CHILDREN IN POORHOUSES.

President Dickinson, of the board of public charities, has returned to Philadelphia after a two weeks' visit to the penal and charitable institutions of Dauphin, Perry, Mifflin, Buntington, Juniata, Blair and Bedford counties. His first official act was to send out by authority of the board the following circular, addressed to the overseers or guardians or by authority of the board the following circular, addressed to the overseers or guardians or directors of the poor in the several counties, cities, boroughs and townships in the state:

The board of public charities of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania wish again to call the attention of the poor directors of the state to the provisions of the act of the legislature of June 13, 1883. Under that act it is unlawful for the overseers or directors of the poor in the several counties and boroughs of the poor in the several counties and boroughs of the poor in the several counties and boroughs of the state to retain in any almshouse or porhouse for more than sixty days any chiat between the ages of 2 and 16 years, unless such child be an unteachable idiot, an epileptic, paralytic, or is so deformed or disabled as to render it incapable of labor or service. In many instances this law has been either entirely or partially ignored. The importance of the rigid enforcement of its requirements is so great, and the benefits resulting from it so manifest in those instances where it has been followed, that the board of public charities feel it to be their duty to address again all those who are in authority in the institutions covered by its provisions, and to urge upon them immediate compliance with the law. It is necessary to dwell upon the great advantage to the child to be say that the law. It is necessary to dwell upon the great advantage to the child to be say that from the surroundings necessarily and the surroundings necessarily to dwell all this, and it only land places in which suitable homes may be found for these children, as the successationing the efforts made in so many places has abundantly proved. We carnestly hope that no poorhouse will be allowed longer by its authorities to retain beyond the limits of the law these children, and to this end we address this communication to you, asking for it your prompt attention.

The board is determined to enforce the law and of the law these children, and to this end. sed to the overseers or guardians of

for it your prompt attention.

The board is determined to enforce the law and if the children are not removed within sixty days there will a thorough sixting of the state, and the offending authorities will be taken into court and forced to comply with the provisions of the act.

MANY WOMEN AT THE TOMB.

Floral Pieces From the West Set by Genera Grant's Coffin.

Grant's tomb has become a Mecca to the omen of New York, and three thousand of them made a pligrimage there yesterday. They feel obliged to go to Riverside Park and stand for hours and stare at the artilleryman eing his beat in front of the grated door. But few men are in the crowd that constantly gathers. It is made up of well-dressed women who come with their parasols, children and lunch baskets. They carry away pebbles from the gravel walk as mementoes, and in front of the tomb the walk is becoming denuded. The guards think that excursion parties from the country will soon begin to apin Dutchess county has written to ask what facilities the school could have if it decided facilities the school could have if it decided to hold its annual picnic near the tomb. There is a park rule against walking on the grass, but well-beaten paths are worn in all directions over the bluff.

A floral anchor, which had been sent from Georgia to Mr. George Jones, was put in the tomb yesterday. A seven-foot column arrived from the Grand Army men of Cincinnati. It is made of smilax, ferns, carnations, violets, and roses. A dove is perched on the violets, and roses. A dove is perched on the top. On a pale blue silk band coiled around the pillar is painted, "In memoriam." The crowd of women swarmed on the express wagon, and snipped leaves and flowers from the floral piece when the expressman and policemen weren't looking.

Great precautions are taken to keep the tomb from being defaced. Two sentries guard it, and at night challenge any persons who comes within reach. A sergeant is constantly there and six men of the relief. During the day a cordon of park policemen under Capt. Beaty keeps people ten feet tomb is closely inspected, and any chipped brick or pencilled names would have to be accounted for. No such defacements are visible. The park commissioners are think-ing of running an electric light wire to the camp, and of having one light over the

A Texas Lawyer's Strategy. h a suit at Longview, Texas, John W. can, one of the attorneys in the case vehemently argued that no value or reliance could be placed upon petitions promiscu-ously signed by citizens. Opposing counsel refuted Duncan's augument scathingly and characterized it as absurd and idiotic. The characterized it as absurd and idiotic. The court and the jury were also against Duncan. They believed that petitions in any cause, if signed by good men, were entitled to respectful consideration.

Chagrined and defeated, but not convinced that he was wrong, Duncan quietly went to work to prove that petitions were of no value. His ingenious zeal was rewarded Tuesday, when in open court he read a solemn petition praying that the court would hang their fellow townsman Luke Howard, who is one of the most respectable and enterprising citizens low townsman Luke Howard, who is one of the most respectable and enterprising citizens of the place. Duncan displayed the names of all the county officers and of fifty business men signed to this ludicrous petition.

Among the signers were the brother-in-law and father-in-law of Howard. Every signa-ture was proven to be genuine and it was conceded that Lawyer Duncan had proved his argument.

He Should be Caged.

John Williams, a weak-minded colored man, who makes the almshouse his home, was arrested last night by Constable Dern near Millersville on a very serious charge. Williams leaves the almshouse occasionally williams leaves the almshouse occasionally and wanders through the country. Last evening he was detected while attempting a felonious assault on a child of Abraham Charles. He was detained by Mr. Charles until the constable arrived. Alderman Barr committed Williams to the county jail and it is the intention of the authorities to have his mental condition inquired into. If found his mental condition inquired into. If found to be insane he will be sent to the insane asylum where he will be restrained. It is said that William has been guilty of several similar attempts before.

Hard to Find a Treasurer. The city of Lynchburg, Virginia, finds it difficult to secure a treasurer, owing to the fact that a bond of $200,000 is required. "V. G. Dunnington was re-elected nearly three months ago, but failed to give bonds. D. R. Dunn, Republican, was then appointed by Judge Latham, and it was announced that Senator Mahone would furnish his bond. Dunn changed his mind and declined to qualify. John W. Hughes was appointed and gave the necessary bond, but ten minutes thereafter was found to be inelligible, not residing within the corporate limits. Judge Latham then appointed John W. Bransford, a prominent tobacconist, who gave bond and will take charge of the office at once."

Child Assaulted by a Book Agent.

On Tuesday morning a book agent, named W. W. Werringer, hailing from Philadelphia, while under the influence of liquor bratally assaulted in York, a little girl, 4 years of age, and attempted to outrage her. The child's person bore marks indicating the brute's fiendish design. He also attempted to coax other children to a secluded spot by the offer of money. He was promptly arrested and is now in jail awaiting a hearing.

A Large Fishing Party.

This morning ex-Mayor Stauffer, Alderman McConomy, Henry Baumgardner, John Murphy, C. F. Rengier, "Bowery" Erisman, John Copland and John Reese, went on a fishing party to Welse's Island on the Susquehanna. They were accompanied by an equal number of kindred spirits from Philadelphia.

A HITCH IN A CREMATION. New York Friends of the Last Subject Complain that the Apparatus Old Sot Work Entirely Satisfactorily. Through the columns of the New York Tribunc the friends of the late Dr. Charles Hoppel, whose body was cremated here on Monday, give an account of the operation. It is substantially like that of most cremations, now familiar to our readers, except that in this case it is said "the heavy iron door of the retort was opened and the platform upon which the body rested was pushed in front of the opening. A small wire which ran through the retort was then attached to the iron grate the retort was then attached to the iron grate and was wound around a roller by means of a crank, and the body was slowly drawn into the retort. After the feet of the dooter had get inside the wire caught in the opening and despite the efforts of the attendant the body could not be drawn any further into the furnace. While seeking for some other means to move the corpse the alum sheet caught fire and the flames were speedily communicated to the clothing upon the body and before it could be moved into the retort the flesh was already burning and the odor filled the room to the great disgust of Dr. Hoppel's friends, who were sailly watching the proceedings. The body finally being in the retort, the doors were closed and shut out the hiss of the steaming flesh."

There is some exaggeration in this account. It is true that a rather unsuccessful attempt was made to draw the iron crib containing the body into the retort, with the wire cable attached to a wheel and crank, lately constructed, and which has worked very successfully several times; for some unaccountable reason there was a hitch, the cable became entangled and the attendants not being prepared for such an emergency were slightly delayed in pushing the crib completely within the door. During this time the shroudings broke into a blaze, but it was only momentary; the "disgusting" odor of burning flesh referred to was not manifest. Accidents will happen, even in the best regulated crematories, and this incident, slight as it was, was the first of its kind occurring in twenty-six cremations. and was wound around a roller by means of twenty-six cremations.

How to Treat Balky Horses.

the Country Gentlema The habit of balking in double harness can be easily overcome by means of a cord onefourth of an inch in diameter and sixteen feet n length, an iron ring about one and a half inches in diameter and a piece of strong twine some two feet in length. Fasten the ring securely by means of the twine to the back strap, where it is crossed by the breeching strap, then double the cord, placing the loop formed by the centre under the balky horse's formed by the centre under the balky horse's tail like a crupper. Cross the cord and pass both ends through the ring attached to the back strap. Carry them forward and pass them through that terret ring on the saddle of the harness which is next to the balky candidate's mate, then carry them through the hame ring of the kind horse and fasten them, leaving a little slack, but not sufficient to allow the balky horse to settle into the breeching of the harness. After completing this low the balky horse to settle into the breeching of the harness. After completing this arrangement, step back, take the reins and start slowly. Of course the balky one will attempt to bang back, but the sensation produced by the cord will divert his attention in a very short time, and before he realizes what he is doing he will put his shoulder to the collar and help draw the load. This is much better than whipping, and a few lessons will generally effect a permanent cure.

Robert J. Houston Mentioned. The National Greenback state convention will be held in Erie to-day. Among the probable candidates for state treasurer will be Colonel Armstrong, editor of the Labor Tri-bune, Pittsburg : Lewis Olds, of Erie : Wesley Chambers, Oil City ; Robert J. Houston, Lancaster: Theodore Wendall, of Chester, and Michael Nawgle, of Bedford. The caucus in drawing the platform comprised the anti-discrimination, free silver coinage, gen-eral pensioning all honorably discharged soldiers, improvement of the navy and merchant marine, but divided on the propriety of introducing a prohibition clause. The Pittsburgers say it is best not to meddle with whisky.

None of the local lights of the Greenback party are in attendance at the convention. Before Alderman McGlinn L. B. Clark, a resident of Beaver street, was arrested last night by Special Officer Dare on warrants issued by Alderman Me-Glinn, charging him with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and threatening to do Michael Groff great bodily harm. Clark spent the night in the station house. The cases will probably be arranged during the day. Joseph Lappendelter an Italian, prosecuted before the same alderman for commit-ting an assault and battery on a fellow-coun-tryman, was arrested by Special Officer Dorwart and held for a hearing. Charged With Larceny, Harry Fisher, a young man who has been familiar with the police courts on former occasions, was yesterday charged with larceny casions, was yesterday charged with larceny by Lewis Cohen, who has a millinery store in North Queen street near Orange. Complainant avers that he employed Fisher to fix an awning in front of his store, and that during a temporary absence of complainant, $18 or $20 were pilfered from the money drawer; and that a little boy who remained in the store, saw Fisher go behind the counter during Cohen's absence. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued by Alderman McConomy.

derman McConomy. Arrested For Burglary, Constable James W. Young yesterday afternoon, arrested Abram Glasgo, a colored individual, of West Chester, on a charge of burglary committed in Sadsbury township, this county, sometime last January. Thomas J. Bailey, of that township, is the complain-ant. Glasgo is now in the Chester county jail awaiting the action of the Lancaster county authorities. Mr. Bailey has been sent for by the district attorney, and before his arrival the proper papers for his removal to this county will be made out.

The Court Pulled Down Its Vest. As General Wilson, of Fargo, D. T., was making an eloquent appeal before Judge Francis in court at Valley City, the gavel suddenly fell. "That man," said Judge Francis, pointing to a sweltering visitor in the rear of the torrid court room, "will put on his coat!" General Wilson, quietly turn-ing to the court, said: "Your honor, if that rule is to be observed I think the court should button up its vest!" "Pil do it, sir: I'll do it," replied the dignified judge, and at once proceeded to button up and pull down his vest. down his vest.

Could Not Furnish Ball. Benjamin Jacobs was prosecuted some ime ago by Sarah Jacobs, for assault and battery, before Alderman Fordney. The alderman allowed Benjamin to depart to look for bail and Benjamin to depart to look for bail and Benjamin departed. He falled to return, however, and as the case had to be returned to the present term of the court Constable Kline was sent for Benjamin. He brought him to the alderman's office this afternoon, and not being able to furnish bail, was committed to the county prison.

To Be Dispossessed.

The property of Thomas Tillbrook in Strasburg borough was sold by the sheriff last April, and purchased by Wilson B. Townsend. Tillbrook refused to give up possession of the premises, and this morning a hearing was had before a sheriff's jury at the office of Alderman Spurrier. The jury decided that Townsend was entitled to the premises and the alderman issued a writ to the sheriff to dispossess Tillbrook. Letters addressed to the following persons are held at the Lancaster postoffice for lack of postage : Ed. S. McClellan, Desoto, Mo., Mrs. Marion Raymond, 1721 Dean street, Philadelphia.

The Mayor's Court. Ida Brooks and Clara Zell, young women, were arrested by Officer Boas last night for disorderly conduct. They were taken before the mayor this morning and allowed to de-part upon the payment of costs.

Sale of Horses. Samuel Hess, auctioneer, sold at public sale, August 11, for Abram L. Longenecker, at his sale and exchange stables, in Manheim, 18 head of Hilinois horses at an average price of $163.50 per head.

Dauphin County Republicans.

The Republican Dauphin county convention nominated William H. Ulrich for prothonotary, M. M. Santo for register, George F. Shindler for coroner, and L. W. Clemson for director of the poor.

"The Imperial Highway."

Subscriptions are now being taken by a canvaser in this city for a work entitled "The Imperial Highway to a Buccessful Life," or, "The Road to Fortune and Happiness." It is a unique volume, aiming to present by the truth and facts of some great men's lives how to obtain the three principal objects of human desire, viz.; Fortune, or success in business life; happiness in social and family life, and happiness in social and family life, and happiness in oternal life. Jerome Paine Bates, A. m., is the author; and within its more than 800 pages there are comprised ten steel and six copper plate engravings, illustrative of the text.—which contains not only the biographies of notable self-made men and blographics of notable self-made men and notable women, but much well-considered ad-vice, valuable suggestion, homely wisdom, re-ligious and moral instruction, and general reading for the family, adapted to young and old, and of advantage to rich and poor.

The reunion and pienic of the Sons of Veterans to be held at Penryn park on Thursday, August 20th, promises to be a grand affair. About eight camps and a number of G. A. R. posts have sent word to the general committee that they will be there with their friends. A first-class orchestra will furnish music for all who delight to trip the light feature of the party. Promisent G. A. R. men have light fantastic. Prominent G. A. R. men bave been invited and are expected to be present and address the people. The committee have secured a low rate of fare from all points on the P. & R. R., and will spare neither time, trouble or expense to make it the finest and best excursion of the season.

Rink Opening. The Mænnerchor rink will be opened on Thursday evening (one night only) at 7 o'clock, when it is expected that a good-sized crowd will take advantage of the opportunity to indulge in the pleasing pastime of gliding over a smooth floor on rollers.
