officer with Detective J. Kennedy, also arrested two other train-jumpers during the night and Squire Frank sentenced them to jall for ten days each.

Ambrose, a seven-year-old son of William Davidson, watchman at Bruner's mill, yesterday, found a railroad cap and attempted to open it by pounding it on the stone steps at D. C. Wann's residence, corner of Front and Perry street. It opened and with such force as to blow the tips of the second and third fingers of the lad's left hand off, and the flesh away from the bone on the arteries of the hand.

was knocked by a horse and run over. A few alight bruises were his only injuries.

Miss Hinton's Success.

"Fanchon, the Cricket," is certainly the finest of Miss Lillie Hinton's large repertoire, and as rendered in the opera house last even ing, delighted her large audience. A matine was to have been given this afternoon, but as an orchestra could not be engaged, it was not an orchestra could not be engaged, it was not given. This evening she appears in "Goodfor-Nothing Nan," and "The Little Rebel," which ends her engagement with Gen. Welsh Post, No. 118, G. A. R.

If the attendance at Putnam Circle's fair is not larger than last evening, it will be a failure. The Columbia band was present and rendered some fine music. The Maytown band plays this evening.

The Bleyele Club. At the annual meeting of the Columbia

Bicycle club last evening at John Musser's. The following officers were elected: President—A. W. Rogers.
Sect. and Treas—J. W. Glover.
Captain—John S. Musser.
Lieutenant—E. L. Fornnalt.

Standard Bearer—August Note.

The club has not yet been a success so far but it is believed that the active co-operation of the members this summer will make it an organization to be enjoyed.

Violating a City Ordinance. Andrew Kray and Wm. Kieffer, plumber, were the defendants at Alderman Deen's this morning on several suits brought by Superintendent of the Water Works Halbach, for violation of a city ordinance. The city claimed that Kfay had water furnished to his tenants by turning on the city water after the superintendent had turned it off, and that Mr. Kleffer, as plumber, did the work without having taken out a permit for the same. For the defense it was shown that the hydrant was merely moved from one of Mr. Kray's houses to an adjoining one, and that before the suit was brought Mr. Kray tendered to the city treasurer the amount of water rent chargeable against him for the houses for which the water was turned on, and that the city treasurer declined to take it because it was not on the city water duplicate. that Kfav had water furnished to his tenants was not on the city water duplicate.

After argument of counsel a proposition was made to settle the case and the representatives of the city and Mr. Kray came to an understanding and the cases were dismissed, the defendant paying the costs.

.The "Examiner" Lost Its Grammar From the Wilmington Every Evening.

It is strange how often the verbs "to lie" and "to lay" trip up even educated people. The Lancaster Examiner yesterday, in declining a poetical contribution, quoted a verse thereof as follows: The river was in Egypt,

But my thoughts were far away, Far away in dusky London Where my little baby lay: and asked the poetess to be kind enough, in her next effusion, "to tell us in verse what that little baby laid." But the joke is on the editor, for the verse is strictly grammatical. Horse Hit By a Locomotive At 9 o'clock this morning, while the double team of Harry Lefever, of West Lampeter, was standing backed against the entrance to Hoffman's warehouse on the Harrisburg pike in the delivery of tobacco, an accident occurred. The last bale was about to be occurred. The last bale was about to be thrown in, when the horses became frightened at an approaching train. A man named Miller, who was supertending the unloading, ran to the animals and seized them by the head. One got on the track and was struck by the engine. Both horses were knocked down and the wagon turned over. Strange to say the animal that was hit was but slightly bruised and the other escaped without a scratch. The wagon was not badly damaged and Miller crawled out from between the horses safe and sound. Anatomical Museum

Last evening Dr. Heidemann opened his museum in Bair's store, No. 14 East King treet, and large crowds have been in atten beautiful wax figures which catch the eyes of the passers-by. Inside there is a very large and fine collection of anatomical and ethnolo-gical specimens and mechanical wax figures. The specimens in anatomy show the dance to-day. In the windows there are two The specimens in anatomy show the human body in all its details and that in ethnology nelude a number of curiosities in life size. Among the mechanical figures is Garfield on his death bed. The figure breathes and is very natural looking. All are life-size and the whole makes a very interesting exhibi-tion which is well worth a visit.

The College Honors.

The College Honors.

The commencement honors of the senior class of Franklin and Marshall college were distributed this morning, as follows: Marshall orator, J. H. Appel, jr., Saegertown, Pa.; salutatory, C. B. Schnader, Bowmansville, Pa.; valedictory, T. M. Biser, Boonsboro, Md.

The other speakers on commencement day will be: W. G. Houpt, Middletown, Pa.; W. H. Hager, Lancaster; W. A. Hinneberger, Greencastle, Pa.; J. C. Hoke, Zelianople, Pa.; D. S. Kurtz, Lancaster, Pa.; J. F. Mayer, Union Deposit, Pa.

Stolen Chickens Found. This morning as Wm. Brighton, of the shifter engine, was nearing the railroad crossing at the Harrisburg turnpike he saw a bag lying near the track and giving it a kick he heard a chicken squawk. Opening the bag he found it to contain three chickens one being alive and the others dead. The bag had printed on it the name of Jacob Esbenshade, Mr. Brighton took home with him the live chicken and the bag.

Amusements.

Next Week's Opera Company.—The Cottinne Opera company has been doing an immense business in Norristown, and the people of that town are delighted with the little girl and her very strong company. Of the opera of "The Magic Stipper," a Norristown paper says: "Little Corinne, as Cinderella, was sprightly, spark-ling and beaufful, exhibiting marvelous powers of song and stage acting. Jennie Kimball, as Clorinda, sustained her reputation for excellence in any part she may casay. Miss Suste Parker, as the Prince of Salerno, did grandly and was repeatedly applauded. The whole opera Amusements.

was superbly seted, the choruses were fine and the costumes were magnificent." The company will commence a week's engagement here next Monday evening.

A hundred beautiful views of France and Switzerland, two of the most picturesque coun-ries in the world, will be presented at the Junior Missionary society's "stereopticon," at Trinity chapel, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

John Bull has a big one to swallow just now. There are real pills and pills so called. All pills are better for being sugar-coated. Now if to buy your SPRING SUIT. or your boy's, is a pill to you, give OAK HALL a chance to prescribe and your pill will be sugar-coated with a good bargain. It's almost time to say

We can give them to you at $6.50, $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00; and Blue, Brown, Wine and Black SERGE SUITS, $12.00 to $18.00. The whole range of fashionable fabrics are here, made precisely as they should be, and at prices to make you happy. This is true of Men's, Young Men's and Boys' Ready-made Clothing, and equally true of CLOTHING TO ORDER, That's the story of to-day.
