HOMESICK DAYS.

ne of the Rather Odd Experiences Euc ered in New Orleans.

From an illustrated paper on the New Orleans Exposition, by Eugene V. Smalley, in the June Century, we quote the following anecdotes of some of the types seen at the fair :

The odd characters at the fair are the terror of exhibitors. A Cincinnati furnituremaker discovered a countryman from Arkansas whittling a handsome mahogany cabinet "to see what the wood was like. The man's knowledge of furniture was evidently limited to articles which could not be damaged by a reasonable use of the jack-knife. A nother exhibitor, who had fitted up a room with the finest specimens of his art, was hor-rified to find an old lady eating her lunch of fried chickens seated in one of his satin up-holstered chairs. "What's the good for if it ain't to set down in ?" she placidly remarked in reply to his earnest request that she would go somewhere else with her vituals. The same exhibitor one day found that some vis-itor to his alcoves had left a token of appro-val on the polished surface of a costly mandamaged by a reasonable use of the jack-knife. val on the polished surface of a costly man-tel, in the words "This is pretty good," scratched with a knife.

The Turks who sell olive-wood, beads, and other trinkets "from Jerusalem"—all made in Paris—are picturesque additions to the permanent personnel of the fair, though their genuineness, like that of their wares, will genuineness, like that of their wares, will not always bear inspection. An amusing scene occurred one day at one of these Ori-ental basaars. A tail man, with a rural air, stopped before the stand and appeared to take a lively interest, not in the goods, but in the features of one of the salesmen in sear-let fez and baggy trousers. He surveyed the Oriental in front and in profile, and then, slapping him on the shoulder, exclaimed, "Hello, Jake, when did you come from Indi-ana?" The Turk from Indiana aeknowi-ledged his old acquaintance and begged that he would not 'give him away.'" In the New Orleans street cars smoking is he would not 'give him away." In the New Orleans street cars smoking is permissible, regardless of ladies. A party of ladies entered a car one day in which a Creole gentleman sat in placid enjoyment of his eigar and his morning paper. The win-dows were shut and the air was thick. The ladies began to make half-whispered re-marks about the 'horrid air.' Then some-thing was said about 'no gentleman smok-ing in the presence of ladies where they came from.' Still the smoker was obdurate. He puffed away with increased vigor. He had a right to smoke, and he evidently did not intend to be intimidated. Various sar-castic comments were made with less and less pretence of undertone, until the attenless pretense of undertone, until the atten less pretense of undertono, until the atten-tion of all the passengers was attracted to the struggle. Finally, one of the women said, 'Let's offer him five cents for his cigar.' 'Of course he'll take it,' said another; 'he could buy two of the sort he's smoking." This shot finished the poor Creole. He threw his cigar out of the window, scowled at his tor-mentors, but was too polite to make any re-tort."

DR. MILTON N. TAYLOR, one of the best known physicians in Baltimore, writes: This is to certify, that this is the first time during my practice of thirty sits the first time during my prac-tice of thirty sits years that 1 ever recommended any article for medicinal purposes, but with some experience I am constrained to say that " Dr. Petizold's German Bitters" is an excellent preparation as an Appetizer and will relieve if ot cure almost any form of Dyspepsia, and i one of the best Tonics I have ever used.

TRAVELER'S QUIDE.

There is no use fighting nature. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy does nothing of that kind. It does not make the sufferers who trust it wors under the pretense of doing them good. It act tenderly and in sympathy with what Nature herself is trying to accomplish. Do you have trouble with your digestion, your liver or your kidneys ? Does rheumatism pain and rack you ? Is your head thick and heavy? It will charm away these aliments almost ere you are aware. (i)myii-Imdeod&w
