

DEATH THE CONQUEROR.

GRANT'S HERITAGE OF SECTIONAL GOOD WILL TO THE COUNTRY.

A Remarkable Document in Which the General and Ex-President Gratefully Acknowledges the Good Will of His Countrymen and Rejoices in the Restoration of Peace.

Not by the ball or brand... Not by the lightning stroke... Not by the ranks of war... Felicitate the conqueror.

Unmolested, undismayed... Eye that dimmed not, hand that faltered not... The dainties here plentiful.

While the hero's spirit slept... A woman to his chamber crept... Lightly to the slumberer came.

The conqueror of a hundred fields... To a mightier conqueror yields... No mortal form's bow.

READY TO ANSWER HIS CALL. The Last Document Written by Grant Furnished by His Physicians.

The public is furnished with the following remarkable document, written by General Grant in Dr. Douglas's presence, on Thursday, July 27.

I do not wish to show this to any one, unless the physicians you consult with, until the end. Particularly, I want it kept from my family.

BASE BALL NEWS.

The National Club Gives Lancaster a Severe Lesson on Saturday.

The Lancaster club played the first game on their Southern trip, at Washington on Saturday. The game was a hard fought one, but the National club's pitching was knocked all over Washington, while the Lancaster boys could do little with Barr. Tomney led the batting for the Northern club and Hiland the fielding. The score, with battery errors in the column, is as follows:

Table with columns for Lancaster and National, listing players and statistics like runs, hits, errors, and total scores.

A COOLING STORM.

THAT BROUGHT SOME ACCIDENTS IN ITS REFRIGERATING RAIN.

A Visit of Rain and Wind That Drove Off for a Time the Hot Weather—Narrow Escape from Accident on the Quarryville Road—A Barn Fired.

Sunday was a day of intense heat in Lancaster, the sun beating down with merciless fierceness on all with temerity enough to encounter its rays. The streets during the day were almost deserted, and the churches had but a light sprinkling of worshippers.

A Passenger Train on the Quarryville Road Makes a Narrow Escape. A remarkable accident occurred on the Quarryville railroad yesterday, due to the storm, which might have been frightful in its consequences.
