A LESSON TO LOVERS with a milk pall on her arm, rns aside with her young cheeks glowing sees down the lane the slow dull tread Of the drove of cows that are homeward going Beaste," he said; at the sound she turned, Her blue eyes full of childish wonder; My mother is feeble, and lame, and old—

I need a wife at my farmhouse yonder. My heart is lonely, my home is drear, I need your presence ever near me; Will you be my guardian angel, dear, Queen of my household, to guide and che

"It has a pleasant sound," she said,
"A household queen, a guiding spirit.
To warm your heart and cheer your home,
And keep the sunshine ever near it.
But I am only a simple child,
So my mother says in her daily chiding,
And what must a guardian angel do
When she first begins her work of guiding

Well, first, dear Bessie, a smiling face Is dearer far than the rarest beauty,
And my mother, fretfol, lame and old,
Will require a daughter's loving duty.
You will see to her flannels, drops and tea,
And talk with her of lungs and liver; Give her your cheerful service, dear, The Lord He loveth a cheerful giver."

"You will see that my breakfast is piping hot, And rub the clothes to a snowy whiteness; Make golden butter and snowy rolls And polish things to a shining brightness; Will darn my stockings and mend my coats, And see that the buttons are sewed on tightly; You will keep things cheerful and next and sweet, That home's altar fires may still burn brightly "You will read me at evening the daily news, The tedious winter alghis beguiling; And never forget that the sweetest face Is a cheerful face that is always smiling. In short, you'll arrange in a general way

For a sort of sublunary beaven : or home, dear Bessie, say what we may, Is the highest sphere to a woman given." The lark sang out to the bending sky.

The bobolink piped in the nodding rushes, And out of the tossing clover blooms Came the sweet, clear song of the meade thrushes.

And Bessie, listening, paused awhite,
Then said, with a sly glance at her neighbor,
"But John—do you mean—that is to say,
What shall I get for all this labor?

To be nurse, companion, and servant girl. To make home's altar fires bern brightly ; To wash and iron and scrub and cook,

And always be cheerful, neat and sprightly To give up liberty, home and friends;
Nay, even the name of a mother's giving;
To do all this for one's board and clothes; Why, the life of an angel isn't worth living

And Bessie gayly went her way
Down through the fields of scented clover.
But never again since that submer day
Has she won a glance from her rustic lover. The lark sings out to the bending sky The lark sings out to the bending exThe clouds sail on as white as ever
The clovers toss in the summer wind,
But Bessie has lost that chance torever.

SHAMEFUL REVELATIONS OF BRITAIN on's Horrible Traffic in Women Expose to the London Public. London special to the New York Evening Post An extraordinary revelation has just burs upon us through the Pall Mall Gazette. This paper created a sensation last Saturday by "A Frank Warning to Our Readers," saying that as the criminal law amendment to the bill to increase the age at which female can become a consenting party to unlawful cohabitation seemed likely not to pass, it had determined to lay the case for before the public, and it warned its readers who wished still to live in a false heaven of purity not to read the Pull Mall Gazette for three days. To-day it main Gazes on the subject entitled "The Maiden Tribune of Modern Babylon." An editorial entitled "We bid You be of Hope" says: "If chivalry is extinct and Christi-anity effete, there is still another enthusiasm to which we may with confidence appeal, namely, the combined forces of democracy and socialism." I have just had a long interand socialism." I have just had a long interview with Mr. Stead, the editor. His investigations began months ago. All were conducted by members of his staff, with one outsider. The total expense was over £300. He said: "I have oscillated for months between bishops and brothels. The tale he tells is far too horrible for me to repeat, I recognize fully all the harm I shall do," said measurably greater. We shall pass the bill, but after what I have gone through none of us will ever be the same men again." Mr. Stead gives his personal word none of us will ever be the same men again." Mr. Stead gives his personal word as a voucher of the absolute accuracy of the whole revelation. "The case," said he "is much underrated." After receiving assurmuch underrated." After receiving assur-ance that the information given will not be made use of for criminal proceedings he is prepared to give names, dates and proofs to either the archbishop of Canterbury, Car-dinal Manning, Earl Shaftesbury, Samuel Merley, M. P., Earl Dalhousie or Howard Vincent, as representing the English dinal Manning, Earl Sharlesbury, Samuel Merley, M. P., Earl Dalhousie or Howard Vincent, as representing the English church, the Catholic philanthropy, and nonconformity. Mr. Stead says: "I will go to prison many times if subpoened before publishing the names of people who have given us the details. I am an investigator, not an informer; but all the same I have my hand on a veritable modern Minotaur who lives in Piccadilly." As regards the details of these articles, of which four or five pages each will appear in the next three days, they are filled with horrors positively indescribable. The articles are classified into (1) the sale, purchase and violation of children; (2) procuration; (3) the entrapping and ruin of women; (4) an international stave trade in girls; (5) atroctices and brutalities. "The significant thing is," said Mr. Stead, "that there has not been the slightest interference by the police in all the slightest interference by the police in all the crimes which we pretended to want to commit. The only time they stopped us was when we tried to rescue one of the victims." If you feel nervous as to your kidneys, liver, or urinary organs, use Hunt's Remedy.

Many a man who had lost nerve, vigor and energy, has been cured by Hunt's Remedy.

Joshua Tuthili, Saginaw, Mich., had Bright's Disease, and was cured by Hunt's Remedy.

When on the High Seas On the rail, on a steamboat, aboard a fishing smack, or yachting on the coast, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be found a reliable means of averting and relieving allments to which travelers, mariners and emigrants are peculiarly subject. Sea captains, ship doctors, voyagers or sojourners in the tropics, and all about to enor sojourners in the tropics, and all about to encounter unacclimated, an unaccustomed or dangerous climate, should not neglect to avail themselves of this safeguard of well ascertained and long tried merit. Constipation, biliousness, malarial fevers, indigestion, rheumatism and affections of the bladder and kidneys are among the allments which it eradicates, and it may be resorted to not only with confidence in its remedial efficacy, but also in its perfect freedom from every objectionable ingredient, since it is derived from the purest and most salutary sources. It counteracts the effects of unwholesome food and water.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dip one end of a Sponge in Water and the whole will soon be saturated. So a disease in one part of the body effects other parts. You have noticed this yourself. Kidney and liver troubles, unless checked, will induce constipation, piles, Rheumatism and gravel. A timely use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will present these results. It is pleasant to the taste vent these results. It is pleasant to the taste and may be taken freely by children and delicate females. It gives elasticity, life and checks with roses on them. je-lölmd

An Editor's Tribute.

Theron F. Keator, editor of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Gazette, writes: "For the past five years have always used Dr. King's Now Discovery, for coughs of most severe character, as well as for thors of a milder type. It hever fails to effect a speedy cure. My friends to whom I have recommended it speak of it in same high terms. Having been cured by it of every cough I have had for five years. I consider it the only reliable and sure curs for Coughs, Colds, etc. Call at Cochran's Drug Store, 157 and 159 North Queen street, Lancaster, Fa., and get a Free Trial Bottle. Large Size, $1.00. Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the execuciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING STRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and reder and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. Secenta a bottle.

CATARRII OF THE BLADDER. Stinging, irritation, inflammation, all Kidney and Urinary Complaints, cured by "Buchu-Palba." 51.

New York, Jan. 27, 1884.—Messrs. Ely Brothers, Geutlemen:—My boy (3 years old) was recently taken with cold in the head which seemed finally to settle in his nose. His nose was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of your Cream Baim. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two days, and he has been o. k. ever since.—E. J. Howard.
