MEPUBLICAN PRIMARIES. ay, Good Track and Prospect of Good

Time Being Made.

In rose brightly to-day and as the is all that can be expected there will be a large vote polled at the Republication which are taking place this con. The prospects are that the vote heavy in this city. All day the limit have been on their feet and there be fights in several wards. The politicians who have clerkships or the wine employed in this city, were at to their homes with sealed orders the morning and they will do their best in morning and they will do their best in the Examiner.

Leonard, Judge, and two clerks of the same ind. Harry Shroyer, a McDevitt man, is judge of the Ninth ward, with clerks who don't know who they are for. Bill Beard, who is also solld for Jimmy, will be judge in the First ward.

In the Fourth ward Ellwood Griest was chosen judge almost unanimously, with

In the Fourth ward Ellwood Griest was shown judge almost unanimously, with Chas. Fell and Elmer Sing as inspectors. They are for Quay for treasurer and Lehman or recorder. The ward will probably go the ame way by a large majority, but many of "the boys" are hanging back for "soap." In the Eighth ward, in which McDevittives, his friends secured the organization, and will give his delegates a practically possimous vote. The City Lights.

The police reported two gas and five gas line lights as not burning on Friday night. A Pleasant Social Event.

A number of the ladies of Grace Luthers church, at North Queen and James streets, has arranged a most delightful and beautiful ente fainment in which they propose to furnish choice supper at a very low price indeed, i gether with excellent orchestral selections. Either Wednesday or Thursday evenings of next week will be spent most pleasantly by patronizing their appetizing feast. We are sure that none will depart unsatisfied.
