THE MOUNT ZION WEDDING.

Great Event in the Circles of New Orleans was quite a stir among the colored people of New Orleans not long ago, caused y the wedding of Mr. Lige Williams and Miss Mandy Parker, which took place in grand style at the Mount Zion church. Miss Mandy was a leading member of the "Daughters of Hope," while Mr. Williams was a very popular representative of "The Rising Sons of Progress," and in consequence the church was densely packed when the bridal couple entered and took their places before the altar. The officiating minister was Brother Sam Johnson, who, in order to lend solemnity to his appearance and the occasion, had borrowed pair of gold spectacles from his friend, Elder Washington Brown, which he wore on the tip of his nose, and every time the little darkies in the rear of the church giggled he darkies in the rear of the church giggled he would frown through the spectacies in a way that instantly commanded silence.

In arranging themselves in front of the altar-rail there was a great deal of pushing and jostling on the part of the bridal party, in the midst of which the best man accidently stepped on the bridegroom's toes and caused that individual to exclaim: "Look heah, man, you mind how you drop yer bools, my feet ain't no stampin' groun'."

At last everything was in readiness for the ceremony to proceed, and Brother Johnson ceremony to proceed, and Brother Johnson stepped forward and in a solemn voice, said stepped forward and in a solemn voice, said:

"Lige Franklin Williams, is you willin' to take dis lady to be yer lawful wife, and to love and cherish her in sickness and in health an' redow her wid yer wordly goods jes as long as you live. Is you, Lige?

Brother Johnson waited for the response, but the groom said nothing and only gianced nervously around. After waiting long enough for the reply Brother Johnson became exasperated and said, "why don't you talk nigger? What you mean by standin' dar twis'in yer head 'round like er screech owl? Ain't you got sense enuff to know dat you can't be lawful married 'ceptin' you speak out an' say dat you gwineter take dis

What's keepin' you standin' dar liftin' up one foot, den de next, like 'er strut-tio' render ?"."

"What's I gwin ter say?" inquired the dusky groom, sullenly pouting his thick lips, "Say dat you take dis lady for your lawful wife." "Course I'se gwinter take her for my wife. What you 'spec I come heah for, anyhow?"

"Den dat's 'ficient," replied Brother Johnson. "Now, Mandy Jane Parker, is you willin' to take dis man tor yer husband and to cleave wid him and to stay wid him jes' as long as life will las'; is you, Mandy?"

"Yes, Brudder Johnson, I'se willin'."

"Dat's right, my chile: "n'se got more sense in er minit den possum head nigger ever had in his life. Now, what's de ring?" "What's I gwin ter say?" inquired the ring.""

"I aîn't got no ring," said the groom gruffly, "but I had one an' las' night, while I was er sleep at Aunt 'Liza Wilson's bouse, her boy Ike he come an' stole it. De ring cost er dollar, an' had er dimunt in it; an' jes' at soon as I kin lay my hands on dat boy Ike I'se gwineter break his back, if I'se got to go to court for it, de no 'count raskel. I wish I had my hands on him now; I'd jes' drap my feet agin de back side er his pants so hard dat he'd tink Gable done blowed his horn."

born."

Brother Johnson, bowever, managed to borrow a guttapercha ring, which was placed on the bride's finger, and the couple were declared man and wife. The friends then flocked around the bride, and for half an hour they saluted her by saying: "How you, sister Mandy? How you do?" and with becoming dignity the bride would reply: "I'm jes' tolerble, I thank you."

After the congratulations, the happy pair and their numerons "s'ciety friends adjourned to participate in the wedding ball given at Deacon Henry Clay Smith's house.

This is to certify that I have no hesitancy in recommending to the profession and public "Dr. Petzoid's German Bitters." A. J. FOARD, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

The Ability to Bear Pain Is the test of fortitude among the Indian tribes, but we defy any Cherokee, Stoux or Comanche to endure the twinges of rheumatism without wincing. These, indeed, are slight at first, but grow in intensity until they become unbearable. No malady is more obstinate in its maturity than that which gives rise to them. The more need, then, of attacking it at the outset. Foremost among remedies for it is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, safe and infinitely more ter's Stomach Bitters, safe and infinitely more effective than colchicum, veratrum and nux vomica, all remedies which might prove de-structive in life in a slightly excessive dose. Mineral depurents, also, when not positively mischievous, are far inferior in remedial power to this salutary botante medicine. It entirely expels from the blood the acrid impurities which originate the disease, and enriches as well as clesness it. Constipation, liver complaint, dyspepsia and other allments also give

New York, Jan. 27, 1884.—Measrs. Ely Brothers, Gentfemen:—My boy (3 years old) was recently taken with cold in the head which seemed finally to settle in his nose. His nose was stopped up for days and nights so that it was difficult for him to breathe and sleep. I called a physician who prescribed, but did him no good. Finally I went to the drug store and got a bottle of your Cream Balm. It seemed to work like magic. The boy's nose was clear in two days and he has been o. k. ever since.—E. J. Howard.

FAVORITE REMEDY. HAPPY CHILDREN.

w to Make Them So—Keep Them in Health and They Will Take Care of the Rest.

How to Make Them So-Keep Them in Health and They Will Take Care of the Rest.

The joy of every well regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients whatever, going simight to the blood, which when impure, is the sont and source of disease. "Fuverite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistake. The medicine is "Fuverite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. One dollar a bottle.

Good Words for a Good Thing.—Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Renedy," is exactly what it claims to be, and deserves the praise that are showered upon it by all who have used it. Mr. Israel H. Snyder, of Saugerties, N. Y., says: "My little daughter was covered with Fait Rheum from head to foot. Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy " ured her. This was two years ago." We Are Not in the Habit of Puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, but we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excelence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it and thus find reilef from suffering no professional citquette shall binder us from saying that word. For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equal. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times, Troy, N. Y. inlyl-imeod&w
