UMBIA, May 11.-Henry Maxton and ummell, two of our young men, while ing a drive yesterday, met with an acci-which nearly ended their lives. Just e Chiques, they stopped their horse se if they could hear any trains b see if they could hear any trains oming. All seemed sate and they itempted to make the crossing. As hey struck the rails, engine No. 50, draw-og only a caboose, and westbound, struck hem. Their horse, which belonged to ex-theriff Jacob Strine, was knocked twenty bet away, and instantly killed. The buggy was badly broken, yet, strange to say, the young men escaped personal injury. Their meaps was certainly wonderful, and they connot tell how their lives were spared them. Witnesses to the accident say the engineer was to blame, as he gave no warning as he approached the crossing.

hed the crossing. Fast Driving.

On Saturday evening, two country youths, ither full of the ardent, or who desired to w the speed of their horse, drove fudy down Locust street, causing persons who were crossing the street, causing persons theut to considerably hasten their steps, Luckily no one was injured. Our borough authorities should do something in the mat-ter of fast driving in the borough, and pre-yent it in the future. It has been allowed to go too long unpunished, and is the chance is now offered, let them make an example whereby fast driving will be stopped in the future.

Trown Over His Hors Head. Oscar Kelley, of Wright while riding up the Hellam street hill, yes-terday, and kleked in the stomach by the animal. When pleked up he vas unconscious. He was carried home and Dr Redmond sum-momed. Although his injuries are serious, hopes are entertained that they may not ter-minate fatally.

They are charged with stealing turkeys and chickens from Martin D. Hess, butter from the prem-ises of John M. Slaymaker, chopped feed from the premises of Uriah Eckert, felo-niously entering an outhouse of John M. Slaymaker, and the larceny of chopped feed from Mr. Mentzer. The accused waived hearings and entered bail before Justice Slaymaker for trial at the August sessions.

Borough Bries. On Friday, Taylor, a young son of Charles McCauley, residing on Walnut street, died after a short illness. His remains were interred in Mt. Bethel comercy, this after noon. A property owned by Martin Day, and situated on Manor street, was sold at public sale on Saturday evening at the Franklin house by Auctioneer W. H. Lindsey, to Edward S. Brady for $1,005. Last week Samuel Campbell received twenty head of Kentucky horses. His sales for the week amounted to $1,775, of which $675 were paid by Ell Kendig, of Philadel-phia, for the iron gray matches, purchased in Lancaster two months ago, by Mr. Camp-bell.

residence of Mr. G. H. Atwell, a wealthy shoe manufacturer, on Twenty-fourth street, Milwaukee, Wis, early Sanday morning and ransacked the house. The burglar was probably the same one who robbed Millionaire Ray's house two days ago. Mrs. Atwell was wakened and at the point of a pistol was forced to hunt up all the jewelry, money and valuables in the house and deliver them to the robber. Mr. Atwell had just returned from New York and was sleeping soundly and during all this time was not awakened, Several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry and money were secured. Later in the morning a burglar jumped from a third-story window in another part of the city and was captured. A neatly dressed woman who entered the house with him was also caught. Nathaniel and Mary Patterson resided in Lower Oxford township many years ago. They were brother and sister and each was very fond of the company of the other. Regularly as Sunday arrived this pair would mount their little brown horse and ride together to old West Nottingham church to hear Rev. Dr. Magraw expound church to hear Rev. Dr. Magraw expound the scriptures. Nathaniel was an elder in this church in the days when Robert Thompson gave out the hymns. At that period of the century not every boy or girl or man or woman rode to church. Wheeled vehicles were very few and far between, and horses were not plentiful even with those who could afford to own them. Even the better class of people, and there were not a few, neither rode in "chairs" or by horseback, but walked on foot in making long or short journeys. It was not an un-usual sight to witness on a Sunday morn-ing in summer time a number of girls and boys in their bare feet walking along the road to West Nottingham church. In their hands they carried their shoes and stockings and when not far from the sanc-tury they would stop at a small run, and in its clear waters wash their teet, and soon afterwards appear in their respective places in the church. Then the semons were very solid and lengthy—but to-day what a great difference in the customs. Fancy a modern dude stopping on his way to church for such a purpose and hanging himself up on the bushes to dry ! Why he would rather die then and there ; but the fact romains that many who were a few years ago the "salt of the earth" did this in their day. the scriptures. As Mrs. Wilson is tired of being made a striking bag of, she proceeded to the office of Alderman McConomy and made complaint against her husband. The "Black Diamond" pugilist was locked up and afterwards gave bail for a hearing. He should be sentenced to fight a man; he would probably loose some of his freshness.

"I'm Done." From the Philadelphia Record.

Having during the week plied the muck-rake assiduously in the Sallie Reber nastiness, the Press turns piously round on Sun day and says: "There is little to gain by discussing the latest scandal concerning James D. "Take off the griddle," said the boarder as he choked down his eighteenth plate of pan-cakes; "Um done." Cross-Suits Compromised Alderman A. F. Donnelly this morning

Dunnie was required to enter bail for a trial at the August court of quarter sessions. From the appearance of the bodies it is sup-posed they had been dead about thirty-six hours. SHOT THROUGH THE HAND.

Two Boys Fool With a Gan With the Inevitan Result.

Saturday evening, Frank Shilling, a seven year-old boy, residing with his parents on Charlotte street, appeared at Dr. McCormick's office to have a gun-shot wound in his left hand dressed. He was accompanied by another boy, who told the doctor that he and Shilling were playing on Grant street, when a man came along and shot Shilling through the hand. The doctor examined the wound and found that a pistol ball had penetrated the paim of the hand near the foreinger and passed out at the back of it near the little finger. The flesh was burned with pow-der, showing that the weapon had been held close to the hand when dis-charged. Dr. McCornick believing the shot to have been an accidental one, cross-ques-tioned the boys about it, but the oldest of them stack to his story, and the youngest said nothing. After the wound was dressed the boys left, and in the evening young Shilling accompanied by his father again called at the doctor's office, when it was hearned that the boys had been playing with the pistol, which belonged to the older one, and while young Shilling was handling it, it was prematurely discharged with the ro-sult above stated. The wound is not a very serious one. another boy, who told the doctor that he and

A Very Kind Boston Lady.

From the Boston Post. It was one of those bitter cold nights that the oldest settler always remembers and in-sists on bringing up when anything is said about the desire of the mercury to hide itself in the bulb, and the wind whistled an air from Wagner as it tore through the trees. Yet, out in the cold night, before a cottage door, stood a trembling figure. He softly knocked, and in a moment the door was opened and a kind face appeared, while a gentle woman's voice asked: "What is it, my poor man." "Madam," said the figure, "all I ask is to brush away the snow here in front of the house and eat some of the grass." the oldest settler always remembers and in-house and cat some of the grass." "No, my poor man," answored the gentle volce: "Though I am a woman, I still have a heart Do not eat that grass. Go round to the back of the cottage and you will and some that is much more neurishing." And the kind form disappeared, the door was closed and the wind whistled another Wagnerian air.
