Unwelcome Return of a Husba In 1865 John Gilbert, a farmer of Hunting don county, with his wife and infant daugi ter, removed to Shelby county, Ill. Failing to obtain employment there, he left his family and continued his westward journey alone, promising to return in six months. Not returning at the time appointed, his wife and daughter came back to Huntingdon. About three years ago, after a lapse of seventeen years, Mrs. Gilbert, who could learn nothing of the whereabouts of her husband, and believing him to be dead, married Christian Colestock, of Huntingdon, a decrepit old man, who died a few months after the marriage, leaving his widow considerable valuable property. On Wednesday night, to the astonishment of everybody and particularly Mrs. Colestock, Jno. Gilbert, her first husband, arrived home, footsore and weary, and sought lodging at the residence of his daughter, where he was kindly received. Mrs. Colestock, however, though acknowledging his identity, refused to receive him as her lawful husband, and dismissed him with the bitterest reproaches. Whether Mrs. Gilbert-Colestock will be entitled to the personalty and dower in the realty descending from Christian Colestock is the legal question that will now be raised in the settlement of the estate. to obtain employment there, he left his

Coming Down the Susquehanna

From the Towards Reporter Journal.
On Tuesday last a party of gentlemen "hove to" in Towards harbor, on their way down the Susquehanna. They were travel ing on a small raft or flat boat, had plenty of edibles and a stove on board, and all the necessary accompaniments for a jolly time, Six members of the Wellsburg band were of the party and furnished sweet "music on the water." They hoped, when here, to get way through to Port Deposit—their success depending of course on the state of the river. As near as we could figure it our genial ex-Commissioner M. Furman Ransom was captain of the craft. With him were the gentemen whose names we give below. We sincerely hope they had one of the pleasantest of times: Reuben Lowell and J. S. Hoffman, Elmira; James McQueen, Horscheads; S. D. Harmon, Dr. Dean, Al. Hammor, Morris Young, Geo. Elson, Guy Harmon, Byron Crane and Ben Herman, of Wellsburg. necessary accompaniments for a jolly time.

From the Sunbury Daily.

When William Young was sick last week a minister called on him. Willie's talk puts us in mind of the old couplet, so old, but yet so true:

"When the devil was sick, the devil a saint would be,
When the devil got well, a devil of a saint was he."

Hon. LEGNARD BLANKE, M. C., from Florida, writes: Having found great relief from the use of "Dr. Petzoid's German Bitters," I cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering from Diseases of the Stomach and General Debility.

Hunt's [Kidney and Liver] Remedy is excel-lent in all of the diseases of females. For deli-cate women, no medicine equals it.

A celebrated doctorsays that "Hunt's Remedy is a sure cure for heart diseases, and there is no substitute for it."

When on the High Seas

On the rall, on a steamboat, aboard a fishing smack, or yachting on the coast, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be found a reliable means averting and relieving allments to which travelers, mariners and emigrants are peculiarly subject. Sea captains, ship doctors, voyagers or sojourners in the tropics, and all about to en counter unacclimated, an unaccustomed or dan-gerous climate, should not neglect to avail them-selves of this safeguard of well ascertained and selves of this safeguard of well ascertained and long tried merit. Constipation, biliousness, malarial fevers, indigestion, rheumatism and affections of the bladder and kidneys are among the aliments which it cradicates, and it may be resorted to not only with confidence in its remediatefficacy, but also in its perfect freedom from every objectionable ingredient, since it is derived from the purest and most salutary sources. It counteracts the effects of unwholesome food and water.

SPROIAL NOTICES.

Dip one end of a Sponge in Water and the whole will soon be saturated. So a disease in one part of the body effects other parts. You have noticed this yourself. Kidney and liver troubles, unless checked, will induce constipation, piles, Rheumatism and gravel. A timely use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will prevent these results. It is pleasant to the taste and may be taken freely by children and delicate females. It gives elasticity, life and cheeks with roses on them. MOTHERS.

If you are failing: broken, worn out and ner-yous, use "Wells Health Renewer." $1. Drug-gists. (2)

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumstism.

Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water.

All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave.

Poverty and Suffering.
"I was drugged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring.

I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."

New York, Jan. 27, 1884.—Messrs. Ely Brothers, Gentlemen:—My boy (3 years old) was recently taken with cold in the head which seemed finally to settle in his nose. His nose was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bothe of your Cream Baim. It seemed to work like magic, The boy's nose was clear in two days, and he has been o. k. ever since.—E. J. Howard.

PAVORITE REMEDY. HAPPY CHILDREN.

HAPPY CHILDREN.

How to Make Them 50—Reep Them is Health and They Will Take Care of the Rest.

The joy of every well regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate, parents do not take ener of their children. Through ignorance more than culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy "as semphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients whatever, going straight to the blood, which when impure, is the seat and source of disease. "Fiverite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in svery nursery in the land. Reep it in your house for your children's aske, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistake. The medicine is "Fiverite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Kondout, N. Y. One dollar a bottle.

Grood Words for a Good Thing—Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is exactly what it claims to be, and deserves the praise that are showered upon it by all who have used it. Mr. Israel H. Snyder, of Saugerties, N. Y., says: "My little daughter was covered with Sait Rheum from head to foot. Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy' cured her. This was two years ago."

We Are Not in the Habit of Puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, but we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy, of Kondeut, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it and thus find relief from suffering no professional etiquette shall hinder was from saying that word. For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equal. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times, Troy, N. Y. inlyl-limeod&w
