REMEMBER, BOYS MAKE MEN.

When you see a ragged urchin Standing wistful in the street, With torn hat and kneeless trouse Dirty face a u bare red leet, Pass not by the child unheeding:

smile upon him. Mark me, when He's grown he'll not forget it; For remember, boys make men. Whey the booyant youthful spirits overflow in boyish freak, Chide your child in gentle accents,

Do not in your anger speak.
You must sow in youthful bosoms
Seeds of tender mercies (then
Plants will grow and bear good fruitage, When the erring boys are men,

Have you never seen a grandsire
With his eyes aglow with Joy,
Bring to mind some act of kindness—
Something said to him a boy?
Or relate some slight or coldness,
With a brow all clouded, when
He said they were too thoughtless
To remanular, how make man.

Let us try to add some pleasures To the life of every boy; For each child needs tender interest in its sorrows and its Joys; Call your boys home by its brightness; They'll avoid a gloomy den, And seek for comfort elsewhere— And remember, boys make men.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDIES

Husbands Kill Their Wives and Then Com Theodore P. Rich, of New York, arrived in St. Paul, Minn., on Sunday, and learned that his wife Annie was living with one A. S. Gale. Rich sought an interview with her at the Astoria house. The meeting resulted in Rich sheeting his wife dead and then killing himself with the same revolver. Rich and wife and Dr. Gale are all people of note at their home in Cobleskill, N. Y. The note at their home in Cobleskill, N. Y. The murdered woman's uncle, a brother of the late Henry Smith, of Albany, telegraphs that he will come on and take charge of the remains, which are now in the morgue. Gale and Mrs. Rich had been in Dakota arranging and Mrs. Rich had been in Dakota arranging for divorces just prior to the tragedy.

Frank Burgel, the man who shot his wife at Massilon, O., Saturday night, committed suicide after leaving home. The police scoured the town in search of Burgel, and sent numerous telegrams to other cities, giving a description of the supposed fugitive. About seven o'clock Sunday morning his dead body was found lying in the road within forty rods of his own house. His throat had been cut. By his side lay the knife with which the deed was done. Mrs. Burgel is still alive. The only witness to the shooting was a domestic, who witness to the shooting was a domestic, who refuses to say anything about the causes which led to the trouble. It is supposed, however, that Burgel and his wife quarreled about money matters.

Gottleib Lentz, 52 years of age, killed his wite, Margaret, aged 50 years, Saturday evening by cutting her throat and then committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. They lived at No. 2542 Sepviva street, Philadelphia. It is said Lentz was under the influence of liquor.

In the Catholic Fold. A Washington dispatch to the New York World, of February 26th, says: A lady member of the leading Catholic church here St. Matthew's, says that the two eldest daugh ters of James G. Blaine have joined the Catholic church within the last year. She said that Miss Margaret Blaine has been under instructions since last spring prepara-tory to being christened, and that Miss Blaine told her that she was to join the church. The eldest daughter, the wife of Colonel Cop-The eldest daughter, the wife of Colonel Coppinger, of the army, was married in accordance with the Catholic rites. The lady member of St. Matthew's church, who saw and talked with Miss Margaret Blaine last spring, says that the latter informed her that Mrs. Coppinger was baptized a member of the Catholic church soon after her marriage. A reporter called upon Father Chappelle, the rector of St. Matthew's church, this evening. He said that it was true that Mrs. Coppinger had joined the Catholic church and that she was baptized into this church soon after marriage. He had never heard that Miss Margaret Blaine had become a Catholic. That was news to him. He could not affirm or deny that part of the story.

Gum Shoes and Immorality.

From the Chicago Herald. "I never wore 'gum' shoes until this winter," said an old operator as he placed his 7x9 on the edge of the pork pit yesterday. "As you can all see, I'm getting into the sere and yellow-ready for harvest from a grain standpoint-and my footing is not so sure as it used to be. Early this winter I slipped down one evening—oh, no, was pain fully sober-and sprained my ankle. My good wife insisted the next morning that I should buy a pair of rubbers, and in a missuided moment I did so. Now, do you know that I have always liked to hear my heels click when I walked. There is nothing puts so much confidence in a man as to have his feet come down fair and square. He knows he is there, or thereabouts, and so does everybody who hears his tread, either by night or day. But setually, as I am a candidate for wings, I hope I may never get them if my whole nature didn't change as soon as I put on those overshoes. I glided soon as I jut on those overshoes. I glided about as noiselessly as a mole, and soon feit like a sneak-thief. Actually, I caught my-self stealing my own umbrella out of my own office, and believe I did get away with another man's overcoat. At allevents, it seems better than the one I wore last winter. If the pesky things hadn't worn out, shouldn't wonder if I would have set up a scheme to rob Phil Armour, Jack Cudahy or "Old Hutch" right here in this pit. Gum shoes will dull any one's moral sense, I tell you, and it's me that's talking."

A New Anti-Polygamy Bill. Representative Woodburn, of Nevada, today introduced in the House an anti-polyg-any bill which has received the approval of prominent Gentiles in Utah, and has been submitted to members of the judiciary com-mittee of both houses of Congress. The preamble sets forth the practical evasion, by secret intrigue and the possession of political power by the Mormons, of the laws now in existence against unlawful cohabitation and that this evasion of the law is induced by the leaders, who openly advise the followers to resort to these illegal practices as a part of It is therefore provided in the first section

Section 2 provides the form of test cath required of every person challenged under the first section before being registered as a voter. Two Oarsmen to Row Niagara Rapids. Fred Plaisted, the oarsman, says that the roposition of himself and Ross to row a boat through the Niagara rapids next summer is not the huge joke many seem to think, but an enterprise that will surely be attempted. "I do not think it dangerous," he said, to a Boston reporter. "The boat will have plenty of beam, a grating for a floor and no bottom. It we full with water floor and no bottom. If we fill with water we can't sink, because we will have air-tight compartments around the boat and the water we take in will quickly disappear through the grating. If anything should happen we are both good swim.ners and would make a grand struggle before going under. There is positively less danger in trying to row through the rapids than there is going out on the trontier for $13 a month and found, and we get $2,500 for what we are going to do. We were both up at Niagara Falls a week ago and made our calculations and measurements of distances."

sam Jones in Chicago, Sam Jones in Chicago.

Sam Jones' four weeks revival season opened in Chicago Sunday at the tabernacle erected for Moody's use. Notwithstanding the inclement weather the church was filled, fully 3,000 persons being present. The revivalist's appearance and manner put him on a good footing with the congregation from the start. He prefaced his sermon by a plea for free and easy good fellowship, and his own attitude was that of a man in his own home taiking to a friend. The sermon was an earnest one, preached from the text; "Let your light so shine," etc., and appeared to impress the audience deeply.

Pire in a Crowded Church.

Father Comerford had just begun the celebration of high mass at St. Mary's church in Wilkesbarre on Sunday, when a family seated in a pew on the left aide, near the altar, discovered smoke issuing from the cracks in the flooring. discovered smoke issuing from the cracks in the flooring. The congregation became alarmed and were about to make for the doors when the priest from the altar commanded them to retain their seate and a panic was avoided. A bucket brigade extinguished the fire in a short time. It was caused by a defective flue. The timely discovery prevented a serious conflagration. Eighteen hundred people were in the church at the time. The building is one of the largest as well as handsomest in the state.

Never found them fall to cure weakness of the back, spine and kidney diff-entities. They are very agreeable and strengthing. A short time ago I got in a profuse perspir ing. A short time ago I got in a profuse perspiration while preaching. We should have Better Preaching if the preachers were all sound and healthy men. Calvin may have had the dyspepsia, but it did him no good as a theologian. A Methodist minister, of Hartford, Conn., writes that Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite kennedy" cured him of chronic liver disease and indigestion. His brethren of all denominations are respectfully invited to note the fact. Sick preachers are in poor condition to proclaim the gospel news. Sound bodies are wanted.

In calling attention to our offerings in this line, the public are invited to a close and critical examination of the goods which we believe we can fairly claim are of a standard equal to any ever offered in the largest cities of our land, and we sak comparison of prices, knowing that ours are lower for the fine goods offered than the ruling of prices elsewhere.
