

DAILY INTELLIGENCER. PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING IN THE YEAR (Sunday Excepted). BY STEPHEN S. HERRICK. INTELLIGENCER BUILDING, S. W. CORNER CENTER SQUARE, LANCASTER, PA.

Illustration by the Democratic state convention of Iowa, the resolution having been adopted with much enthusiasm: That in President Cleveland the country has found a man of solid judgment, conscientious integrity, unswerving fidelity, patriotism and courage equal to that of Andrew Jackson, and in his efforts for economy, for the exposure of a mischievous and traitorous and corrupt administration, for his unremitting firmness in dealing with the cattle kings, for his efforts to reform law, for his efforts to restore the public lands to the settlers, for his efforts to enforce the law against polygamy, and for his constant watchfulness of the public welfare, in such a way as to recover the hourly basis of the Democracy of Iowa, and his unwavering support.

REMORSELESSLY CRUSHED. Somers Bradley stepped into the large dry goods house of Smith & Gruitt to match worsted. He was a young man blessed (he didn't call it blessed) with an endless lot of feminine cousins. He was always being sent to fetch something, and he felt that the fates were against him.
