he News From Columbia-Sad Results of mway Accident-Stealing a Trunk From His Sweetheart-The Programme for Decoration Day-Notes About Town.

Regular Correspondence of the INTELLIGENCER. COLUMBIA, May 29 .- The complete and insting sketch of Col. Samuel Shoch's life and personal reminiscences, printed in last evening's INTELLIGENCER, was highly appreciated by his large circle of friends and es here. One of them desires to coquaintances here. One of them desires to contribute the above pen portrait of him by way of supplement to the INTELLIGENCER'S

Mrs. G. C. Franciscus, of Philadelphia, resterday, sent to Col. Shoch a mound of the est out flowers. Its size is 214 feet long, 114 feet wide, and about 8 inches high. In the tre of the mound is a bed of pink tinted carnations, and in the centre of the bed the figures "88," to signify the age of Col. Shoch, in violet immortelles. It is the hand somest floral design seen in Columbia for a A Ranaway Accident.

A sad accident happened to part of the amily of Eli Grosh, who reside a short disance beyond Sherk's Grove, near the first bridge crossing the Chiques creek. Mrs. Grosh, his mother, and his daughter Susie, aged 7 years, were returning to their home in a wagon from Drytown, when one side of the wagon broke down. Mr. Grosh was thrown from the vehicle but escaped unhurt. The accident scared the horse, and he ran off Susie was thrown out, dragged a short dis-tance, and finally run over. Her injuries, which are serious, consist of a bruised face and body, and a scalp wound, which extends from a point on the top of the forehead to the occipit. Mrs. Grosh was thrown partly fron the wagon, but her feet caught under the seat and she was thus saved from a fall which would have resulted in her death, as it was she was severely bruised and shaken up. A Columbia physician attended them.

Robbed His Sweetheart, Sarah Ann Yellett's beau, James Dallas, went back on her in a mean manner yester day while she was at work at the Continental hotel, being employed there as cook. Dallas stole from her onse in Alley I, between 3d and 4th stoles, her trunk, containing all her clother and several other articles. After dis-tening of them, Dallas had Simon Molsom purchase a ticket for Coatesville, and thus he escaped from Columbia. When the robbery was made known, officer Wittick was put upon the thief's track, and worked the trail so successfully that at eight o'clock last evening he arrested Dallas at or near Coatesville. He was returned to Columbia this morning, where 'Scouter Evens care him a hearing. where 'Squire Evans gave him a hearing, and his guilt being clearly proven, he was sent to jail for court. Molsen was also committed as an accomplice. Observance of Memorial Day.

DEATH OF AN ARTIST.

Louis Reingruber, Formerly of Lancaster, Dies In St. Louis. A telegram received in this city this morning dated St. Louis, Mo., announced the death in that city, of Louis Reingruber, the artist, formerly of Lancaster. No particulars of the circumstances attending the death are artist, formerly of Lancaster. No particulars of the circumstances attending the death are given, but it is supposed to abave been sudden, as his friends in this city were not aware that he was ill. The telegram states that the remains would be shipped to Lancastor, and they will probably arrive Saturday evening.

Mr. Reingruber was a German by birth and at the time of his death was about 46 years of age. He came to America about twenty years settled in Lancaster. He was an artist of ability and painted many fine portraits in oil of Lancaster people, and was the first artist here to bring to perfection crayon drawing. He was also a fine freeso artist, and painted the interior of Zion, St. John's and St. Stephen's Lutheran, St. Anthony's Catholic, the Presbyterian and other churches; also the Masonic hall and other buildings in this city.

About fifteen years ago he married Miss Mary Kiehl, and three years ago he removed with his wife and children to St. Louis where he was doing a flourishing business, and was supposed to be in good healti.

While in this city he was highly esteemed for his many social excellences as well as for his art. He was a member of Zion's Lutheran church, Montercy lodge, No. 242, L. O. of O. F., and of the Lancaster Mænnerchor. His wife and two children survive him. The telegram above referred to states the family wish his funeral to be convive him. The telegram above referred to states the family wish his funeral to be con-ducted by the Odd Fellows. His remains will be interred in Lancaster cometery.

THE LATE REV. D. B. WILLSON.

Peeling Memorial Adopted by His Religious Associates Concerning His Death, The following memorial was adopted at a meeting held in St. James' vestry, this city, on Wednesday:

on Wednesday:
Since it has pleased God to take out of this world the soul of David B. Willson, M. A., rector of the parish of the Ascension, Bradford, in the diocese of Pittsburg, we, the bishop of Pittsburg and clergy from the dioceses of Pittsburg, New York and Central Pennsylvania, assembled for his burial, desire to make this record:

We recall with gratitude to Him who is the giver of all good, the earnest and self-sacri-giver of all good, the earnest and self-sacrificing spirit with which he left a successful secular career to devote himself to preparation for holy orders; and, in his later life as parish priest, his calm and prudent judg-ment, his gentleness towards others, and firmness when his duty was clear, his sound learning, his faithful care for souls, and his own devoutness of spirit, by which he lived day by day as seeing Him who is invisible. And now that he has been called to another and better place, we thank God for his good example, and pray that we may come at the last to our perfect consummation and bliss through Christ the Lord.

HOT WORDS LEAD TO A FIGHT

Between Street Commissioner Bertz And A Athletic Insurance Agent. This morning Street Commissioner Ber went out West King street to inform peopl having bad pavements to put them in repai He stopped at the office of J. Bunce, agent the Metropolitan Insurance company, and as he says, asked him to fix the pavement i front of his house. Bunce, who does no own the property, asked him who he was an to show his authority. Bertz said he carrie no authority, but was street commissione Bunce insisted on knowing his right to orde him to do work. The men finally got hol of each other and Bertz had his shirt torn i the scene that ensued.

The street commissioner went at once to the office of Alderman Deen where he made complaint against Bunce, charging him will assault and he was arrested. It is said that Bertz did not give Bunce any satisfaction when he asked him who he was, and that the former talked roughly. Bunce was no used to this and he turned upon him. Quit a number of people were brought to the scene by the noise, and as Bertz has alway had the reputation of being a fighter, and Bunce; is well-known as an athlete, it was thought more fun would be the result. The street commissioner says he sued Bunce to the scene that ensued. street commissioner says he sued Bunce make an example of him.

ALL ABOUT A BOY BABY.

The Court Awards Him to the Gra hrowing Out a Sop to the Mother. The Ninth ward was represented by a lar number of ladies at the orphans' court roo this morning. They assembled there as w posses in a case that has attracted a lar share of the attention of the aforesaid female and the subject of dispute was a boy baby.
