New York Stock Market.

New York, May 4.—Wall street, 1:30 p. m.— Money at 1½ per cent. Exchange quiet. Governments dull. Currency 5's, $127 bid; 4's Coup., $122; 4½'s do, $1124 bid. The stock market opened weak, and during the first hour the list was quite freely sold, causing prices to decline 1/2 to 1 per cent. The sell-ing was induced chiefly by the more peaceful outlook of European affairs and reports of continued rate cutting in the West. The cliques at-tempted to support the list at times, but on any show of strength there were renewed offerings and prices fell back to the lowest point of the day, which are current at the time of writing.
