COLUMBIA, Aug. 5.—The congregation of alem Lutheran church, on Walnut street, ave decided to improve the interior of their h, by the putting on of new paper and like additions. The work of renovation has been going on for some time past, and when finished this church will be much trautified in appearance. The old paper on the walls have been removed and both the ing and side walls are being re-papered y handsomely with gilt paper. The walls lling will all receive some ornamentawhich will add greatly to the beauty o the church. Imitation stamped glass will be put on the windows. This article is imported put on the windows. This article is imported from Ireland and approaches the genuthe stathed glass. The pews and all the other wood work in the interior of the church will be painted and grained in ash and walnut. The old alter has been taken down and a new one munished, which is of the finest workman-ship and design. The pulpit of the church will be altered and improved in a manner corresponding with the other parts of the building. When finished the church will be one of the handsomest places of worship in columbia. How the Cars Moved in July. A decrease is shown in the number of cars

An Erring Wife Returns. Mrs. Lizzie Helfrich and Dr. Samuel Stoner eloped together from their homes, in Ironville, on the afternoon of Saturday, July 11th, 1885. Matthias Helfrich, the husband of the erring woman, did not give himself much concern over the matter in order to much concern over the matter in order to ascertain their whereabouts. Mrs. Helfrich no doubt became tired of living away from home with the doctor, and concluded to re-turn home again. This she did yesterday afternoon, going to the house of her parents. She will not disclose where they were while away or where the doctor is at present. No particulars can be gleaned from her concern-ing the aftar. Poverty and Soundor.

Poverty and Squalor. A. F. Dongaree, who gains a precarious living by carrying on as botanical doctor in an alley, near the old colored church, is lying very sick at his home and in needy circumices. It was the attention of some parties to have him removed to the hospital at Lancaster, yesterday afternoon, but the attending doctor refused to allow him to be removed, as he is in a very critical state and liable to die at any minute. Dr. Roche did not arrive in time to partici-pate in the Grant memorial service yester-day afternoon, as was expected, but came in the 8 o'clock train in the evening. Addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. T. Satchell, John F. Croueb, and E. C. Griffiths, and a poem was read by Miss Annie Bruner, of Columbia. The services were very interest-ies threadout

Columbia. The services were very interest-ing throughout. The attendance at the services at the 7:30 hast evening was large. The sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas M. Jackson, of Corwall, whose text was found in Job xi, 15: " For then shalt hou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast and shalt not fear." After the sermon there was a prayer meet-ing, which continued until 10 c'olock. There were a number of mourners at the altar and several conversions were made. This morning Rev. Wm. Redheffer, of Hal-fax, Pa, led the 6 c'clock prayer meeting. change.

was at the head of the 8 o'clock meeting. The announcement that Dr. Roche would preach at 10 o'clock drew many people to the stand. The face of the doctor is a familiar one at Landisville, where he has been a regular attendant at campmeetings for several years. As he said this morning, he is always glad to accept the invitation of the Landisville people, and makes it a point to get here. This morning the reverend gentlemen preached one of his usual excellent sermons, and at the close his audience seemed anxious for him to continue. His text was Psalms ivili, 11 : "So that a man shall say, verily there is a reward for the righteous ; realing type, if 1: "So that a man shall say, verily there is a reward for the righteous : verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth ?" and from Matthew v., 12: "Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." ng at the stand was conducted Rev. G. Reed, of Mount Nebo, in the absence of Rev. Roads, who was called away from the grounds to-day to attend to some other duties. Miss Weiser conducted the consecration service on the hill.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Women's At a o clock this alternoon the women's missionary society celebrated their third anniversary. Addresses were delivered by Mrs. S. L. Keen, of Philadelphia, and Miss Hinkle, of Danville; Miss Amanda Landis, of Landisville, gave reading and there was prayer and singing. This evening the carly meetings will be held. The minister for the 7:30 service had not been announced up to noon.

To-morrow's Services. As to-morrow will be the last day of the campmeeting the services will be of a very interesting nature.

Interesting nature. In the morning at 10 o'clock there will be preaching by Rev. Jesse B. Young, of Grace church, Harrisburg. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a memorial service, in honor of the members who have died within the last year, will be held and the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered. administered. In the evening, after the sermon by Rev.

G. G. Rakestraw, of Central church, Phila-delphia, there will be the usual handshaking and the campmenting will close with a walk around.

To-morrow afternoon the board of control will meet on the grounds to elect officers for the year.

To be Cremated.

Dr. T. S. Updegraff, a prominent citizen of Elmira, N. Y., died a few days ago. He left directions in his will that his body should be disposed of either by incineration or by the use of quicklime. If the latter method was employed he gave directions that he should be buried in a plain white coffin, with a lid be buried in a plain white coffin, with a fid as thin and weak as it could be made. Six bushels of quickline was to be thrown upon it. This would break through the fid and consume the body in a short time. His triends have decided to have his re-mains incinerated at the Lancaster crema torium, and have been in communication with the officers of that association. The time has not yet been fixed for the incineration, but it will not take place for several days at least, and in accordance with the wish of the family will be entirely private.

A Curious Case of Trespass.

Nearly a year ago Amos Kauffman, of East Hempfield, sold to Christian Binkley, of Pequea, a cow, supposed to be a milk cow. Binkley declared the cow gave no milk and would not pay for her. Kauffman refused to take her away and she remained at Binkley's take her away and she remained at Binkley's for eight months. As Kauffman could get no money for the cow, he finally went to Binkley's and took her away. Binkley pre-sented him with a bill for $8 for boarding the cow eight months. Kauffman refused to pay the bill and Binkley sued him for trespass. The case was heard before Alder-man McConomy. Plaintiff was willing to withdraw the suit, if detendant would pay the costs, $3.80. This he refused to do where-upon the alderman fined the plaintiff Stoard upon the alderman fined the plaintiff $10 and costs. As this sum was greater than the costs and cow-board, Kauffman finally agreed to pay the latter bill, thus saving $2.
