A Very Large Growd Attend the Annual Ball Last Evening in the Society's Hall. The annual masquerade and carnival of the Lancaster Mannurchor which took place in the large hall of the society last night, was one of the largest affairs of the kind ever seen in this city. The building was literally packed with people early in the evening. Arrangements had been made, by which persons outside of the society were admitted annual parameters of an enterpret for. This asupon payment of an entrance fee. This as aisted in swelling the crowd.

The members of the society have been busy preparing for this big event for several weeks and the result shows that their labor was not in vain. Early in the evening the gay maskers began to put in an appearance and by 9 o'clock there was a merry crowd present. All kinds of characters were represented and while some of the costumes were funny most of them were very handsome and costly. The hall was tastefully decorated and the stage was handsomely trimmed with flowers; on either side were a large lot of green plants in pots.

At 9 o'clock precisely the entertainment on the stage began. When the curtain was drawn it disclosed the Princess Carnival seated upon a rock by a small stream and surrounded by pages. Miss Clara Ream as-sumed the character of the princess and surrounded by pages. Miss Clara Real assumed the character of the princess and looked charming.

The Prince Carnival soon joined the princess. Joe Royer was a noble-looking sovereign and came in on a boat, accompanied by four little boys who acted as pages. They were Frederick Ricker, John Dinkleberg. Frederick Hoefel and Monroe Reese. The costumes of the whole party were very handsome, and it was a very pretty sight. Scene second showed the prince and princess seated upon their throne attended by pages. During this scene there was a dance by a large party of little girls dressed as fairies. Miss Lulu Fiss, a little daughter of William Fiss, danced Fisher's hornpipe in immitable style. The great hit of the evenling was made in scene third, when a round dozen of young and joily members of the society with blackened third, when a round dozen of young and jolly members of the society with bisckened faces and grotesque uniforms appeared as the "Skids." The boys, under the supervision of Tommy Mack, the well known minstrel, had been rehearsing this act for several weeks and they had it pat. Israel Carpenter acted as captain of the squad with Johnny Borger, lieutenant, Tommy Mack, bass drummer, Johnny Hubley, tenor drummer and Harry Free, target bearer. The mindrummer, Johnny Hubley, tenor drummer and Harry Free, target bearer. The minstrels sang, "The Skids are Out To-day," and they did it so well that they received three encores. They certainly made a great hit and ended the stage performance.

About 10 o'clock the grand promenade begun. It was headed by Henry Wolf, Henry Gerhart, Frederick Hoefel and Henry Schmitt, of the committee of arrangements. Schmitt, of the committee of arrangements. The others followed in this order: Prince The others followed in this order: Prince and Princess Carnival, pages, fairies, 'Skids,' clowns, H. C. Demuth, chief floor mansger, and his assistants Ed. R. Zahm, Wm. Harkins, Ed. Snyder, Christ. Hoefel, Jo. Smith, E. Reynolds, H. Bair and Frank Hambright. These were followed by the masqueraders, and there were at least one hundred and twenty five couples in the promenade. The dancing began to the music of Taylor's orchestra soon after the promenade, and about 11 o'clock the masks were removed and a great deal of fun was had. The whole crowd enjoyed themselves until a late hour this morning and all voted the bail a big success.

Join A. Brake's Troubles. John A. Brake, late of the Grape hotel, was brought from prison at 11 o'clock this morning, and given a hearing on the charges of uel Fowler and Henry Gerbart, and the charge of disposing of his goods with intent to defraud his creditors, preferred by Isaac Diller & Sons. The alderman reserved his decision until this evening. The charge of perjury made against him was abandoned by the commonwealth, and the alderman dismissed that complaint.

Henry Rahter, the former proprietor of the Grape, preferred a charge of false pretense against Brake, and he was committed in default of ball to the county prison. The News from Bainbridge.

The spelling bee at the Pioneer hall was well attended on last Friday evening. There were sixteen valuable prizes given away. While March winds blow across the hills, No feathered throng the forest fills; No hedgerow bursts to sudden bloom; No red bud lights the purple gloom; No incense from the earth distils.

Yet, ere the first giad robin trills— Ere, leap the trout from silver rills. We sing of painted flower and plume While March winds blow. And thus (Heaven's balm for earthly ills) Hope:-the heart's fragrance--sweetly spills
Into our lives, as in a room
A winter rose-tree sheds perfume
Though snow be dritted o'er the sills—

OAK HALL

BARGAINS I Prices Cut in Half.

Some of the lots of goods we offered first on last saturday have been cleared out; others of them are broken in sizes; yet we have goodly quantities left.

crowded with purchasers of our goods— liable goods at half prices. Of course they'd come when they could get our staunch clothing at anything off price. To-day, in addition to our generous, liberal provision for other days, we have to offer a not less than 200—made principally from materials in our Merchant Tailoring Department—ends of goods (from which we were able to make sometimes three garments, in some instances six, in other instances one)—making an accumulation all told of perhaps 300 Overcoats; nicely made, elegantly trimmed, with slik facing and alceve, and fine Farmer's Satin body-linings. They have had our very best care and attention, but they are not what is termed in large first-class clothing stores regular and full stock. We'd like to sell them this week. Anyman who comes to day will save from $3 to $10; depends on how much money he wants to spend. He can spend $5; he can spend $20; the more he spends the more he'll make. The goods are all arranged ready for sal Sizes to fit the largest and smallest. You'll spend a little time looking over nearly 160 different patterns of cloth and the styles of making: if you do it's money in your pocket; you'll find it so.

Seasonable Spring Overcoats,

OAK HALL,

PHILADELPHIA. N. B.—Remember you'd get a cost as low as $6, that was $6 or $10 : one for $10 that was $16.50.

P. S.—Bon't expect to find all the sizes in the Hosiery and Underwear weadverties; the goods are there, but in some of them we haven't all sizes. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

The words "bargains," "reduced," "prices cut in haif" are ringing words, that mean some-thing to people, when our make of clothing and our name goes with them. We judge from the crowds that came here on Saturday and Monday. There's something more than hullabules in an Oak Hall announcement.
