COLUMBIA SCHOOL BOARD.

THE BUSINESS THAT WAS TRANSACTED AT THE JULY MEETING.

The Financial Condition of the School Fund A Lad's Frightful Fall from a Tree, Coal Car and Cabin Wrecked-Late Notes About the Town.

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER. COLUMBIA, Pa., July 17 .- The Columbia

ool board held its regular monthly meeting for the current month, last evening, in he council chamber at the opera house, Dr W. G. Taylor, president of the school board, in the chair and all the members present The minutes of the regular meeting of last month and the meeting of July 7, were read and approved.

The committee on repairs and supplies reported that they had notified the coal dealers to send in their proposals for coal for the use of the different school buildings. They ended that the inside of the Cherry street school building be whitewashed or calsomined. Two heaters in this building are in need of repairs, and should be fixed. The report was received and adopted. The finance committee reported as follows: They had advertised for the sale of coupon bonds for $4,600, bearing 4 per cent. interest, due in ten years or payable in twenty. Application for the purchase of a part or whole amount was made by the Fulton bank, of Lancaster. The bonds were signed and sealed, and on June 30 transferred to the Fulton bank, receiving therefor a check for street school building be whitewashed or of the repair and supply committee, who were authorized to have them repaired. The secretary reported that the 1885 tax duplicate has been completed and the bonds of the First National bank as treasurer and of Samuel II. Boyd as tax collector are in the hands of the secretary and they have been approved. The secretary has received notice from all the teachers for the ensuing term that they are willing to accept the positions to which they were elected.

The proposition of Messrs. 1vison, Blake-men, Taylor & company to place a primer physiology and an elementary physiology in the book stores of Columbia to be sold at 30 the book stores of continuit to be sold at 30 and 50 cents respectively was accepted and the secretary will notify the publishers of the books of the fact. Any person can receive 21 cents for an old elementary physi-ology in exchange for a new book. The pub-lisher also guaranteed that the price will not be above 30 and 50 cents for these books. The acceptance was authorized to enhance the

The secretary was authorized to subscribe for nine copies of the School Journal. The erection of a board fence at the insti-the building was left to the discretion of the committee on repairs and supplies. A number of bills were presented and ordered to be paid, after which the board adjourned.

Fearful Fall From a Tree.

John Crowley, aged twelve years, son of Levi Crowley, cupola tender at the Keeley stove works, met with a terrible acceident yesterday afternoon and from the result of which his life is despaired of. The boy was which his life is despaired of. The boy was playing near the stove work, with some of his companions and had climbed into a tree. The limb upon which the boy was suddenly broke and the boy was precipi-tated to the ground. His head struck upon a stone when he fell and rendered him uncon-scions, the blood gushing from his mouth, nose and ears. He was taken to his home on North Third street and Doctors Craig and Lineaway ver sent for. They soon responded North Third street and Doctors Craig and Lineaweaver sent for. They soon responded and did all in their power to relieve the suf-ferings of the boy. Both arms are broken at the wrists, his kead terribly swollen and se-vere internal infuries are the result of the accident. The doctors know-faint hopes of the boy's recovery. Coal Car and Cabin Wrecked. The train belowing to enclude.

flagman of the train was not back to signal the train following, which was Engine No. 600 The result was that the engine run into rear end of the first train, wrecking a coal car and cabin. The Columbia wreck crew was called into service and in about two hours had the wreck cleared away. The coal car was totally destroyed and the cabin nearly so. The cabin was turned completely upside down. Both crews belong to Har-risburg. The cow-catcher of No 661 was risburg. damaged.

Town Notes.

Complaint was entered by Fred Stein, proprietor of the Mechanics' hall, at the office of Squire Frank, against a Columbia and a Squire Frank, against a Columbia and a Lancaster man for being drunk and acting disorderly in his saloon. Officer William Wittlek arrested the men, and they were given a hearing at 'Squire Frank's last night. The testimony was very conflicting. The case was settied by the payment of the costs. Owing to the illness of the manager of the electric light company, Mr. Brock, work has not been progressing very rapidly in the matter of erecting the poles, etc. They were to be erected 10 days ago, but this unfortunate circumstance has delayed the work. The work on the poles will be commenced on Monday, July 20.

The hot wave has struck town with full force and yesterday and to day have been the poles of the second wave is eagerly looked for.
A key-ring containing five keys was found on Fourth street. It can be recovered by the work at 13 North Fourth street.

school at Lititz yesterday was a very pleasant one, and the day just the kind for pleuies. About 600 persons were in attendance. A plenic will be held at the Wrightsville grove to-day. Pennsylvania railroad engine No. 29 was given a trial trip this morning. The trial was very satisfactory.

Police Cases.

This morning Patrick Coreoran and James Wyatt were heard before Alderman Deen, on the charge of being disorderly in Lampeter township, where they were arrested by Constable Wiggins. They were sent to jall for stable Wiggins. They were sent to jail for five days each. Yesterday a party of tramps who have been encamped in Manor township, were ar-rested and brought to town by Constables Dern and Wiggins. Alderman Deen sent them to jail for a hearing. Among the party was Tom Houston, an old rounder, who is well-known to the police of this city. The others were Pat Wertz, John Phillips and John Myers. Jersey's Population About 1,300,000. Returns from the recent New Jersey census are not all on file yet, but from the data at hand enough is known to place the aggregate population at about 1,300,000, an increase of population at about 1,590,000, an increase of over a quarter of a million in five years, or 12½ per cent. Jersey City and Hudson county make the best exhibit. The increase in the county is about 50,000, and in the city about 30,000. The population of the city is about 152,000, and of the county 238,000. Essex county comes next with a population of 213,000, while Newark has 153,000. Camden and Pasade also made large increases. Some and Passaic also made large increases. Some of the agricultural counties show a slight decrease.

Only One Bushel to The Acre.

QUARRYVILLE, July 15 .- EDS. INTELLI-GENCER. In notice in the New Era of June 20th., in the proceedings of the Fulton Farmers club that the question was asked by more club that the question was asked by Amos K. Bradley how much orchard grass seed should be sown on an acre. It was an-swered by Day Wood that it required six or seven bushels. Now I think I can inform them on this point. I have raised orchard grass for the last thirty years, and I sow about one bushel to the acre, and I raise as much hay to the acre as is raised in this end of the county. RICHARD C. EDWARDS.

Straw and Hay Shed Burnt.

Straw and hay shed Burnt. The straw and hay shed of Aaron Zell, near the village of Florin, was destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning. The shed was well filled with straw and hay. The fire is believed to have been the work of a gang of tramps who made the shed their headquarters for the last few weeks. The loss, a few hundred dollars, is covered by insurance.
