- No grave had he, but on the ground His bleeding body lay, While thoughtlessly his babes around Were laughing in their play.
- Their infant prattle ne'er again Would stir his toying heart, Or cries of pleasure or of pain, A parent's sense impart.
- And smoothed their enrly hair, As they fondly nestled at his side, And found affection there.
- But red-men like a cyclone came And stole a precious life, The flends that white men cannot tame Or wean from wanton strife.
- His children sported by his side And lingered bout his head; He loved them as the boy his bride, But now he lay there dead.
- Their mother but a year ago Was by the savage slain, And the tears that in affliction flow
- The foe who never pity feels
- Or spares the scalping-knife, The blow alike of murder deals To busband and to wife.
- The orphan's lot is now their fate, Poor little, helpless things The victims of a deadly hate
- That field and fireside wrings. No scalp had he; upon the plain His mangled body lay, While wonderingly his children twain
- Were singing in their play. The settler has no cause for hope Of safety from that curse,
- But the use of rifles and of rope
 And the people's Westpoint purse.

 —Bill Y. Buttes, the Colorado Cowboy. leed Soup the Latest Drink, in the Chicago Mail.

The latest drink is iced soup. You know that in winter time we had beef tea, steak tea and other hot drinks, but iced soup or bouillon is having a great run, and I believe that it has come to stay. The lemonade trade has fallen off greatly since the advent of the soup. Men who are accustomed to mint juleps, etc., take to the iced soup "like a duck to water"

When was the new drink brought on. ?" "About a week ago a well-known 'doctor' came to the proprietors and said that he had a scheme that would take. The bosses laughed at him. Finally he induced them to put down their names for a gallon, and it was brought at the balls are a gallon, and it was brought into the place in a brown jug. 'Keep in a cool place and shake well before taking,' were the instructions on a card. This was a kind of chestnut, but I was told to put the jug on ice and did so. Then gayly decorated cards were hung up in the place and by and by we had a call for a glass of bouilion. I poured out a glassful, and, after seasoning it with salt and pepper, handed it to the custo-mer. It seemed to have touched the right spot, for he said it was the best drink he had taken for years.
"How many brands are there?"

"Well, you can get tomato, vegetable, oxtail, pea and barley, and the doctor says that if the thing is a success he will introduce

Another Reason for a Dip in the Brine. From the San Francisco Alta.

"I thought only a few men would bathe regularly in winter," observed the reporter. The bath man laughed scornfully. "When a lady makes up her mind to bathe every day in the year," he said, "nothing can stand her off. I've seen men who would come here on cold mornings, undress and walk to the water's edge, but the minute it touched their toes race back and get on their clothes again. Not so with women. When they are in bathing trim it means bathing, and nothing short of a tidal wave will stop them. Here comes the daisy bather of the lot. I've seen that girl here when it was so cold that to even look at the water used to give me the shakes. Now, what do you think first induced that lady to bathe all the time? For the pure love of it? No, sir. She was getting too fat. She tried everything—dieting, exercising and medicine, but nothing would take her down. At last she dropped on sea bathing, and that tetched her. She is nice and slim now, though plump enough, but when she came here first she was as fat as a butter ball."

Safe From Connubial Cyclones.

From the Chicago Herald. "Do I keep a cyclone pit ?" echoed a parsenger from the West; "yes, I keep one not far from my house; but, Lord bless you, I ain't afraid of cyclones. The cyclone was never born that could scare me or make me "But what have you got the cyclone pit

Well, you see, my old woman has spells o' temper, when 'tain't safe for a feller to be around, 'speshully wash days. On them oc-casions I find my little cyclone pit right smart handy."

An Original Style of Suicide. At Miss Furness' residence in Lenox, Mass., on Friday, the head butler, Anatole Lefort, went to a room which has two iron bedsteads. He moved the beds so they stood a little over four feet apart, then at tached an endless towel to the iron frame of one of the beds in such a way that it left a slip-noose near the centre. He put his bead through the noose, then lifted his feet and stuck them through the iron frame of the other bed. His weight tightened the towel around his neck and he died from strangula-

Wherever Malaria Exists,

The bilious are its certain prey. In intermittent and remittent fever, dumb ague and ague cake, the liver is always seriously affected, and the blood contaminated with bile. One of the chief reasons why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters chief reasons why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is such a sure defense against chills and fever and every form of malarial disease, is, that it does away with Hability to the disease by reforming irregularity of the biliary organ in advance of the arrival of the season when the disease is prevalent. There is no finer fortifying preparative for those about visiting or emission of the season when the disease is prevalent. grating to a locality where the Missma-taint exists. There is no certain immunity from disease in an endemie or epidemie form, to be secured by the use of the average tonics and anti-spasmodics. But where quinine fails the Bitters succeeds both in preventing and curing. More over, it removes every vestige of dyspepsia and overcomes constipation, rheumatism, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, and tranquilized and strengthens the nervous system.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Who does not delight to see a good looking face? Yet crysipelas disfigures the features almost beyond recognition. But this is not the worst of it. This disease is as dangerous as it is repulsive. It is sometimes called "St. Anthony's Fire," and often causes sudden death. Mr. S. B. Carpenter, of Grandville, N. Y., had it in both legs and was cured by Dr. Keunedy's Favorite Reinedy. The medicine excels all others for the blood. Especially adapted to persons in feeble health.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Eelectric Oit cured me. I was also troubled with hoarseness, and Thomas' Eelectric Oit cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small tenspoon and half fill it with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon into the head, by sniffing as hard as they can, until the Oil fail over into the throat, and practice it twice a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarth. For deafness and earache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it in my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism in my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas Eelectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Ps.
