THE MEN WERE O. K.

THEY WERE TRADING IN A SUSPICIOUS AMOUNT OF POSTAGE STAMPS.

Telegram From Darlington, Md., Sets All Things Right—A Picnic and Circus That Come on the Same Day—Base Ball News—Town Notes.

Regular correspondence of the INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, June 19.—Postmaster Mullen, about noon yesterday, received two telegrams from Darlington, Maryland, stating that the men who were trading postage stamps in Columbia, were honest and residents of Darlington. On receipt of these messages, the two men who had been arrested on suspicion were released, and they returned home. The matter will not, however, rest as it is, but be thoroughly investigated.

Picnic and Circus On the Same Day.

The Methodist Episcopal and Cookman chapel Sunday school picnic, and O'Brien's circus, occur on the same day, Thursday, June 25. It will not be impossible to attend both, as may appear, for the picnic train will arrive in Columbia, at 7:45 p. m., and the evening performance of the circus does not commence until 8 o'clock.

Base Ball Notes.

The pitching of Chas. Hippey, Columbia, has of late attracted considerable attention. The young man delivers the in, out and up curves with speed and judgment, and is difficult to hit. He has not yet pitched in any regular games, but we understand he is to be given a trial.

A game of ball was played in Heise's field, yesterday afternoon, by members of the Vigiliant fire company, "Dr. Tanner" captained one club, and Will. Kiscadden the other. The latter nine were defeated by a score of 21 to 11.

Part of the barbed wire fence owned by the Columbia base ball club, has been torn from its position, and lies in the middle of Ninth street. It should be removed else an accident may happen to a team driving over the street.

Notes About Town.

The Columbia steam fire company have just issued invitations for their 33d annual picnic, to be held in Heise's woods, July 4th. They are very pretty, and on the borders are printed the names of the members of the company.

Fishing is all the rage with Columbians just now, and scores of persons are to be seen on and along the river at all hours. Bass and rock are the principal fish caught.

A German tramp was arrested last evening by Officer Dyssinger for drunken and disorderly conduct, and on this charge 'Squire Evans gave him 10 days in jail.

A new pavement is being laid in front of the Columbia National bank.

Third street, between Cherry and Locust, is being graded and macadamized.

Alley I, at Third street, is being improved by a new gutter.

Mrs. Rev. William P. Evans, accompanied by her daughters, are visiting in Adamsville, New York.

Mr. Joseph Bennett, residing at 332 Walnut street, is seriously ill from general debility and small hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The Columbia band will be present at St. John's fair and festival this evening.

Our former townsman, Christian Hollingsworth, for several years constable of the First ward, is in town, visiting Joseph McFall. Mr. Hollingsworth is at present residing in Pittsburg.

On Monday evening next Co. C. will chance off its $100 U. S. government bond. This scheme of the company to raise funds, although not having "busted," has proven a dismal failure and an unlucky speculation.

Misses Lizzie Clark and Master Harry C. Bausman are home from Hackettstown, N. J., where they have been attending the Centenary collegiate institute.

THE FARMERS' CLUB DINNER.

A Gala Occasion in Col. Duffy's Beautiful Park, Near Marietta.

Col. James Duffy, of Marietta, gave a dinner on Thursday to his fellow members of the Farmers club. The board was spread in the pavilion in the beautiful park attached to his farm. The guests were distinguished, representing many important interests.

The railroad interests were represented by George B. Roberts, Frank Thompson, A. J. Cassatt, J. N. du Barry, R. D. Barclay, Charles E. Pugh, Joseph D. Potts, William A. Patton, H. H. Houston, and John S. Wilson all of the Pennsylvania railroad, and President F. A. Conly, of the North Penn road.

Judges Mercur, Sterrett and Green, of the Pennsylvania supreme court, represented the bench.

Samuel H. Reynolds and Colonel W. B. Fordney, of Lancaster; H. M. North, of Columbia, and District Attorney Valentine, of Philadelphia, represented the bar.

The journalistic fraternity was present in the persons of Charles A. Dana, Amos J. Cummings and W. M. Laffan, of the New York Sun; George W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, and Congressman Hiestand, of Lancaster.

President Patterson, of the Western bank, Philadelphia; A. J. Drexel, Rudolph Ellis, Lawrence Jerome, Colonel A. Louden Snowden, of the mint; President Philler, of the First National bank, of Philadelphia; Amos Bowman, of Marietta, represented the financial institutions of the country.

The iron industries contributed their quota of guests in the persons of Henry McCormick, of Harrisburg; A. M. Thackara, of Philadelphia; George F. Silbgen and George W. Mehaffey, of Marietta; Paris Haldeman, of Chiques, and Joseph L. Pennock, of Coatesville.

Hon. Samuel J. Randall, General Cameron, George Blight, W. Henri Drayto, John Barr, William Redwood Wright, Joseph B. Townsend and Clement A. Griscom complete the list of guests.

After dinner Colonel Duffy made a short speech in response to a toast, and he was followed by Lawrence Jerome, Charles A. Dana, Colonel Snowden, General Cameron, Congressman Randall, Judge Green and Col. Patterson.

The twenty-five pound salmon served at table was presented by Frank Thompson, and the brook trout were taken from the streams on Col. Duffy's plantation.

Betz, the Lancaster photographer, was on hand and took several photographs of the guests as they sat at table.

FRATERNITY BANQUETS.

The Delta Tau Delta and Chi Phi Members Having a Good Time.

The 11th annual symposium of the Delta Tau Delta, was held at Geo. H. Miller's dining rooms, Thursday evening. There were sixteen members present and the occasion was a very pleasant one. The menu embraced all the delicacies of the season. Toasts were drunk and eloquent responses made, college and fraternity songs were sung and bright sayings flashed all around the board. Besides the active members present, the following honorary members graced the festivities: Rev. A. F. Driesbach, of the class of '78; Walter J. Bausman, '81; O. K. Snyder, '82; Isaac McHose and W. G. Mayburry, '83; F. C. Cook, H. W. Wanner, and S. M. Miller, of '84. It was after midnight when the party separated.

BANQUET OF THE CHI PHI.

The annual banquet of the Chi Phi was held at the Grape hotel, Thursday evening. The room was very prettily decorated with flowers and vines by Rohrer, the florist, and the menu, arranged by S. R. Miller & Co., was everything that could be desired. Mr. E. H. Hottenstein presided as master of ceremonies. The following toasts were drank and responded to during the evening:

Chi Phi—By J. C. Leiter.
Our Colors—Nicolas Ifft.
Our Future—Frank W. Mish.
Our Undergraduates—J. R. Kauffman.
The Menu—John S. Atlee.
Our Dead—(in silence.)
The Ladies—L. A. Salade.
History—C. Reese Eaby.

Prosecution Withdrawn.

George Ferguson, prosecuted by his wife for assault and battery and drunkenness and disorderly conduct, appeared at Alderman Spurrier's last evening for a hearing. Before the time arrived for the hearing Mrs. Ferguson withdrew the complaints and paid the costs, upon her husband's promise to do better in the future.

Court Notes.

Court heard argument on a number of cases this morning. A subpœna in divorce was issued in the suit of Mary Dowling against John Dowling. The ground on which the divorce is asked is desertion.

BEAUTIFUL ART COLLECTION.

Fine Exhibit of Work Done by the Pupils of St. Mary's Academy.

A most beautiful collection of art work is now on exhibition on the third floor of the fine building on West Vine street, used by the Sisters of Charity of St. Mary's Catholic church as well as for school and orphan asylum purposes. The collection embraces all the newest designs in crewel, outline, chenille, crackle and linen work, and the skill exhibited in the painting of plaques, panels, fire-screens, landscapes, etc., is remarkable. A representative of the INTELLIGENCER penetrated this inner sanctuary this morning, and some of the notable exhibits that attracted his eye are herewith given:

Panel for folding screen of crewel and raised work; outline, ribbon and chenille work on a cushion and buffet cover; raised work on a piano cover.

Banneret with raised work; porcelain and brass plaques; spider-web work on a scarlet table cover.

Water lilies in raised work on a sofa cushion and table cover, together with crewel silk work.

Table cover in crewel and silk.

Pineapple scarf painted in water colors, one of the most artistic pieces and of new design; banneret Kensington painting; Kensington table scarf; piece of painted barbatine ware; frame to a plaque worked in tinsel, having raised fruit; landscape painting, plaque, panels etc.

Porcelain plaques with bronze and old-gold frames: lacquered panels framed; banneret in Kensington snowball painting; collection of bric a-brac and crazy quilt of beautiful design.

Peacock blue plush scarf, arresene and tufted work; green plush toilet set; banneret, "Love Lies Bleeding."

Crazy quilt of perhaps a thousand pieces, wonderfully worked; circular mirror hung in diamond frame; peacock plush blue banneret.

"Love Lies Bleeding" fire screen, handsomely mounted in an ebony frame.

Satine table cover, ribbon, plush and tufted work; violin, Kensington banneret and panel.

Bamboo table, ribbon and silk work.

Dining room table, embroidered with every variety of fruit.

Painted fire screen, not yet mounted; fancy painting; bamboo panel; savannah flower; placques and mantel lambrequin.

Tan-colored felt table scarf, embroidered in chenille, silk work.

Linen work, buffet cover with pretty outlines.

Crackle and plush work on a table scarf.

Banneret in arresene work; table scarf tufted and plush work.

The above are the most striking groups of work executed by the young ladies in attendance at St. Mary's academy and other pupils who receive their art lessons from the sisters. They will well bear inspection by all who are interested in the latest developments of embroidery, painting and other forms of art work. The collection will be open free of charge to-morrow and all of next week for those desiring to inspect it.

The closing exercises of St. Mary's academy will be held in the opera house on Tuesday afternoon, June 23. Miss Beckie Rhoads, who has for eleven years been under the sisters' tuition, is the only graduate. This young lady has a handsome art exhibit, including plush applique, dogwood flower in dashed work on a butterfly tidy and dark blue sofa cushion, arresene work. The closing exercises of this successful school promise to be very interesting.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

John Hauenstine, Miller, Found Lifeless at His Home Near Manheim.

John Hauenstine, miller, who resides about two and a-half miles north of Manheim, was found dead in bed this morning. It appears that his wife got up at her usual time of rising and left her husband soundly sleeping, she supposed, in bed. After she had prepared breakfast, she called him and receiving no answer, went to his room and was horrified to find him apparently dead. An alarm was at once raised and friends hastened for medical aid, but on their arrival they pronounced him dead.

Mr. Hauenstine was 55 years of age, had been engaged in milling for many years, and was highly esteemed in the community. He was apparently in good health when he went to bed. His death is supposed to have been caused by apoplexy. The coroner was notified, and left Lancaster this morning to hold an inquest on the remains.

The State Board of Agriculture.

The state board of agriculture is in session in Towanda, with the governor in attendance and eighteen counties represented. The committee on dairy products made a report favorable to the law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of artificial butter, and the report was adopted. J. W. Ingram, of Bradford, read an essay to show that dairy farming is more profitable than grain growing. Professor Leffman, of Philadelphia, lectured on insane delusions.

Dr. Sturdevant of the New York experimental station, lectured on care and experiments in cultivation. H. N. Williams, of Towanda, read an essay on taxation as affecting different industries. Mr. Lyman, who spoke for Sullivan county, read an essay on the potato and its culture.

There were several essays on apt topics, J. Andrew White discussing the equalization of taxes, and John McDowell the best breed of sheep for farmers. The latter essay elicited many inquiries.

Sudden Death of a Journalist.

Mr. John Rittig, editor of the Sunday edition of the New York Staats Zeitung, died suddenly on board the North German Lloyd steamer Neckar on its way from Southampton to Bremerhaven. Mr. Rittig's death was entirely unexpected. The remains will be taken to New York for interment. Mr. Rittig was born in Prague, March 26, 1829. He studied law and took an active part in the revolution of 1848 and 1849. He was made a prisoner, was taken to a prison in Switzerland, but managed his escape after having been in the prison three months. In 1851 he became the private secretary of Karl Vogt, of revolutionary fame. After Louis Napoleon's coup d' etat, Mr. Rittig emigrated to the United States, and, while here, was, in Austria, sentenced to death in contumacium. He was one of the most prominent German journalists in the United States.

Hanlan's Narrow Escape from Drowning.

Hanlan was practising on the Toronto bay on Thursday, when his new boat, which he had out for the first time, broke up completely. His own account of the accident is as follows: "I had got out some three-quarters of a mile in the bay, when suddenly the boat broke up completely, throwing me into the water. There was not sufficient of the boat left together to support me in the water, but, with the assistance of what little there was, I swam towards the wharf, and, after getting over about half a mile of distance, was exhausted. Some sailors belonging to a schooner, who observed me, came to my assistance and saved me from drowning. It was a very narrow escape. I was never so much exhausted in the water before, and the water seemed to be intensely cold and chilled." Hanlan left in the night for Buffalo.

Baltimore & Ohio's Triumph.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has carried its first point. It has secured a report from the joint committee of Philadelphia councils in its favor, and the route recommended by by the city engineers, to whom the subject was referred, is apparently in some features better than the one asked for. There may be a "joker" in the report somewhere, which will prevent the building of the road, but if such be the case it is not apparent.

The ordinance proposed by the city solicitor and the committee is exceedingly liberal, though the interests of the city appear to be fully protected. The line followed is substantially that surveyed and proposed by the Baltimore & Ohio's engineers.

What a Grain of Wheat Produced in Three Years.

From the Grange Advocate.

From a single grain of wheat planted in 1881 grew twenty-two stalks, each bearing a full head. These yielded 800 grains, 760 of which were planted the next year, producing one-fifth of a bushel of splendid wheat. This was planted the next spring, yielding seventeen bushels, making 1,020 pounds of wheat as the product of a single grain in three years.

Fine Concert.

Last evening there was a very large attendance at Doerr's Maennerchoir garden where Prof. Thorbahn's reed band of thirteen pieces gave a fine concert. The professor's clarionet solo was well received. The garden was illuminated by electric light and tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns.

Returned to Court on Fifteen Charges.

George Hauck was taken from the county prison this morning to the office of Alderman Spurrier and given a hearing on eighteen charges of burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods and felonious entry. The charges against him were published in full a few days ago in the INTELLIGENCER. Fifteen of the cases were returned to court. The evidence as to some of them is said to have been very strong. Many of the stolen articles were found in his possession. The charges of feloniously entering the premises of Peter P. Will and the paint shop of B. M. Roseboro will be heard next week. Hauck was unable to furnish the $5,000 bail demanded and was remanded to prison.

Paid the Costs.

Ten o'clock this morning was the time designated by Alderman Fordney for the hearing of the suit brought by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the instance of Harvey Lytle and Samuel Bushing, supervisors of Upper Leacock township, against Abraham E. Groff, to recover the penalty imposed by section 67, of the act of June 13, 1876, known as the general road law. It was alleged by plaintiffs that the defendant altered a drain and changed a water course. Before the hearing was proceeded with the suit was compromised by Mr. Groff paying the costs and promising not to interfere with the drain as constructed by the supervisors.

Death From a Locust Sting.

Mary E. Hohn, a five-year-old daughter of John Hohn, 254 Mulberry street, died yesterday, and her death is attributed to the sting inflicted by a seventeen-year-old locust a week ago. After being stung the child suffered from a high fever, and there was much inflammation in the locality of the wound. Some scientists maintain that the sting of a locust is not poisonous. The present case would seem to show that they are mistaken.

A Buglar Scare.

This morning about half-past three o'clock, Mrr. John Binkley, corner of North Duke and Fulton street, heard a strange noise in the house, and she feared there were burglars in it. She raised an alarm, and in a short time Officers Weaver, Dorwart, Boas and Barnhold were on hand and surrounded the house. The door was then kicked in and the house was thoroughly searched, but no burglars were found, nor anything to denote that they had been there.

Those Seventh Ward Drunks.

Alderman A. F. Donnelly disposed of ten cases last night, brought against a number of residents of the Seventh ward, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on Saturday night. The only defendant against which a case was made out was Tobe Wright, and the case against him was certainly not an aggravated one, for he was committed to the county prison for only two days. The remaining nine defendants were discharged from custody.

New Postmaster, New Conveniences.

From the Ephrata Review.

The postoffice at Ephrata will be removed from its present quarters to the premises of A. W. Mentzer, for which a one-story frame building, 15x16 feet, cottage style is being erected, as soon as new postmaster, Mr. Jere Mohler, receives his commission, which will be in a week or two. Mohler and Herchelroth are making a ten foot case for the new office. Mr. Mohler has employed his son Chas. K. to assist in handling the mail matter.

The President's Good Judgment.

From the York Gazette.

We have no complaint to [illegible] in regard to the appointee, Mr. MacGe[illegible]e, and as the appointment must go out from among us, that gentleman, as the choice of Lancaster, is just as acceptable to us as any one not named from York, and is another evidence of the good judgment which the president exercises in his selections for places of trust under his administration.

Serenaded.

Capt. M. F. Bowers, who was married a few days ago to Miss Celia Dinkelberg, was serenaded by the military company, of which he is captain, headed by a band of music. After the band played a number of selections the company was entertained by the captain and his bride.

Committed for a Hearing.

William Peoples was arrested last evening by Officer Musketnuss on warrants issued by Alderman A. F. Donnelly, charging him with drunkenness and disorderly conduct and assault and battery on Mrs. Sarah T. Ingraham. In default of bail the accused was committed for a hearing.

Colored Woods Meeting.

There will be a colored woods meeting held at Millway Park on the 27th and 28th of June, for the benefit of the Union church of Harrisburg and the Baptist church of Lancaster. Committee: Rev. Oscar Jones, of Harrisburg; Rev. William H. Keek, of Lancaster; Henry Johnson, of Harrisburg; Edward Hunter, Edward Jackson, Thomas Diggs, Edward Wilson, of Lancaster. Rev. Frisby, of Harrisburg, has the preaching in charge. There will be good singing. Come one, come all.
