THE VOICE OF THE LOCUST IS HEARD.

For the INTRLIGENCES. Unceasing the flowing of old Time's saud,
The cat-bird's song comes out of the briers,
From the flakes of blossomy snow,
While the breeze has so much of the woodland's perfume

That it cares very little to blow And the voice of the locust is heard in the land The brook is asleep where the willows stand, The clover is red on the distant bill. Whence the clear " Bob White " is heard hand, The world is a beautiful, beautiful place, If you've love that has taught you to see If you've such a love as the one I love—

Such a one as loveth me-And the voice of the locust is heard in the land Is death chance-or our God's command ? We are living to day, to morrow—who knows? Does the keen seythe swing this way?

And who of us living and loving and hating Will live to see and love the day, When the locust again will be heard in the land?

- Will F. McSparran. COMMISSIONER BUTLERS SNAKE.

It Makes Things Very Lively for Passengers in a Rallway Car. From the Louisville Courier-Journal. Commissioner of Agriculture Butler, of South Carolina, secured a seven-toot coachwhip snake, which he decided to take to Washington and present to the department of agriculture. The coachwhip being a nonvenomous reptile, Mr. Butler concluded to carry it in bag, and for this purpose he selected two sacks. On the train he me friends and told them of the remarkable nake, and his friends naturally expressed a desire to see it. Mr. Butler, going to his seat reached down and drew forth the bas, around which he carefully felt with one hand until lie touched the snake's head, which he grasped firmly. There were about twenty-five passengers watching the proceedings. One pages, more curithe proceedings. One negro, more curious than his fellow-passengers, moved up to get a better view, just as Mr. Butler, having grasped the snake's head, jerked the bag away from it, and seven feet of the snake began coiling, squirming and twisting about the car. The snake coiled its body in all manner of forms and whipped its tail around in the manner peculiar to its variety. Yells were heard at once, and, jumping from their seats, the thoroughly frightened passengers went tumbling down the alsle and out of the car door on to the platform. The negro whose curiosity led him close to the scene, The negro odged, but not in time to escape a cut by se snake's tail, and with a sincere "Oh, the snake's tail, and with a sincere "Oh, Lord, Amassy!" he went out of the car window feet foremost, catching the window as he jumped. He held on until a brakeman d drew him back into the car.

The snake in the meantime had coiled in numerous folds around the legs of the car seats, and Mr. Butler, being unable to release is hold upon its head, found it impossible to unwind the snake without help. The passengers wanted to kill it, but Butler's friends came to his aid, and after a time the snake was unwound and safely replaced. From the time that this incident occurred till e train reached Charlotte, Butler, his friends and the snake had the second-class and hydrogen which we lay in the grave. If he were, the bread would be everything. Bread would be the Saviour; bread would be the God by whom we lived and moved and had our being. Provision stores would be our temples and the commissariat would be our priesthood. Strange religion that ! And yet not so strange after all, for the great nass of mankind have a religion that is efectively this. Bread is the foundation, Take away bread, life goes, man dies, and there is the end! The one needful condition of the happiness taught by the world's religion is he digestive organs. If the occupation though they be the occupations and enjoy ments of poets painters and philosophers, and not of money makers, they are all dependent on the stomach, and the bread question is the most important one that can exercise the human mind. Unless you see another world, and that a spiritual world, you must come to this bread basis of life, no matter how much your soul may revolt at it and show its fit ness for something better.

DR. F. A. DORMAN, Manchester, Carroll Co. M.I., writes: "Dr. Petzold's German Bitters havegiven general satisfaction in this locality and I do not hesitate to recommend it to the world."

A Secretion that Contaminates the Blood. When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always, the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secre-tion, and becomes a poison. Its abnormal pres-ence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saf fron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels and other minor symptoms. Order may be sub-stituted for this chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of billous impurities, besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and re-moving every trace of dyspepsia. This pleasant and purely vegetable auti-bilious medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but it is on account of its freedom from burtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

MAYORITE REMEDY.

Amputation of the Leg.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but t cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Ellsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease in volved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer The family physicians refused to amputate the ab, asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David KENNEDY, of Bondont, N. Y., who was consulted, held a differ-ent opinion and amputated the limb. The Doc-tor then administered freely his great Blood Specific FAVORITE REMEDY to afford tone tor then administered freely his great Blood Specific FAVORITE REMEDY to afford tone and strength to the system and prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Ellsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the off pring of foul blood, and Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your druggist has it. ONE DOLLAR a bottle. Bear in mind the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David KENNEDY, Rondout, N. Y.

To Keep the Blood Pure is the principal and of inventions and discoveries in medicine. To this object probably no one has contributed more signally than Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., in the production of a medicine which has become famous under the title of the "Favorite Remedy." It removes all impurities of the Blood, regulates the disordered Liver and Kidneys, curref Constipation, Dyspepsia and all diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females.
