gular Correspondence of Intelligences. Columbia, July 31.—The body of William Columnia, July 31.—The body of William F. Mowery, the member of Company C, who met his death in such a tragic manner of Thursday morning, while returning from Lebanon to the encampment at Mount Gretna, was brought to Columbia on the six o'clock train last evening. The detail of Company C, to accompany the remains of eir fellow member to his home was comscored of Corporal Conley and Private scometh. The particulars of the accident as been received from the detail, and are as follows: William F. Mowery, George W. company C, left camp for Lebanon on Wed-seday night to visit that town. The last train for camp was missed by the men and Mowery and Sharp started to walk for the camp, a distance of seven or eight miles, as they wished to be present in time for the regular drills of the company. The day preceeding had been a very busy day for the soldiers and they were tired. After walking for a short distance they seated themselves on the tracks of the C. & L. railroad at the on the tracks of the C. & L. railroad at the outskirts of Lebanon. They concluded to take a short nap and laid down on the track Mowery had his head on one rail and his feet on the other. They had been sleeping for a short while when Sharp was suddenly awakened by the rumbling of the approaching train. Blinded by the headlight of the engine, Sharp rolled from the track calling on Mowery to follow his example. The warning came too late and before Mowery could realize the sense of his danger the train was upon him, cutting off both legs and arms and otherwise mutilating him. The cars'passing over the body produced a joiting which sing over the body produced a joiting which was felt by the flagman of the train. The train was stopped and the crew went back to ascertain the cause and there found Mowery just breathing his last breath. This train contained a number of soldiers belonging to the Third brigade, among whom was Shields. The body was identified by him as one of his The body was identified by fellow members. The remains were taken to Lebanon where they received the attention of an undertaker.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mowery was killed while sleeping on the tracks of the C. & L. railroad and exonerated the train men and the company from all blame. The news of the accident was blame. The news of the accident was brought to the encampment just as company C. was making preparations for breokfast. The news spread a gloom over the entire camp, and more especially over the company to which he belonged, as he was a general favorite, and was well liked by all with whom he came in contact. William Mowery was in his 22d year, single, and lived with his father, John Mowery, in Stump alley, between Third and Fourth streets. He was employed in the Pennsylvania round house as boilermaker. He was a member of the Vigilant fire company No. 2, and was well liked by all his associates. The funeral will be held on Sunday morning, August 2d, at ten o'clock. day morning, August 2d, at ten o'clock. Company C is expected home from Mount Gretna this evening from this week's encampment.

In the Ball Field.

On Saturday afternoon the Dauntiess base ball club, of Mount Joy, will play with the Columbia club. The game will be interesting. The addition of three new players in the home nine has greatly strengthened the club and the management promises a better club than ever before. Meenan, the third baseman of the Colum-bin's of last year, has been sent for and will arrive in time for to-morrow's game.

A game of ball was played on the stove works grounds yesterday afternoon between the O. K. club and the Our Boys. The former club proved to be the stronger club and defeated their opponents by the score of O. K. club, 17; Our Boys, 3. Around the Town,

During the day she had several fainting spells, although not of a serious nature. When in the train near town she had another fainting spell, which was quite serious. On the arrival of the train at Columbia she was taken into the ladies' waiting room of the Reading & Columbia station, and Dr. W. G. Taylor being summoned, administered the proper medicine. About nine o'clock she had recovered sufficiently to be taken to her home. Over-exertion was, in the doctor's opinion, the cause of the spells.

The union pienic, which was held in Penryn park yesterday, by the three Sunday schools of Columbia, Washington and Mouniville, was largely attended and the day was pleasantly spent by all who were present.

BERTHA KASHLER'S STORY Contradicted in Several Important Particular

by Police Officers, The item published in yesterday's INTELLI-GENCER, about the brutal treatment of Bertha Kashler by the Meadow gang, was the general theme of conversation last evening. To-day, from inquiries made, it was learned that all her story is not true, several facts having been learned that contradict her facts having been learned that contradict her statement in important particulars. She stated that she did not have any opportunity to get away from the gang, during the past two months; while the fact is that Chief Haines fcund her wandering on the streets alone, on the morning of July 20, between 3 and 4 o'clock. He took her to the station house, where she was kept several hours and then discharged. She did not make any complaint to the chief, turnkey or policeman of having been forced to stay with the Meadow gang. She gave her name as Ellen Kershner, when brought to the Station house, and her gang. She gave her name as Fallen house, and her when brought to the Staten house, and her

Two Items About Dogs. Last evening two dogs began fighting out on the old Ironsides ball graounds, and a little son of Adam Mislich attempted to separate them. One of the animals turned upon the boy, biting him badly on the leg.

On Sunday night a dog belonging to a neighbor, broke into the chicken coop of Benjamin F. Rowe, at Lampeter Square, and killed twenty-one chickens and three turkeys. The owner of the dog was advised to kill the dog, but he refused, as he did not believe the stories told about the animal were true. Last night he was convinced, however, when the animal broke open his own coop and killed sixteen chickens and a turkey.

The Man Still Unknown. Yesterday afternoon Coroner Honaman held an inquest on the remains of the man found in the woods above Landisville. He summoned a jury composed of B. E. Kendig, John Musser, Israel Root, Christian K. Long, Samuel Girt and M. G. Peifer. They rendered a verdict that an unknown man came to his death from causes unknown. To buyers were rused on the person. In one pocket was a small nigof collee, and in another a throup. The people in the neighborhood think the body is the of an old tramp who was often seen in the neighborhood but has been missing for several months.

He Wants Them All In. Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, the newly appointed sostmaster, tells an INTELLIGENCER reporter that he desires all applications for positions under him to be handed in not later that Saturday, August 1, at 12 o'clock, noon. None will be received after that time.

A Constable's Great Work. This morning three tramps, who had been arrested by Officer Shaub, a constable of Leaster township, but a resident of the city, were sent to juil for five days each by Alerman Doon.

THE CAMPMEETING AT LANDISVILLE.

The Crowd Continues Large and the Services Interesting-Weather Warm but Pleasant. The attendance at the campmeeting at Landisville continues to be large, and at last evening's service there were more people present than at any time since the opening. To-day a great many came in on the morning trains and large numbers drove to the grounds. There are now thirty families grounds. There are now thirty families on the grounds from Lancaster, and every cottage and tent is occupied. This is the warmest day the campers have yet had, but the evenings and mornings are delightful. Everybody seems to be in the best of spirits and they certainly are enjoying themselves. Among those who arrived since our last geport are the following: Rev. Dr. G. K. Morris, of Tabernacle church, Philadelphia; Rev. J. S. J. McConnell, Manayunk; Rev. M. Mellick, Harrisburg; Rev. Thomas Ogle, Millersville; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Campmeeting Notes.

This afternoon the board of control held a special meeting at which committees were special meeting, at which committees were appointed to see that order is maintained on the grounds on Sunday, when a tremendous crowd is expected on the grounds. The order on the grounds during the whole day is excellent, and when services are being held it is as quiet as in any church.

The railroad rates to Landisville are lower

Miss Weiser, of York, is a very hard worker.

Governor Pattison's veto of certain private harities was amply justified by the reasons with which it was accompanied. But the wisdom of the veto has been since vindicated on other grounds. The peeple of Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton are making vigor-ous efforts to maintain their charitable institutions without assistance from the state. This is an active charity which is far more blessed than the sort which manifests itself in drawing charitable appropriations from rev-enues which are collected from the taxpayers for other purposes.

From the Baltimore American. Just before the line finished two charming young ladies, dressed daintily in black and white, came up and shook hands. The presiwhite, came up and shook hands. The president always takes much delight in speaking to pretty girls, and they passed on. It was only a minute of so before Sergeant Dinsmore heard a faint whisper at his elbow, and turning he beheld the two young ladies, "Can't we shake hands with the president again?" one of them whispered to the president's bodyguard. "He does shake hands so nice. I want to try it again."
