of good appearance, over medium bt and good build, was brought to the of Squire Frank yesterday atternoon, is one o'clock. The man gave his name oan Beal and told a plausible story to the ment of the story was as follows: During month of April last John Beal, the prisoned his brother attacked a man named the month of April last John Beal, the prisoner and his brother attacked a man named Charles Hide, a boss at the coke ovens at Profiter colliery, one mile from Connellsville, in Fayette county, this state. The boss was severely wounded and was taken to the hospital. The brother of Beal was arrested and is now in jail but Beal escaped and has been roaming throughout the country ever mines. He said the reason for his giving himself up was that he was tired of trying to citede capture, as he felt sure that the officers in search of him would soon arrest him. The story the self-accused man told bore every semblance of truth, and as the newspapers of last April contained an account of a boss at a coke oven, in Connellsville, being attacked by two men, the 'squire felt justified in committing the man to the borough lockup until information concerning the affair could be obtained. The chief of police at Connellsville was telegraphed to by 'Squire Frank, but as yet no answer has been received. If the 'squire does not receive any word to-day from the authorities of Connellsville the man will be released.

Baylor Could Not be Found. Saylor Could Not be Found.

The town police officers went to Washington borough yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of arresting B. Frank Saylor, who was concerned in the scandal that has been exciting that town in connection with the wife of Jscob Wertz. The town was thorougly searched by the officers and every place where Saylor was supposed to be was visited, but the errand of the officers was fruitiess, as no trace of the man could be found. Wertz has sent his wife away from home and a once happy family is now forever wrecked.

To Exterminate the Indians, Two young boys of about fifteen years of Two young boys of about fifteen years of age were seen going through town last evening fully determined to go "Out West" for the noble purpose of exterminating the Indians. With their peckets full of dime novels descriptive of the improbable scenes enacted by boys on the plains in the far West, and one old musket, that had seen good service in times gone by, they felt as if they were fully equipped to lead a life of heroism among scenes of danger. They were last seen going in a westward direction and were good illustrations of victims of pernicious literature.

Dark Streets The time when the electric light is in operation is eagerly looked forward to by those persons of the town who reside in the neigh-borhood of Second and Walnut streets, and in other parts of the town where almost every night the streets are shrouded in darkness. After ten o'clock at the corner mentioned the naptha gas lamp is out and the streets are so dark that pedestrians can travel with safety. It is the same difficulty in other parts of the town, and our citizens are anxlously awaiting the time when the electric light is in operation, and travel at night can be done to a better advantage.

of Red Men.

Last evening the Shawnee fire company held a special meeting for completing arrangements for the trip to Harrisburg. A committee of arrangements were appointed to attend to the details of the trip and consist of the following members of the company: George Divel, Wendal Rankey, Jos. R. Brown, Isaac Powers, H. H. Gilbert. The chief marshal on the trip will be Daniel Sample, who has the power to appoint his aids.

A trial trip was given this morning to engine No. 936, of the Pennsylvania railroad which has been undergoing repairs for some time. The engine worked very satisfactorly and will be used as an extra passenger engine.

The cellars of most of the houses on Third The cellars of most of the houses on Third street between Cherry and Union were flooded by the heavy rain of yesterday afternoon and last night. The gutters being insufficient to carry off the water in the time of a heavy rain is the cause of the water filling the cellars.

Jacob Sneath is now erecting ten houses on Eighth street near Locust, and with the exception if one house, all have been purchased by different parties.

Considerable amusement was created this morning on Locust street, by a well-dressed drunken man. The bystanders were much amused by his antics. Among other things he persisted in lying down in a gutter across from the opera house, as he said he wanted to get a good wetting.

NEWS OF THE DIAMOND.

Contest in Christiana.

CHRISTIANA, Aug. 13.—The Christiana club defeated the Ironsides to-day by a score of 4 to 3. Rain stopped the game at the end of the seventh incing. It was a close and exciting game. Both Afflebach and Melcher proved effective in the box, the former striking out 12 and the latter 11 men. The score, by innings, follows:

Donald will leave to-night for his home in Holyoke, Mass.

The New York club refused to support Keefe in a recent game he pitched, and as a consequence they lost the game. The same thing happened when Corcoran pitched. Both games would have been won had the players desired it. Welsh is probably the only pitcher to whom they will give perfect support.—New York Sun.

Centre-Fielder Roseman Cuts Up.

From the N. Y. Sun, Jimmy Roseman, centre fielder for the Metropolitan base ball club, stood in Lynch's salcon, in Third avenue, near 110th stree last evening at 8 o'clock, very much excited. He sang a song or two in a discordant voice, much to the amusement of those present, and then picked up the little dog, which was lying at his feet, and threw it to the floor with great force.

Jack Lynch, pitcher for the same club and owner of the dog, remonstrated, and finally seized Roseman by the throat. A scuffie ensued, and both men sprawled on the floor, Lynch uppermost.

The crowd interfered, and then Roseman made a speech.

"No man," he said, "can choke Jimmy Roseman of the Metropolitan base ball club. No man ever did choke him, and no man might, could, would or should choke him—and live." Lynch tried to pacity him. Roseman jumped up and down, gesticulated wildly, thumped in the chest a little boy who came in for a pint of beer, and nearly knocked him down, pulled bis cost half off and pulled it on again, and tipped over a table and several chairs. The crowd scattered. Barring the furniture, nothing was injured but the little Awarding the B. & O. Contracts in Philadelph

Colonel Douglas, chief engineer of the Baitimore & Ohio railroad, on Thursday awarded all the contracts for the construction within Philadelphia of the Baltimore & Philadelphia railroad and the Schuylkill river East Side railroad, with the exception of one section, the right of way of which has not yet been obtained. It is said that the contracts given out aggregate fully $5,000,000. The contrators will get under way in about ten days, so it is thought. They will probably and evening. #### THE LONDON FLOGGING CASE. Evidence That the Affair was a Blackmailin

Scheme Against Mr. Pearce. Mr. Francis, the gentleman who on Wednes day flogged Mr. Pearce, of the Glasgow ship building firm of John Elder & Co., for an alleged betrayal of the former's daughter, has instituted a criminal action against Mr. Pearce. The latter explained the diffi-Pearce. The latter explained the difficulty to a reporter of the Path Mall Gazette by saying that the charge of seduction was false, and that the whole thing was only a case of blackmail of a peculiarly bad kind. For this statement Mr. Francis brings his action. He says he thought that Pearce had done him a wrong sufficiently cruel in betraying his daughter under the guise of friendship, without adding the insult of describing the family as blackmailers. Mr. Pearce is a rich Conservative, and had been selected by the Tories to stand as their candidate for Glasgow in the coming election. He was recently appointed to represent the British shipping interest on the royal commission to inquire into the causes of the depression of English trade. Mr. Francis is a gentleman of respectable social standing and is a member of the government civil service, being an inspector of customs. Mr. Pearce says he does not intend to notice the action of Mr. Francis in bringing suit against him for libel on the charge of blackmail, believing, he says, that Francis is "cranky." Mr. Pearce attended the first sitting of the commission on trade depression. Miss Francis admits that she was intimate with Mr. Pearce, but says that he did not betray her. She has not seen him for three months and since the separation she has been trying to earn an honest living. She exonerates Mr. Pearce and says her parents only wish to blackmail him. culty to a reporter of the Patt Matt

A Lesson for Life. William Wallace, a bright-looking young nan, was before Justice Walsh, in Brooklyn, Wednesday, charged with having abandoned his wife. He said:

"About a year ago I became very much intoxicated at my boarding house, No. 72 Van Brunt street. I didn't remember anything until the next morning, when I awo'e with a big head, and saw a woma'u sitting at the window. I asked her where I was and what it all meant. 'Why, William,' she said, 'you and I were married last night.' 'And what are those white things in the tumbler,' I asked. 'Why,' she said, 'William, those are my false teeth.' Then I realized that I had been married while drunk, and tied down to a woman twelve years older than me. I have never lived with her, and never intend to. If I could only get free, I would be the happiest man in the world, and never drink again."

The examination was adjourned and Wallace admitted to bail. He will seek to have the marriage annulled. his wife. He said:

BAKING POWDER.

Absolutely Pure.

THIS powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
