OBITUARY.

Death of Abraham Erisman, An Aged Citizen of Lancaster.

Abraham Erisman, an old and highly respected citizen of Lancaster, died at his residence, No. 414 West Orange street, this morning in the 80th year of his age. Mr. Erisman was a native of this city, and spent a greater part of his life here. He was a builder by trade and erected many of the prominent buildings in this city. When Lafayette visited Lancaster in 1824, Mr. Erisman was one of the fifers who accompanied the military escort given to the distinguished Frenchman. Later he was a member of the Jackson Rifles, and was one of the Hottenstein with that famous militia organization when it marched from Lancaster. He was all his life a Democrat without a shadow of turning, and lived to have his ardent wish for the restoration of the Democracy to power gratified. He was a pious Christian, a life-long member and regular attendant of old Trinity church. He was twice married, and his second wife, who has become blind, survives him. He leaves also several children and grandchildren, well-known residents of this city.

Death from Natural Causes.

The coroner's jury, investigating into the cause of the death J. G. Hacker, a traveling salesman of Ephrata, at the Ashland house, Ashland, on Tuesday, rendered a verdict that death resulted from natural causes, probably superinduced by a severe attack of cramp.

A CARP OUT OF HIS WATER.

A Fish Good Enough for the Ponds, but Having no Business in a Big River.

From the Columbia Spy,

Old Mr. Sheets, the patriarchal fisherman, whose modest cabin is located on the shute wall, and who has lived there summer and winter for many a year, caught a big German carp, last Saturday, weighing eight pounds. He caught it in a dip-net. It was about eighteen inches long, about four inches across the back and of a golden color. It is the second carp known to have been caught in the river at Columbia, one having been captured last year on the Wrightsville side.

This particular carp came into the possession of A. J. Kauffman, esq., and on Wednesday he invited some of his Lancaster friends to come up and test its merits. Among them were Congressman Hiestand, Wm. U. Hensel, esq., of the INTELLIGENCER, and Maj. B. Frank Breneman, all good judges of fish. The carp was prepared and served in excellent style, but the Lancaster epicures declared that it has no business on the same table with Columbia shad, or to be served at all during the shad season. The flesh is white and sweet, but it is not as firm or solid as the shad, and does not possess that delicious flavor which makes Columbia shad such good eating. The general verdict was that German carp might do when there were no Columbia shad, and no salmon, no rock and no perch about these shores, but as long as the Susquehanna produced these, the carp had better remain on land—that is in the ponds. There is no longer any doubt, if there ever was any, that after brook trout, Susquehanna shad are the sweetest and best flavored fish that swims in Northern waters.

Briefs From the Ball Field.

The Ironsides are playing the Actives, of Reading, to-day, and on Monday the Mantuas will be here.

The Lancaster play the Trenton to-day in the latter city.

Base ball yesterday—At Detroit: Detroit 8, Buffalo 3: at St. Louis: Chicago 9, St. Louis 5; at Washington: National, 16, Wilmington 5.

The Washington and Wilmington clubs were the only ones in the Eastern League that played yesterday, owing to rain. All American Association games had to be postponed.

John Murphy, manager of the Lancaster club, was released to-day, and notice was sent him to that effect to Trenton. Denny Mack will take his place and will both play and manage. Mack is a good man and has had lots of experience. Last year he was manager of the Allentown club for several months, and the people of the town were highly pleased with him. Mr. Murphy arrived in town this afternoon from Trenton, and will leave for his home in Philadelphia this evening. The directors of the Lancaster club did not find any fault with the management, but they think it will be saving to have a player manage.

The Cremation of Adolph Truchess.

The body of Mr. Adolph Truchess was successfully cremated at the Lancaster crematorium yesterday, and the ashes were taken from the retort this morning. They weighed three pounds and fourteen ounces, and were taken to New York this afternoon by the widow.

Owing to the late arrival of the body, which reached this city only a few moments before the INTELLIGENCER went to press, the reporter had small opportunity to interview the friends of deceased, and was led into the error of stating that Mr. Truchess was a dentist. We have since learned that he was an employe in the postoffice, and that his widow, Madame Philopine Diffenbach-Truchess is the dentist. It is not her intention to send the ashes of her husband to Europe, but to have them inurned.

Remembering Their Old Chief.

Last evening the members of Engine company No. 3 presented their pictures to ex-Chief Howell, as a token of respect. They are in a handsome frame and are now on exhibition in the office window of Major Howell. The pictures are excellent and the men are dressed in full uniform with white canvas caps bearing the figure "3." "King," the handsome dog of the company, was also photographed and is in the frame. The boys always had a warm feeling for Mr. Howell and if they had had a say in selecting a chief, instead of the politicians, he would be at their head yet.

A Gold Crown for the Virgin's Statue.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock a handsome gold crown will be placed on the head of the Blessed Virgin in St. Anthony's Catholic church. It is the gift of Miss Mary Kaul, of this city. Special services, including the blessing of the crown, procession, reception of new members into the sodality, sermon and benediction will be held.

Making the Best of a Bad Bargain.

Some time ago Christian Huber, of Bainbridge sold to Moses Pioso, of this city, for $100 a horse, guaranteeing it to be sound. Pioso soon discovered that the animal was unsound, and took it back to Huber and asked to have the money refunded. Huber declined to disgorge and Pioso left the horse with him and sued to recover his money. He soon learned that Huber had no property that could be seized, so he withdrew the suit paid the costs and took possession of the horse.

Driving Accident.

This morning a man with two horses hitched to a wagon load of tobacco was driving out East King street. At Lime street a man named Kemper came dashing around the corner with a horse and trotting buggy and drove into his team. The result was that one horse was knocked down and the other badly shaken up. Kemper lost a buggy shaft and had his wheel dished.

"No. 2,642."

Dr. Potts and his companion Henry Fisher, were safely lodged in the Eastern penitentiary on Friday morning. The doctor was attired in the uniform of that institution shortly after he was handed over to the officials. He was placed in cell No. 2,642 and will during his imprisonment be known by that number. The sheriff reports having seen the other convicts from this county in the penitentiary, and all are in good health.

Large Ball.

Last evening the ball of the Ironsides took place in Rothweiler's hall. A tremendous crowd was in attendance and the room was entirely too small for the number of people who participated in the promenade. Dancing was kept up until a late hour, and everything passed off very pleasantly.

Reunion of Ninth Cavalry.

The sixteenth annual reunion of the Ninth Pennsylvania calvary will be held at Carlisle, on Thursday, June 11. Two companies of the regiment were raised in this county and there will be a good attendance of the Lancaster county members at the reunion.

Fell From a Scaffold.

This forenoon Augustus Stiffle, a carpenter, who was working on new houses which are being erected on East Orange street, fell from a scaffold, and besides having his ankle sprained was considerably bruised.

Re-Sheriff Shine Elected.

At the meeting of the board of poor directors this morning the seat of Benjamin H. Longenecker the poor director, who has absconded from the county, was declared vacant. Ex-Sheriff Jacob S[illegible], of Columbia, was elected to fill the [illegible] Raney.

Mayor's Court.

The mayor disposed of one drunk and four lodgers this morning. The drunk paid costs and the lodgers were discharged.

New Bank Stock @110 Per Share.

A. J. Dunlap sold to Chas. I. Landis, esq., 10 shares of Northern National bank stock, of Lancaster, at $110 per share.
