FROM $3,000 TO NOTHING.

Savings that Suddouty Disappeared and Lander Their Possessor in a Poor House. David Downs, of Carbon Run, Pa., lies in a pauper's grave and his mother is in the Bradford county poor house, although the two, within a few weeks, possessed $3,000 in cash. Downs and his nother were almost the sole remaining inhabitants of Carbon Run, a village deserted a year ago, when the vorkings of the region were give

The two were known to be misers: Mrs. Downs often having gold pieces exchanged has greenbacks, and, after work closed, they became more penurious than ever.

A few days ago their savings had reached $3,000, and sudenly Downs took the rolls of greenbacks and made off, threatening his mother with death when she followed him. mother with death when she followed him.

The woman returned to her home and Downs hastened on foot to Le Roy. He exhibited his money to two persons, one a man named Mott, on the way, and on arriving at Le Roy tried to buy a coffin for his mother from Albert Holeomb, an undertaker.

When he returned home at night he was dazed, penniless and unable to say what had become of his money, or, indeed, to speak except with difficulty. A few days later Constable Pat Burns found mother and son actually in need of food, and removed them to the almshouse. There Downs died, to the last maintaining silence as to his money,

ALMOST DROWNED. A Boy Goes Down in the Creek and is Revived

On Wednesday evening about twenty-five boys from this city went in bathing in the Conestoga at the "Three Stumps" in Ranck's Conestoga at the "Three Stumps" in Ranck's meadow. Among the number was Abraham Frankford, aged 10 years, son of Miles Frankford. This little fellow jumped upon the back of an older boy and the two attempted to cross the creek. When they got in deep water both sank and went under three times before their companions were able to rescue them. Young Frankford was unconscious at least fifteen minutes during which time the crowd stood him on his head and did everything else before he recovered. and did everything else before he recovered.

The crowd was terribly frightened and succeeded in keeping the affair to themselves who persist in going swimming to small boys who persist in going swimming before they are scarcely able to walk to the creek, and parents would do well to look after them. It is said that a large number of boys from this want of whom are very young, gather city, many of whom are very young, gather along the creek every night and run the same risk of their lives that young Frank-ford did.

Colored Society Events. Jake Parks, colored, arrived in town yesterday from Quebec, Canada, where he has been for several weeks on a pleasure trip. He reports that he had an excellent time and did not need to walk at all until he reached Philadelphia, on his return trip. As the train men are well acquainted with him in this section, he walked from the Quaker City to Lancaster. He is attired in a neat-fitting linen suit and says that he is fully sitting linen suit and says that he is fully prepared for a summer campaign, which he hopes will be an easy one on musicians. Jake reports that he met Tobe Wright while away and warned him not to come to Lancaster. Tobe refused to listen and Jake was pained to learn of his being sent to prison here.

Last evening a festival for the benefit of the colored lodge of Odd Fellows, open in Roberts' hall, and there was a good attendance. The hall is tastefully decorated and strawberries and ice cream were dealtout by a number of dusky maidens. This evenack-walk will be the big feature.

A War Dance on West King Street. This morning a man named Fisher, who resides at Millerville, came to town with some red paint. When he found that Buffalo some red paint. When he found that Buffalo Bill did not appear here to-day he proceeded to take the part of the "Wild West" himself. He got gloriously drunk and threatened to whip everybody at the Sorrel Horse hotel. No one saw fit to get in the way of the infuriated man from Manor, and he proceeded to tear off his clothing. When Officer Boas came upon the scene Fisher had nothing on but suspenders and pantaloons. He was taken to the station house to cool and was breathing hard when last seen.

The Tucquan Club. special meeting of the Tucquan club was held last evening and it was decided to go held last evening and it was decided to go into encampment on July 20. The executive committee were directed to purchase the necessary "articles" for the comfort of the members of the club. A hat was adopted to be worn by the members during the encampment and they will be farmished by Stauffer. Of the thirty members only one is not going with the club. Another meeting of the club will be field on July 10, when annual members will be ciceted.

The Combined Lutheran Excursion. Eight hundred adult's tickets and seven hun children's tickets are being prepared by the Pennsylvania milroad company for the Lutheran excursion to Mt. Gretna, on Wednesday, July sth. Nearly twelve hundred tickets were used by the same excursion party last year in going to Lititz, and all other things being equal, more will doubtless be required this year, because th rates are fully one-third cheaper.

The Raymond Midsummer Tours No more satisfactory way of passing one's summer vacation can be found than in joining one of the Raymond excursion parties. The members of these little bands of pleasure seekers are relieved of all care, and in making a round of the most attractive resorts, have always some one who arranges all details in advance. The cost is much less than is incurred in traveling alone, and there is the added enjoyment of having genial companionship, the parties always being select. There will be three trips in July—two of thirteen days each and one of twenty days, and in addition to these, two grand tours to the Yellowstone National Park are advertised-one for July 23, and the other for August 27. Descriptive circulars of the July tours and also of the Yellowstone Park trips may be had of H. F.
