ndence of INTELLIGENCER ILUMBIA, July 13.—A supposed elope-it in Ironyllie, about three miles from ambia, last Saturday afternoon, has ated quite an excitement in that usual alst place. The facts concerning the at have been obtained from residents the place : Dr. Bamuel S. Stoner, who is a well, but favorably known resident of Ironville, en on rather intimate terms with Mrs. osth Helfrich, wife of Matthias Helfrich, d of the Ironville saloon. Dr. Stoner athough living in the village, did not reside with her. The eloping couple were overbout two weeks, by some parties last Satur-day morning. This resulted in an anony-mous note being sent to the husband con-taining information of this state of affairs. Mr. Helfrich showed the note to his wife, ho neither admitted or denied its truth. As ter was no longer a secret the parties preparations to leave at once.

Helfrich gave good-bye to her sister, saying "that she would see her again." The couple never see her again." The couple left in different directions about four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, no doubt meeting at nome appointed place. Mr. Helfrich sont for Officer John Gilbert, who tried to find the sloping pair, but as yet no clue can be found to their whereabouts. Mrs. Helfrich is aged about 28 years and rather good looking. No shildren are left behind to feel the disgrace of a mother's elopement. Two Accident.

She was sitting on a rocking chair, and rocking too hard was thrown from the chair to the pavement, a distance of three steps.

Several bruises about the head was the result of the fall.

Last evening, Maude, daughter of Aaron R. Lutz, living on North Fourth street, was engaged in play with her little brother. The child had a shoe-buttoner in her hand and stumbled and fell, the hook entered her month and caught into the flesh. A doctor was called upon to extract the hook. The injury received is a very painful one.

Columbia Beaten by Keystone. Columbia Beaten by Keystone.

The game of base ball between the Key stones, of Manifelm, and the Columbia club ted a large crowd to the grounds to see the third and decisive game between those two clubs. The game was expected to be close one, and so proved to be. The Columbians had the game well in hand during the first few innings, but by a few miserable errors, aided by some batting at timely points by the visitors, lost the game. The game was a battle of the pitchers in which King, of the home nine, came ahead. When the score was tied by the Columbias in the unith uning the crowd was turned in a polynomial. ninth mning the crowd was turned in a mob and the yelling could be heard for squares away. The following shows the result of the Personal Points.

Mr. Lowden W. Richards, who has been visiting his parents in Columbia, for some time past, has returned to Thurlow, at which place he is in charge of a department in the steel mills.

Miss Alice Reitzenstein, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. D. Hangar, on Walnut street.

Mr. Char M. Kerr of New York, has eturned to his home after spending a short line in Columbia with friends. Town Items.

At the St. Paul P. E. church a collection was taken up yesterday for helping to erect the Memorial church on the battlefield of Bettysburg. The amount collected was $10.55. Some of the teachers and officers of the Bethel Sunday school went to Washington borough yesterday afternoon on a visit to the Bethel school of that town.

An itinerant canal boat missionary held arryless for the benefit of that class of men at the columbia wharves last evening. The services attracted a large crowd.

The Metropolitan rink will be opened next Saturday afternoon and evening. This will be done by special request of a number of persons who enjoy roller skating.

The Columbia fire department will hold a special neeting this evening to clear delay special meeting this evening to elect delegates to the convention, which will be held to-morrow night for the purpose of electing a chief and assistant of the Coumbia fire department.

The Vigilant fire company were notified last Saturday night to be in readiness to re-spend to a call from York, where a large fire was raging. The members had everything prepared to go to the assistance of our neigh-boring town, but were not needed.

Police News.

A warrant was issued by Squire Young,on complaint of George R. Bennett, charging Sarah Kahley with the larceny of a $10 gold plece. The warrant was placed in the hands of Officer John Gilbert, who arrested her at Cornwall. She was brought to Columbia, and given a hearing by Squire Young, last Saturday. Sarah will have to answer the charge at court, having given bail for her appearance.

Pocket-books Recovered.

Notice has been made in these columns of the loss of Mrs. Elizabeth Reese, whose pocket-book, containing $48, was stolen in the cars on her way to the picnic at Mount Gretna park a few days ago. Saturday the pocketpark a few days ago. Saturday the pocket-book, rifled of its contents, was found by the railroad officials in the car at Harrisburg. A rifled pocket-book belonging to Miss Kinzer was also found, the thief having left nothing in it but a receipted bill for some millinery purchased by Miss Kinzer from Mrs. Baer, of Lancaster. Both pocket-books were re-turned to the ticket agent in this city, and by him handed over to Fred Brimmer for de-livery to the owners.

Company K., 122d Regiment

Mr. Dexter White, a former resident of this elty, but now living in the West, entertained the members of Co. K., 122d Regt. Pa. Vols. at Eugene Bauer's hotel on Saturday night. Mr. White was a member of that company, and moving to the West shortly after the war closed he had not met with the members since the company was mustered out, and de-siring to get them together he invited them to meet him at the above named place. A large number were present and a good time Lodged in Prison and Released. Levi W. Nissley, the defaulting trustee, noted on Saturday as arrested on an attach ment, was unable to make good his defalca tion or furnish security for the payment of the same, and was lodged in the county prison late on Saturday evening.

This morning the security of Nissley on his bond as trustee made good the deficiency and Nissley was released from prison.

Partially Heard. Amos S. Mowery was given a partial hearing this morning by Alderman Barr on a rge of seduction preferred by Bella H. Soyder. After a few witnesses had been ex-amined the hearing was continued to give the prosecution time to produce letters, to prove the promise of marriage. A Horse Badly Kicked. This morning Henry Stauffer, residing near Fairville, drove to this city and left his horse at the Leopard hotel stables. While standing there the saimal was kicked by another horse and terribly out. It was found necessary to have the wound sewed up by a veterinary

AN ORIO DOCTOR CREMATED. Leaving Orders to That Effect in His Will

Which His Relatives Carry Out. Another cremation took place at the Lancaster crematorium this forenoon, when Dr. George S. Metzger, late of Columbiana, Ohio, was incinerated. The body arrived in this city on Fast Line at 6:05 this morning, and was at once taken to the crematorium. It was placed in the furnace at 9:30 and the shes will not be taken out until to-morrow ashes will not be taken out until to-morrow morning. The body was accompanied by Paul Metzger, a son of the deceased, and wife, of Salem, Ohio, and George A. Vogleson and son Edward, of Columbiana, who left for their homes at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The deceased was born in Hanover, York county, in 1815. He graduated at the Jefferson medical college in 1836 and went West, settling at Columbiana, where he practiced medicine until six months ago, except during the war when he was an army surgeon. He went to Pittsburg six months ago to be treated for consumption and died there Sunday, July 5th. The body was shipped to Columbiana, as it was believed that it was the desire of the deceased to be buried by the side of his wife. When the will was opened it was found that the doctor desired to be cremated. The body was then shipped to Lancaster. The ashes will be sent to Columbiana and will be placed in the grave with the remains of the doctor's wife.

WITHHOUDING THE NEWS. Dr. M. L. Davis, one of the executive comnittee of the cremation society, announced to-day that he would hereafter give no in-formation in regard to cremations to the INTELLIGENCER and New Era reporters because they recently made the announcement, that a cremation would take place some days that a cremation would take place some days before it came off; and as a result his office was filled with persons who desired to be present at the cremation, and were anxious to obtain such permission. He placed every obstacle to-day in the way of the representatives of these two newspapers in securing the infor-mation desired, but the newspapers will be sublished as heretofore.

Dublished as heretofore.

As the representatives of the INTELLIGENCER have never violated any confidence with Dr. Davis or anybody else in prematurely publishing matter obtained in confidence; and as the announcement complained of was adjusted a present the property of a notice outlished in the simply a reprint of a notice published in the Baltimore Sun twelve hours before, Dr. Davis' complaint is as unfounded as his per-formance is reprehensible and ridiculous.

HEBREW SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Interesting Closing Exercises that Were Wit-nessed by a Large Audience.

The closing exercises of the Hebrew Sunday school took place in the synagogue East Orange street, Sunday evening. Every seat in the auditorium was occupied, a large proportion of the audience being Gentiles. An introductory address was made by Rabbi Rev. Ungerlider, in which he request ed the audience to be very orderly, and refrain from applause, which might disturb the services of the neighbors of the Reformed church, who in their own way, were worshipping near by.

The opening prayer of the occasion, an original composition, was read by Martha Lederman, one of the Sunday school scholars. The other exercises consisted of recitations, dialogues and vocal music by the younger scholars, of whom there were about twenty-five and whose ages repeat from six by five, and whose ages ranged from six to eleven years, and all of whom were de-servedly commended.

Before the closing prayer was recited Rev. Ungerlider made a brief address, thanking the audience for their attendance; the teachers and board of directors for the efficient work they had done in the school which now num bers forty-two scholars. He encouraged them to continue their labors and their studies after the close of the summer vacation. He then distributed to the children the prizes which had been awarded them by the directors, the prizes being given according to the lors, the prizes being given according to the average grade of the pupils. They consisted of handsomely bound books, albums, illuminated cards, &c., &c.

At the close of the distribution, Mr. Julius Lederman made z onet address to the pastor, thanking, aim for his labors in Lancaster and expressing the hope that he would long continue in the present ministrations, and as his own health was impaired, the congregation had thought it well to give him a four-weeks vacation, in hopes that the sea breezes and mountain air might reinvigorate him, and that he might not go away empty handed.

and mountain air might remygorate him, and that he might not go away empty handed, presented him with an envelope containing funds for traveling expenses.

After gratefully receiving this mark of affection and confidence the pastor ordered the concluding prayer to be recited, which was done by Miss Florence Sylvester, and the audience was dismissed. the audience was dismissed.

Eight Persons Drowned in a Lake. Shortly after five o'clock Sunday afternoon heavy wind and rain storm passed over Lake Minnetonka, near Minneapolis, Minn. The small steam yacht Minnie Cook, with eight persons on board, was capsized and everyone drowned. The news of the accident spread rapidly and created the wildest excitement when it became known that all the victims resided in Minneapolis. names of the unfortunate party are as follows: Ex-Mayor A. C. Rand and wife, Mary Rand, and two sons, Harvey and Frank; J. R. Coy-kendall and wife and daughter Kate, and George McDonald, engineer, all of Minneapo-lis. Two bodies have already been recovered. lis. Two bodies have already been recovered. The storm is described by eye-witnesses on larger boats as terrific. The waves rolled high and rain and hail filled the air. The larger steamers put into shore with great difficulty, and it was impossible for the small craft to live in the terrible sea. Other boats are believed to have been lost, but it is difficult to get details. The storm was also severe at White Bear, but no lives are reported lost from there. A. C. Rand was mayor of Minnespolis for two terms previous to the Ames incumbency and was a wealthy and well-known citizen. John Coykendall was a member of the firm of Coykendell Bros. & Co.

Harry Berman, one of the Russians living

Harry Berman, one of the Russians living in the Seventh ward, made complaint to day against a fellow countryman named M. Zuckerman, charging him with larceny as baliee. Zuckerman bought some goods from Berman and gave him some jewelry and other articles as collateral security. While Berman was away from his house, Zuckerman skipped away with the collateral security. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the defendant.

Search was made for him, but nothing could be learned except the fact that he called at the house of Lazale Ensil and borrowed $5 on the strength of the alleged credit he had obtained from Berman. Inquiry at the depot showed that a large valise containing goods had been left there by Isaac Golden to be shipped to New York. It is believed by Berman that this valise containes the goods and that Golden, who left town at loclock, was an accomplice of Zuckerman.

Late this afternoon the valise left at the depot by Golden was opened and the goods were identified by Berman as those obtained from him.

Warden Wenrich speaks in the highest terms of Weeder, who is a in the highest terms of Weeder, who is a magnificent cabinet-maker and worker in wood or turner. His best piece of work is the large medicine case standing in the old jail corridor, and it has been pronounced by all who have seen it as a fine affair. Weeder says he will pursue his trade hereafter and live an honest, straightforward life.

Radly Hurt by a Fall. Jacob, a four-year-old son of John Kepper-ling, toll-gate-keeper on the Millersville turnpise, was seriously injured on Saturday afternoon. He was on the tence on the top o an embankment when the street car passed and one of the passengers, a young man re-turning from a base ball match, in trying to knock the boy's hat off, struck the boy on the head, causing bim to fall down the em-bankment, a distance of about eight feet. The boy's head was cut and he was badly bruised. An Empty Station House.
