THE NEW MAJOR.

CAPTAIN CASE NOT FAIRLY TREATED IN THE REGIMENTAL ELECTION.

Junior Officer Takes the Cake—Borough Gayeties From Columbia—A Fugitive From Justice Arrested in Middletown—How Independence Day Will be Observed.

Special Correspondence of the INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, Pa, July 3.—The election held at Allentown, Pa., yesterday afternoon, for the position of major of the Fourth regiment, resulted in the election of Captain James R. Roney, Allentown, to that office, and the defeat of Captain D. Brainard Case, of company C. The many friends of Captain Case fully expected to hear of his success, as they thought him entitled to the office, from the fact that his commission dates from the year 1877, while his opponent's is from 1879. The general rule is that the senior officer is justly due to advancement, but in this case is proved to be an exception.

The election was held at the Fountain house, Allentown, Colonel J. H. Good, of the Fourth regiment, acting as president. Captain Case received but 5 votes and his opponent secured 15, and Captain Roney, of Allentown, will be the future major of the Fourth regiment.

The standing of Company C is not improved by the defeat of Captain Case, as they remain the second senior company, and on all regimental parade will occupy the left of the line.

New recruits are being instructed in the different foot movements by the non-commissioned officers of Co. C, in order that the necessary number of men can be taken to the next annual encampment of the Third brigade.

Arrested in Middletown.

Mrs. Susan Rice, mother of Canny Russell, a young colored girl living on Tow Hill, has entered complaint against F. Lloyd, colored, for having committed an assault on her daughter during the month of July 1884. The officers have been trying to arrest Lloyd but did not meet with any success, until a few days ago when word was received that he was arrested in Middletown, Pa. Officer Wittick brought the prisoner to Columbia and Squire Frank bound him over for his appearance at court to answer the charge of committing a felonious assault.

Social and Personal.

The picnic at Wrightsville grove did not occur yesterday as the parties in charge thought it too cool and would be best to wait for more seasonable weather.

Two different parties will spend the Fourth at Chickies Rock, and enjoy themselves in a pleasant way.

The managers of the Columbia Fire company's picnic at Heise's woods to-morrow are making such preparations as will make the picnic a success. A special train will leave for the woods at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and will return from the woods at 11:00 p. m.,

A pleasant time can be spent at the carnival at the Metropolitan rink to-morrow evening. This will be the closing night.

Many of our townspeople will visit Lancaster to see the attractions presented at McGrann's park.

The concert of the Citizen's band will take place this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The band's efforts in this direction should be encouraged by the presence of a large number of people to hear the music.

A large number of friends attended the last sad rites of Mr. John Payne, from his late residence on Second street. The borough councilmen were present in a body and the flag at the council chamber hung at half mast during the day.

The news of the appointment of John F. Klinesmith to a position under Collector MacGonigle, was well received in Columbia, as the new appointee represents the young Democracy of Columbia and is highly thought of by our citizens.

Bruner Kauffman and Ed. Houston arrived in town yesterday afternoon from Chester, having made the trip on bicycles. They will spend the Fourth with friends in town.

Mr. John Tracy and wife returned home from spending a pleasant week in Reading.
