A VACANT BOROUGH OFFICE.

MANY WHO ARE VERY WILLING TO ACT THE CONSTABLE.

Who Will the Judges Appoint to the Position Held by the Late Constable Struck?—Columbia Lays the Dauntless Low—Recent Notes About the Town.

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCER.

COLUMBIA, Pa., Aug. 19.—Since the death of Frederick Struck, which occurred on Sunday, August 2d, 1885, the Third ward of Columbia has been without a constable. Several residents of this ward, Republicans and Democrats, have started a petition to have themselves appointed to the vacancy. For some unknown reason the persons who have been after the office have all given up the idea of getting it. Several good men have been asked by citizens of this ward to make an application to the court to be appointed, but all have declined. This morning another petition was started on its rounds through the ward in favor of Andrew Hardnele being appointed to fill the office until the next borough election. The applicant would, in all probability, make a very good officer if he is fortunate enough in securing the appointment. On next Saturday the judge of the county will appoint some person to fill the office, and, as Andrew Hardnele has the influence of the justice of the peace of that ward in his favor, it is most likely that he will secure the appointment.

The Dauntless Defeated.

For the first time this season the Dauntless base ball club, of Mount Joy, and the Columbia club played a game of base ball yesterday, on the grounds of the home club. Fully four hundred persons had assembled on the grounds to witness the game, which proved to be rather a tame exhibition. King and Resh, the battery of the Colmbia nine, did good work and eleven men of the opposing nine struck out, while but six of the home club shared a similar fate. The home team proved themselves victors by the following score by innings:

Dauntless	4	0	0	1	0	0	4	0	0	—9
Columbia	2	3	1	0	1	0	2	1	x	—10

Two Funerals.

The funeral of the late Charles F. Soubeer took place this afternoon at two o'clock and was very largely attended by the many friends of the deceased. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, Rev. Richard W. Humphriss, the former pastor of this church, coming from Ocean Grove, to officiate at the last sad rites of one who was universally beloved. Interment was made in Mount Bethel cemetery. The Columbia wheelmen, of which bicycle club the deceased was a member, acted as pall-bearers of their late fellow-member.

The funeral of the late William F. Kessler, will take place on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Funeral services will be held in the Methodist church.

Personal Mention.

Mr. A. Bruner and family have left town for Ocean Grove, at which place they will spend some time enjoying the sea-breezes.

Mrs. James Perrottet left town this morning for Tyrone, on a visit to friends of that place.

Edward Fager will leave Columbia tomorrow morning for Grand Rapids, Mich., where he will spend several weeks.

Picnics.

On Saturday, August 22, the Iron Moulders' union will hold their third grand picnic in Heise's woods. The picnic will be a very pleasant affair and a good time can be expected. The following members of the union have the management of the picnic: Master of ceremonies, Oliver Kline; floor manager, George W. Davis; assistant floor managers, W. B. C. Donley, Frank Dutlinger, Oliver Shultz. A committee of nine members have charge of the arrangements.

The Bible class of the Second street Lutheran Sunday school spent a very enjoyable day at Wild Cat falls yesterday.

A number of ladies and gentlemen are spending to-day on one of the islands below the dam engaged in fishing and other similar amusements.

Town Notes.

Very nearly all the members of Columbia Rod and Gun club left town this morning at seven o'clock for a beautiful camping ground on the Bald Eagle valley road, about six miles from Tyrone. The ten days will be spent in a regular sportmen-like way.

The gents furnishing store of Harry H. Lockard was closed by the sheriff last evening.

Last evening Mrs. Amos H. Brown received $1,500 from the Brotherhood of Locomotive firemen as the amount due her by the death of her husband.

THE CIRCUS IN TOWN.

A Very Large Crowd Witnesses a Very Ordinary Street Parade.

John O'Brien's circus is exhibiting in McGrann's park this afternoon and the attendance is large. The show was in Marietta yesterday and the people who saw it there were much pleased with the ring performance, which is really very good. A feature is the troupe of trained dogs. There is but one ring in the show, but the performance is much more satisfactory than many larger ones, on that account. The menagerie is small, but people cannot expect the earth for 25 cents, and they will find the exhibition well worth the money.

Although the show is highly praised we cannot say much for the street parade, which took place between 10 and 11 o'clock this morning and was witnessed by a very large crowd of people. The "six shows combined in one for this season only" turned out three elephants one camel and about one dozen cages. The horses had somewhat of a seldom-fed and tired look, and the vehicles certainly have seen better days with better shows. The majority of the men look very much like turnpike pedestrians and the old and worn out costumes, which they wore did not add much to the appearance. The two bands which enlivened the parade at either end was composed of about half a dozen musicians, and it was refreshing to see two burly canvasmen hammering the drums in one of them. A cage that attracted a great deal of attention in the parade bore this inscription "Positively no gambling allowed with this show." The countrymen all read this and called the attention of their friends to it so that they all feel perfectly safe now.

The show gives their second exhibition this evening when a large crowd will no doubt be present.

Somewhat Scaly.

From the Detroit Free Press.

The latest fish story hereabout is that a party of anglers from this city were fishing a few days ago off Bois Blanc island, when one of the number caught a black bass whose hide was bare of any scales and as smooth as that of a catfish. The next day an angler of Amherstburg explained the phenomenon by stating that a few days previous, while fishing near Bois Blanc, he had caught a black bass and had just finished scaling it on the beach in advance of otherwise cleaning it when it flopped out of his hands and into the water, disappearing in the depth of the river as though nothing had happened to it.

An Invalid's Escape From Fire.

The house of Elwood Longacre, of Pottstown, caught fire at noon Tuesday, and was almost entirely consumed. Mrs. Longacre was sick in bed at the time. When she discovered that the building was on fire she got up, gathered up the deeds and other papers belonging to her husband, and, with her four children, left the house, after making a narrow escape from being burned to death, with all her little ones.

Curious Stone.

From the York Daily.

A short distance from Kunkel's mill, near the Conowingo creek, in the woods of Daniel S. Snellbecker, of Doyer township, is a stone about 12 inches long, 8 high and 5 wide at the base, with 1774 cut on in figures. The top of it has been broken off since the date was cut on. By the way it was dressed it was perhaps put into some building by one of the Revolutionary fathers to mark the date of its erection. How it got to its present place can only be conjectured.

Wandered Away.

Peter Eby left his home near Buyerstown on Monday afternoon, since which time he has not been seen. A man answering his description was seen at Paradise the same evening. Mr. Eby is not of sound mind, and his friends fear that harm has befallen him. He is 26 years old, 5 feet, 7 inches in height, wore dark clothes and brown felt hat. Information as to his whereabouts will be thankfully received by Isaac Eby, of Buyerstown.

BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Nick Bradley Becomes Suddenly Transformed Into a Phenomenal Short Stop.

Base ball yesterday—At Philadelphia: Athletic 21, Mets 10; at Brooklyn: Brooklyn 8, Baltimore 3; at Louisville: Louisville 9, Cincinnati 7; at Pittsburg: St. Louis 3 Pittsburg 1; at New York: New York 7, Philadelphia 3; at Detroit: Buffalo 6, Detroit 4; at Boston: Boston 7, Providence 3; at Chicago: Chicago 9, St. Louis 4; at Newark: Newark 4, Bridgeport 1; at Washington: Nationals 9, Norfolk 0.

The Nationals hit Henry, of Norfolk, very hard yesterday.

Gus Alberts, of Reading, is playing at short stop for the Crickets, of Binghamton, and Terry Larkin is on third.

Yesterday the Athletic had twenty-three hits off Lynch of the Mets. Larkin had four, including a two base hit and two home runs.

The game between Newark and Bridgeport was very fine yesterday to the ninth inning, when the visitors lost through three costly errors.

The Ironsides and August Flowers base ball clubs were booked to play a game of ball to-morrow afternoon, on the Ironsides' grounds, but owing to the big shooting match at McGrann's park, the game has been postponed until Saturday afternoon.

In the game with the Crickets, of Binghamton, Nick Bradley played short stop for the Wilkesbarre club. The Record, of that place, goes wild over him, and says: "Bradley, at short stop, carried off the honors of the day, however. We now believe that his place is short stop and not left field. His difficult pick-ups and throwing to first was the best we have ever seen at Athletic park. His greatest feat was performed in the second inning. The Binghamtons had one man on first base, when a high fly ball was sent out to left field, too near the line for the fielder to get within reach. Bradley made a dash for it, and turning around on a run, captured the ball. The runner on first not thinking for a moment that Bradley could come within reach of the ball, moved very near second base and before he could get back Bradley fielded the ball to McDonald in time to make a double play. The spectators yelled till they were almost hoarse." That play will keep Nick the job all summer, and may manage to work a new suit also.

A BOY'S EXTREME PERIL.

He Takes an Express Train to Go to the Circus With Serious Results.

This afternoon Harry Keller, aged about 12 years, son of M. V. B. Keller, clerk of orphan's court, made a narrow escape from being killed by the cars. The little fellow has been working for the Union News company for some time and became accustomed to jumping on and off trains. This afternoon he wanted to go to the circus and thought he would take the cars. He boarded the Johnstown express, which leaves the Pennsylvania station at 2 o'clock, with the intention of jumping off at the Penn iron works. At this point all trains run very fast, but the boy was not disturbed by this, and he jumped off. He was thrown heavily to the track, and was picked up and carried, bleeding, to a house near by. Dr. M. L. Davis was sent for, and he attended the boy's injuries. Upon examination he found that the left arm was broken, his nose was mashed and he was badly cut and bruised. He was taken to his home on Vine street.

Eloped with a Chinaman.

For a few years past a Chinaman named Wong Poo has been conducting a lucrative laundry business on Third street, Newark, O. During this time he has had in his employ as clerk a young girl, aged about 17, named Lizzie Scott, a daughter of a well-known citizen. Wong Poo became very much attached to the girl, and finally induced her to leave the city with him Monday night. They went to Columbus, and were arrested by Chief Lingo on suspicion. He telegraphed Depot Officer "Doc" Brooke of their arrest, and asked if they were all right. Brooke answered that they were, and Lingo released them.

The girl became attached to the Wong and he became attached to her, and so strong was their devotion to each other that they agreed to sail out in the world together, although no marriage ceremony was performed.

In Favor of Cremation.

From the Sacramento Recorder-Union.

Nearly one hundred citizens of Los Angeles have given their names to a manifesto favoring the organization of a cremation association there and the immediate erection of a crematory. They are, we learn, representative men. In this Los Angeles testifies to an advanced sentiment prevailing in her midst. Sacramento, more than Los Angeles, needs such sanitary reform. Her situation is such that cremation should be specially favored by her people and burial discarded. Papers have been sent here from San Francisco to secure subscriptions to the capital stock of the first cremation society in that city, but a crematory is more needed here than there, and there should be enough here who believe in the process to insure the inauguration of it in this valley, if for no other than sanitary reasons.

Release of the Long-Term Convict.

The necessary papers for the release of Jim Henry, the long-term convict, were signed yesterday and sent to the county prison. This morning Henry was released from prison, after having received $3 and a suit of clothes, that being the donation of the prison inspectors. Henry will remain a few days in the city, staying with acquaintances he formed while at the county prison. On Monday he will leave for Baltimore, to seek his only child. He found for his relief at the Bankers and Merchants' telegraph office, the amount of $22.01 at noon to-day. Contributions will be received until Saturday night and the amount received will be given to Henry after he has boarded the train for Baltimore.

Poisoned by a Discharged Servant.

Poor Director Fred Seeman, of Greensburg, arose early Monday morning and took a drink of water from a vessel near the bed. Soon after he was taken with violent pains in his stomach. Two physicians were called in immediately and labored with him until late Monday night before he was considered out of danger. The water has been examined and unmistakable evidences of arsenic in sufficient quantities to kill a dozen men were discovered. It is thought that the deadly dose was administered out of revenge by a discharged servant.

Arrived Home From Europe.

Mrs. Lang and her son Frank, have arrived home from Europe. Mrs. Lang had not seen her fatherland for a period of 31 years. She was handsomely received by her family. A fine supper was prepared, and the house was decorated with evergreens with the motto, "Welcome Home." A pleasant evening was spent till a late hour.

Killed on a Fire Plug.

Lightning struck an electric wire in Savannah, Georgia, on Tuesday afternoon, "jumped to a stay wire, splitting the stay pole, and jumping from it to a fire-plug, killed James Bonard, a mulatto, who was sitting on it. A companion standing by his side was thrown across the pavement, and six others were shocked and more or less injured.

Big Fire Near Ronk's Station.

A fire broke out in the barn of John Deiner, living near Ronk's station, below Bird-in-Hand, this morning, totally destroying it and several small buildings adjoining; also one fine mare, value $300, and entire crop, with wagons, implements and a portable engine. Very little insurance; cause of fire unknown.

Lamp Explosion.

This morning the bartender at Sam Kautz's saloon, under the Stevens house, was trying to extinguish a lamp when it exploded and broke to pieces. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

At the Station House.

One electric and three gasoline lights were reported as not burning last night.

One lodger was the only inmate of the station house last night. He was discharged this morning.

Death of John N. Shuck.

A telegram received in this city to-day by E. M. Sheetz, brother-in-law of the deceased, states that John N. Shuck, whose tragic attempt on his life has been given in detail in these columns, died in Altoona this morning.

Chickens Stolen.

A number of chickens were stolen from Benjamin Houser, at the east end of the city, last night. Suspicion rests upon a certain party.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF STATE POLITICS.

The York county Republicans left their judicial nomination vacant; and if Judge Wickes decides to run independently, he will probably get the full Republican strength.

The Bradford county Democratic convention elected the following delegates to the state convention: Colonel V. E. Piollet, W. C. Pierce, C. W. Canfield and E. Parks. Colonel H. B. McKean was elected member of the state committee.

Thomas Harris was nominated for jury commissioner by the Democratic convention of Lycoming. Resolutions were passed indorsing the policy of the national administration and pledging the convention's support to every effort to purify the civil service. The state administration was also indorsed.

The Montgomery county Democrats unanimously adopted a resolution instructing the delegates to vote at the state convention for a resolution instructing our representatives and senators to vote for the repeal of the civil service reform law, and also request President Cleveland to fill all the offices with Democrats at once.

In the Franklin county Democratic convention, W. S. Stenger, James Sweeney, Aaron Snoke, Daniel Bernhart and Henry Spangler, were elected as delegates to the state convention, Sweeney being the highest man. S. Z. Hawbecker was chosen a member of the state committee. George W. Brindle was nominated for director of the poor, and Lewis Hinkle for jury commissioner. Resolutions were passed indorsing the national and state administrations and denouncing the course of the Franklin county representatives for their lack of support to the anti-discrimination bill last winter and also one denouncing the Vanderbilt sale of the South Pennsylvania road.

A Rain of Fiery Coals.

From the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer

"You may look out," said a locomotive driver to a reporter yesterday, "to get another local something like the one you had a few days ago about the boy being killed." On being asked to explain the engineer stated that yesterday he was startled to see a colored boy run to the track in front of the approaching train. On getting between the rails the boy seemed to melt down into the ground and the engineer knew that the little imp had jumped down into a cattle guard to let the train thunder over him. A curve was just beyond the cattle guard, and as the train rounded this the engineer looked back from his cab window and saw the boy crawling out of the hole unharmed, but doubtless thoroughly charmed by his experience. Instances of this kind used to be frequent about Charlotte, but the engineer states that this is the first he had known since 1870. His firebox was dropping coals, and a little darky had just sunk into a cattle guard ahead of him. Before he could stop the coals from falling he reached the cattle guard, and the little negro was almost roasted alive under the shower of coals that dropped on him. "I'll tell you," repeated the engineer, "you may look out for another big load for it's coming."

Appointed Letter Carriers.

J. Fred. Fisher, son of the late Michael Fisher, has been appointed letter-carrier for the Ninth ward, to take the place of S. S. Jordan, removed.

Harry Albright, of the First ward, who for years has been employed in the grocery store of C. W. Eckert, has been appointed a letter-carrier to take the place of Isaac Bender, resigned.

The South Pennsylvania Stockholders.

A relative of Mr. Vanderbilt denies the report that the stockholders of the South Pennsylvania road had been called to meet in New York to-day. In all probability the stockholders will meet early next week. They will then decide whether they will accept Mr. Twombley's proposition of a 3 per cent. guaranteed bond for the funds they have invested in the road.
