Mora Raymond & Whiteensh's Four Granp Winter Trips to California.

The asperior advantages of California as a place of winter sojourn, and the many attractions of the elegant Hotel del Monte, Monterey ire beginning to be well appreciated in the East, thanks to the enterprise of Messrs. Raymond & Whiteensh, the excursion managers. This firm has completed arrangements for four grand trips to the Pacific Coast the coming winter. The first party will leave November 12, the second December 16, the third January 14, and the fourth February 11. The time of absence may be governed by personal preference, and may be extended to a period of seven months or more if desired. Fartles will return under personal escort in April or May, and the tickets can also be used independently of the party dates. The magnificent Hotel del Monte will be the head-quarters of those who remain for a long period, and board coupons are furnished which may be used at fitteen other hotels in California, Utah, and Colorado. The homeward route will be through Colorado, and some of the grandest Hooky Mountain scenery, and there will be a choice of routes offering many advantages. Full descriptive circulars may be obtained of H. F. Shielda, agent for Raymond's Vacation Excarsions, Ill South Ninth street. (under the Continental Hotel), Philadelphia.
