The arrest of three young men last even-ing by Officers Wittick and Gilbert, created an excitement in the vicinity where the ost occurred. These men had been pointed out to the officers by a detective of the circus s following the show into different towns for the past several weeks and were supposed to be pickpockets. The young men had on watched by the officers, but had not cen seen doing anything to cause their ar-mt. About half past six o'clock one of the started down Locust street, and at the Reading station was stopped by Gilbert, who aked him what he wanted in town. The fellow immediately started to run out Bank alley with the officer close to his heels. He was caught at alley I. The companion, who was watching the man, started to run over second street as soon as he saw him running. Wittiek pursued him and caught him at the same time and place where other one was arrested by Gilbert. The two were taken to the lockup and soon the third man was caught around the opera house by the same officer. This morning they were taken before 'Squire Evans and gave their names as Charles Sinclair, George Morrison, and Frank Wagner, the last two from Philadelphia, and the former hailing from Camden, N. J., and their occupation as news-agents. It was said that two men overheard these men plotting to rob a lady on Front street, of her watch and chain while the parade of the circus was passing, but no evidence could be procured to warrant the holding of the prisoners. They were released with the warning to leave Other Police Cases.

Several men were arrested last night by Officers Gilbert and Wittick, assisted by Chief Burgess Jackson and two special policemen. They all had a hearing this morning at the office of Squire Evans. Edward Shattuck was arrested for being drunk and disorderly and for the larceny of a buffale robe from the house of Mr. S. S. a buffalo robe from the house of Mr. S. S. Detwiler. Several witnesses testified that they had seen Shattuck in the saloons of Hinkle and Mellert, and, upon being refused anything to drink, had acted in an ugly manner. It was also proved that he had been seen in the vicinity of Mr. Detwiler's house, and this gentleman testified that he had a buffalo robe stolen from him. The man was seen with the robe when he was in the saloons. He was arrested at the lumber yard of E. N. Smith, in company with some other men.

Edward Morrison acted in a very drunken and disorderly manner on Front street and in the lumber yards, as also did a man named Charles Clifford. They were sent to the Lancaster jall for 30 days each, and Shattuck received 30 days for being drunk and held for and held for court for stealing of the buffalo robe. Henry Smith and Ridgeway Murphy were arrested last evening but discharged this morning as nothing could be proved against them only that they were in the company of the former men.

George Anderson had been following the circus for several days and claimed to be a member thereof. When ordered from the grounds be acted in a disorderly manner: this caused his arrest and sentence to jail for

The attenuance at the afternoon performsmee of O'Brien's circum was not very large, but a large crowd was present in the evening. The performance pleased all those who attended, as it was for the most part very good and up to the standard. Some of the acts excelled those of much larger shows. When the wagons were being taken from the grounds one of the wagons upset over a small bank and caused some damage to the wood and glass-work about the cage. The occupants of the cage were snakes and birds, but none escaped. A Singular Accident.

Mrs. John P. Stamin met with a very singular and painful accident at her home near Columbia yesterday afternoon. The lady tripping over a rug, lying on the floor. while walking across the room wrenching her right leg in such a manner that caused its breaking between the knee and hip. Dr. Alex Craig quickly responded when he was sent for and reset the member and made the lady as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. Mrs. Stamin had intended leaving town for a visit to her sister near Lebanon to-morrow.

Town Notes.

Yesterday afternoon the gas and water committee of council left town for a visit to different cities, for the purpose of inspecting the ent cities, for the purpose of inspecting the different systems of lighting by electricity. Reading, Bethlehem, Woodbury, N.J., Philadelphia and Harrisburg will be visited.

Yesterday was the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. G. W. Ely and wife, and last evening the congregation of the Presbyterian church assembled at the parsonage and presented to the pastor and wife two very handsome plush chairs. The evening was spent in a pleasant manner, and will be remembered by both the pastor and people.

Three hundred and fifty-three persons attending the Methodist piene at Penrym park tending the Methodist picnic at Penryn park yesterday and among those who were present it would be very hard to find one who was not well pleased with the place.

By some error the account of the base-ball game was given as the Quicksteps defeating the O. K., on last Wednesday afternoon. The game resulting in just the opposite way and the score was O. K—30, Quicksteps, 16. The members of the O. K. members of the O. K. club wish the correct tion to be made, as they take great pride in their clubs and wish it to have all the honor due them, to which they are entitled.

On account of presence of the circus a good deal of drunkenness was anticipated, and Chief Burgess Jackson had appointed several special policemen, but the town was very quiet, with the excepcion of the arrest at the lumber yards. To-morrow evening the Lutheran church on Second street will hold a sociable in the yard adjoining the church. Some of our townspeople have been greatly annoyed by a beggar woman who has been troubling them with demands for money and was quite persistent in her demands,

One Judge Sues Another for Libel. Ex-Judge Timothy O'Connor has brought suit for $20,000 damages against Judge James Fitzgerald, of the Cincinnati police court, for language spoken from the bench upon the trial of women arrested for keeping disreputable houses. Judge Fitzgerald having been informed that the houses were owned by Judge O'Connor, spoke harshly of persons who rent property for such purposes. Judge O'Connor claims that the facts do not warrant consure in his case.

warrant censure in his case. Damages Against a Bishop. A curious case was tried in the Denver, Col., county court, the opposing parties being Felix A Graham and the Right Rev. Bishop Machebeuf, of the Roman Catholic church. Graham claimed that be came from Kentucky in obedience to an order of the bishop, who promised to ordain him to the priesthood and to employ him in his diocese, and he sued for breach of contract, claiming $1,150 damages. The jury awarded Graham $250 Ite Claims He Settled the Case. The term of Andrew Houck, who was sentenced a year and a half ago for larceny, expired to day, but he could not be released from prison because a detainer had been filed against him to answer a charge of fornication and bastardy. Bail was entered to-day be-fore Judge Livingston, for his appearance at the August court of quarter sessions, to answer the charge, and he was released from custody. He claims that he settled this case before he went to jail.

Stationary Contracts Awarded. Detre & Blackbury, of Philadelphia, have been awarded the contracts for turnishing stationery for the state senate and House and state departments. The bids for Senate and House were 254 per cent., and $3,892 for state departments. For furnishing supplies for legislature, John Waramaker, of Philadelphia, and Hoyer & Milnor, of Harrisburg, each bid 25 per cent., and the contract was awarded to both.

Sent Out. Robert Osborne and Thos. White, the tramps arrested yesterday by Constable Dern, near Masonville, were heard by Alderman Barr this afternoon, and committed to the county prison for five days.

THE YEATES INSTITUTE. Their First Closing Exercises a Brilliant Success—The Medals Awarded.

Last evening the Yeates institute inaugurated a new departure in its closing. Here tofore no attention has been paid to the closing of its school year, but this year the headmaster determined to establish the custom of marking the last of the year.

The evening exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. Francis J. Clay-Moran, prayer by the Rev. Francis J. Clay-Moran, who has taken a deep interest in the school and has assisted the headmaster in looking over the examination papers. The Rev. Mr. Hardy expressed in a few words his pleasure in seeing so many of the pupils present and presented Wm. Aug. Atlee, esq., treasurer of the school, who, on behalf of the trustees and pupils, bid them all welcome. He had been present at the examinations and saw the work done by the nursis, and would saw the work done by the pupils, and would assure the parents that the work had been more than satisfactory, and he was glad that we have in our city a school where our sons can be fitted for the highest colleges in the country.

The Rev. Mr. Moran then addressed the boys and spoke in the highest terms of the educational stand taken by Americans, contrasting our colleges of recent foundation with the English schools and colleges whose foundation goes back twelve hundred years. His patriotic words to the boys had a telling effect. He told them to love their country and never feel ashamed of such a noble, active and liberal country. Such advice in these days of Anglomania should be heeded by every American. Then he told them to love their school and to cultivate such an esprit their school and to cultivate such an exprit de corps as the boys of Rugby or Eton have; such a traternal feeling that whether they meet one another on the burning sands of Africa, or on the slopes of the Rocky moun-tains, in the bush of Australia or the swamps of Brazil they know each other as friends. Mr. Hardy then spoke of the high rank taken by all the boys in their written exami-nations, and asked the friends to look over the papers there Iving on the table. He ex-

the papers there lying on the table. He ex-plained that at the beginning of the school year he had offered as prizes gold medals, to be given to the ones who at the end of the be given to the ones who at the end of the year passed the highest written examination in the English studies, in mathematics and in Latin. He then announced that Master John H. Eby had the highest marks in English; that Master Benj. C. Atlee had carried off the mathematical prize, and that Master Geo. F. Atlee had received the Latin medal, Bishop Rulison then presented the medals in behalf of the masters and trustees to the successful ones. The bishop then addressed the assembled company, prefacing his remark by saying that he held in his hand a letter from the headmaster, but in it not a word from the headmaster, but in it not a word was said about delivering a speech. Still he did speak, and held the closest attention of all present while he explained to them the necessity of training their minds to activity and accuracy while young, and so happily illustrated his points that the and so happily illustrated his points that the youngest boy could not fail to understand his meaning. He did not tell the pupils that their life work would begin when they left the school, but that it had already begun and would not be done till they graduated from this earthly school into the heavenly.

Mr. Hardy then declared that the school exercises were closed, when Taylor's orchestra struck up a lively waltz and the young people enjoyed themselves in a merry dame till after cleven o'clock.

GAMBLERS SURPRISED.

A Successful Police Raid Made on a Quaker

City Faro Game. Since the recent order of the mayor of Philadelphia in regard to the gambling louses the lairs of the tiger in that city have been either closed altogether or so carefully guarded as to be practically closed, except to patrons of unquestionable integrity. Acting under instructions from Uniet of Detectives Kelly, Detective Colburn has been looking atter the fare playing fraternity lately, and from information gathered by him a raid was made on Thursday afternoon on the establishment of Charles Kane, one of the best known and heavily backed gamb-lers in Philadelphia, at No. 21 North Ninth street. The raid was made by Detectives Colburn and Hullish, of the Central station force, and a squad of six reserve policemen force, and a squad of six reserve policemen in citizen's clothes under Sergeant Keyser. The lower portion of Kane's place isoperated as a eigar store, bar and biliard room, and the only means of access to the second floor, where the gambling is conducted, is by a wooder stairway running up from the back yard.

Detective Colburn first entered the barroom and overpowered the barkeeper, and before he could give an alarm threw him under the bar, while the officers rushed into the vard and up the stairway. found locked but was quickly broken down, and the second story front room found filled with men trying in vain to find some means of escape. The raid was made so suddenly that the gamblers had no time to remove either the money or chips that were on the fare and roulette tables and a large sum of cash was secured.

The proprietor, Kane, and fourteen others were secured and marched to the Central police station, where they were given a hear-ing before Magistrate Smith. Most of them were professional gamblers and steerers for gambling houses, and, with the exception of Kane and a man named Frederick Horst-meyer, of No. 611 Millin street, the names given are supposed to have been fictitions. The layout, which was taken to police head The layout, which was taken to police head-quarters, was the most complete and costly that has been captured in Philadelphia for many years. Kane was held in $800 bail for court and the others in $300 each to keep the

of Engineers, at Deer Park, on Thursday, Mr. F. Collingwood, of Elizabeth, N. J., read a paper on the preservation of the forests, its purpose being to show the necessity of exercising economy in the use of forest products and the apparent possibility of a wood fam-ine. The writer concluded that the supply of white pine in the United States is certain to be exhausted before the end of this century, and probably in Canada also, () Southern pines, at the present rate of con sumption, there is said to be 150 years' supply of spruce and hemlock east of the Mississippi. There is probably 25 years' supply of hard woods. The supply of black walnut and ash is being rapidly exhausted. The supplies of other kinds of wood are, however, so abundant that a famine cannot be too. so abundant that a famine cannot be predicted. In reference to tree planting, the writer says that when intelligently undertaken in regions where timber is scarce, a fair return is made on the investment. In the discussion that followed it was insisted by Messrs, Collingwood and others that timber planting can be made as profitable

High School Matters. The exercises of the high school commencement will begin in the opera house on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock sharp. Teachers, pupils and directors will meet at the high school building at 7:30 a.m., march in procession to the opera house. The programme of exercises is a long one and the committee of arrangements desire punctuality on the part of all participants. The patrons of the high school should not forget the reception to be given by the pupils in the high school building on Monday evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock. There will be on exhibition a fine collection of paintings and drawings, executed by the pupils of the giris' The high school concert, at the opera house on Tuesday evening next, will be an excellent musical entertainment. Those who enjoy music for itself will have a chance to hear some very good good work. The "Hero's Serenade," from Don Pasquale, and a Swiss air, "When Up the Mountain Climb-ing," were admirably sung at the rehearsal this morning. The chart is now open.

The New G. A. R. Commander On the second ballot for the commandern-chief of the Grand Army encampment in Portland the Hon. Samual Burdett, of Washington, was elected by a vote of 235 to 135 for Gen. Joshua A. Reynolds, of New York, and 79 for John W. Burst, of Illinois. The election was made unanimous.

For senior vice-commander-in-chief ex-Gov. Selden Connor, was chosen by acclamation. To the position of junior vice-com-mander-in-chief Comrade Lewis, of Atlanta, was chosen on the secod ballot.

A Cremation Subject from Baltimore The body of Frederick Eversman, late of Baltimore, arrived in Lancaster this afternoon in charge of his son and daughter. It was taken at once to the crematory, where it was incinerated. Deceased was born in Ger-many, and was 74 years of age at the time of his death, which occurred May list.

DARING TOO MUCH. Private Watchman who Executes Legal

Process Without Authority. Chief Justice McGlinn will dispose of about forty cases to-morrow morning. A large majority are those small boys who were complained against for playing ball in the country some miles from the city last Sunday. A number of the boys were served with the warrants by a night watchman who spends most of his time during the day at McGlinn's office. This man is named Dare, and he has not the legal right to execute warrants. His only posi-tion is that of a private watchman, but he presumes that because he was sworn in by the mayor that he has the legal au-thority to execute warrants. The regular officers of the city complain, and they have cause to, about special officers executing legal process, and they will have a test case made if the private watchman persist in executing

A Young Burglar Shot at Six Times. The Pottsville police Thursday morning chased for more than a mile and fired six ineffectual shots after a boy named James Gillen before capturing him. He had been noticed in a house under suspicious circumstances, but was released on professions of innocence. An examination of the premises revealed the fact that he was in the act of breaking into a store. The jimmy he was using exactly fits the marks left by such an instrument at three recent burglaries and he is charged with all of them. His parents are respectable people and his father refused to do anything for him and he was sent to jail. He is eighteen years of age.

One Vagrant. The only inmate at the station house last night was one lodger. He claimed to be a puddler in search of work and was discharged
