AN EJECTMENT TROUBLE.

TES. BARBARA EATON REFUSES T LEAVE HER TENANT HOUSE.

Power of the Law Invoked to Make He ito-A Bungarian Who Got Bimself Into Difficulties-The Serious Results of a Debauch-Town Notes,

Columnia, Pa, August 11.—The neigh-porhood in the vicinity of Third and Lawstreets are very much excited over utting a tenant out of a house. Yester-morning Officer Gilbert arrived with e proper authority, went to the house of re. Barbara Eaton on Third street near 9. There has been a slight decline in Penn-sylvania, Maryland, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana. In the seven corn surplus states the averages are: Ohio, 96: Indiana. 95: Illinois, 94; Iowa, 101; Nebraska, 100; Missouri, 89; Kansas, 90. Correspondents report drought in some places, excess of rain in others, but well drained and deeply cultivated land has suffered little from drought or super-saturation. Meteorological conditions have been generally favorable. The prospect has not been exceeded since 1880. The moist and hot weather following the 15th of July has caused some damage to Lawrence, and placed all her household furniture on the street and pavement. The neighbors greatly sympathized with Mrs. Enton and have given her all sorts of advice o pursue in the matter. The facts of the to pursue in the induct. The facts of the case which caused the tenant to be ejected, have been gleaned from Squire Frank, under whose orders the officer performed his duty. On March 15, John Eaton, son of Mrs. Eaton, rented a house from William Brady, ituated on South Third street, promising to pay the rent by the month, and thus became a tenant by the month. From some cause William Brady wished to recover possession of his house and instructed 'Squire Frank to take the necessary legal steps to regain the house. On June 13th a notice was served upon the tenants to vacate the premises within thirty days. The law requires that when a person is a tenant by the month that thirty days is the necessary legal time to give a tenant to vacate the promises. No heed was given to this notice, and on July 18, a summons was issued to Constable Wittick to be served on the ten-ants to appear at the 'squire's office, returna-hle on July 25. On the moring of July 25 the plaintiff of the case, William Brady, appeared at the office of 'Squire Frank and testi-fied that the complaint was just and true and that he desired to recover possession of his which caused the tenant to be The moist and hot weather following the 15th of July has caused some damage to spring wheat in the Northwest, mainly in Wisconsin and Minnesota. While generally noticed, its effects are variously reported, prominent counties returning from 100 down to 85, and in a few cases down to 60, and to 48 in the case of Pierce county, Wisconsin. Most of the great wheat counties in Minne-sota report averages from 75 to 90, though Dodge returns only 50. Some of less im-portance make an average of 100. The re-duction in prospective yield is greater in Minnesota, amounting to 9 points. The decline is 5 in Wisconsin, 4 in Iows, and 1 in Dakota. There is an increase in the other territories and in New England. The aver-age decline is 4 points, and Indicate a reduc-tion on 6,0000,000 bushels from the expecta-tion on the 1st of July. fied that the complaint was just and true and that he desired to recover possession of his house. The defendant, Mrs. Eaton, did not appear. A writ of possession was issued and on Monday Constable John Gilbert proceeded to the house and placed the entire household effects on the pavement. Mrs. Eaton has se-cured the service of a lawyer from Lancaster to look after her side of the case, as she claims that she could not legally have been ejected from the house. The general opinion of some of the neighbors of Mrs. Eaton is that this electment was due to the non-payment of some of the neighbors of Mrs. Eaton is that this ejectment was due to the non-payment of rent. The rent for the house was paid up until the first day of July. The owner of the house wished to regain his property and the matter of rent was not taken into con-nideration. The furniture is still standing where the constable put it and the owner of the things declares that they will not be re-moved. The outcome of this affair will be made interesting to some parties. Result of a Debauch,

Last evening about six o'olock Charles Loring was seen walking up Walnut street presenting a dreadful appearance. His cloth-ing was saturated with blood that was flowing was saturated with blood that was flow-ing from wounds on his head. He entered the office of 'Squire Young and told a sad story that he had been attacked by some per-son who cut him with a razor. Loring was given attention by the 'squire and the blood was washed from his face and head. It was found that he had three very se-vere cuts in the back part of his head. After the 'squire had questioned the man he came to the conclusion that he did not know came to the conclusion that he did not know how he was hurt. Loring had been on came to the conclusion that he did not know how he was burt. Loring had been on a drunk during the entire day and was seen along the river shore. It is supposed that he stumbled and fell upon some cinders on the shore and cut his head in this manner.

It Might be Well to Reconcile Them. From the Philadelphia Record.

Now that the Grant funeral is over, it would be well for the New York newspapers to hold a convention, and facilitate the labors historians in the future by settling some of the points upon which their reports were at variance. For instance, was General Han-cock's horse bay, black or brown, and which moble animal was taken sick on the road— the hero or his horse, that the general was compelled to drive up to the tomb in a hack? Did General Sickles bestride a fiery charger, with his crutches strapped to the off-side of the saddle, or did he ride in a carriage ? Was General Sherman in a barouche or a coupe ? Did Scoretary Bayard wear a white hat up. he saddle, or did he ride in a carriage 7 was reneral Sherman in a barouche or a coupe ? Did Socretary Bayard wear a white hat un-dorned, or did he mollify its incongruity with a crape band ? These are only a few of the minor points that we should like to see settled in the interests of historical accuracy.

From the Boston Beacon. Look after the bend in your shoulders just below the nape of the neck, mesdames, for this proclaims Sarah Bernhardt's age, according to an astute critic, who says no stage artifice can conceal this evidence of forty years, now perfectly apparent in this once delectable French artiste. Women who hate to grow old will be obliged to do something more than repair their faces if this worldly observation is really true. A wrinkle, a lost tooth, a gray hair, is mere child's play to "the bend in the shoulders just below the nape of the neck." Something must be done to straighten it out.
