, near Watts station, between young Henderson, of Maytown, and Musser of Columbia. The train was stopped and the puglists ejected. They then stoned the car next to the smoker, and they will be arrested.

An Ill-Treated Wife.

Ben Ryon is again on the rampage. At Ryon is again on the rampage. At nt times his wife has been compelled to leave him from his brutal abuse. Several menths ago he was released from jail, and upon returning to Columbia, sought out his wife, and begged her to again live with him. He acted as though his reformation was serious, and she finally consented. Peace and harmony did not long remain in the household, and last week Mrs. Ryon was again compelled to fly from him with her children, his abuse becoming unbearable. On Saturday night they met on North Third street, and Ben caught hold of her. What would have happened is unknown, but Officer Wittick appeared and compelled him to release his poor, ill-treated wife.

Charles Yeager, of Lancaster, and a companion named William Barnes, were arrested on Saturday night, by Officers Wittick and Dyssinger, on Locust street, for being drunk and disorderly. When Wittick attempted to arrest Yeager that young man drew a re-volver, but before he could use it he was volver, but before he could use it he was placed on his back by Wittiek and disarmed. The prisoners were then placed in the lock-up, and on Sunday morning taken before 'Squire Evans. As the 'squire entered the room Yeager leaped out of the door and attempted to escape, but was caught after a run of several squares by Wittiek. The officer decided not to press his suit, and upon payment of costs Yeager and Barnes were released.

uninteresting game of base ball, th first of the season, was played on the old Shawnee grounds on Saturday afternoon between the Columbia and Resolutes. The game was uninteresting because it was onesided, the Resolutes having not the least trouble in defeating the Columbia, but three of whose regular players participated. The Resolutes did their best to shut out their opponents, but a wild throw by R. Mitchell allowed an unearned run to be secured in the seventh inning. The score:

Amusements.

Raymond's Political Comedy.—Concerning Mr. John T. Raymond's laughable performance in " For Congress," which will be seen in Lancaster on next Wednesday evening, Dr. Lambdin, the critic of the Philadelphia Times, wrote as follows; "Mr. Raymond's carnestness can make bumorous and laughable dialogue and situations that would, without his ability, be somewhat prosy. Last evening he carried the somewhat prosy. Last evening he carried the play on his own shoulders and he maintained the interest of his auditors amidst a constant series of laughs and frequent outbursts of applause, and it was chiefly due to his skill and ingenuity that 'For Congress' left a pleasant and favorable impression."

KEPPER—In this city, on the 25th inst., Erizaboth A., reliet of the late Washington H. Keffer, in the 45th year of her age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from
