NATURAL GAS.

Old Simpson was a pensioner,
A pensioner was he;
He laid around from morn to night,
As lazy as could be.
His wife could nothing do with h'm,
Nor any one, in fact;
But welcome was he at "The Jug,"
Because of jokes he cracked.
Just prime him with a drink or two,
And he would tell, with glee,
How Grant would never start a fight,
Unless Old Jack he'd see;
How in the Wilderness campaign
He chased a whole brigade;
How in a naval action, once,
He seized a hand grenade
And throwing it among the Rebs,
He killed them, every one.
Of his proud prowess in the war
Old Jack was never done.
His wife the living had to make,
And many a mile she walked;
While Jack lay round from day to day,
And talked, and talked, and talked.
One night the good old woman read
Of what to all is new;
To Jack, just coming into bed,
She said, "I've got for you
A job that you can easy fill,
And from accounts I read
I know 'twill pay you very well,
Quite handsomely, indeed.
The work is very, very light;
You'll not have much to do;"
Quoth Jack, "Pray tell me what it is
That has got into you;
You know I cannot work at all;
I never have been well
Since I at Gettysburg got hit
With that infernal shell."
"Oh, this," said she, "I know you can Quite easily perform;"
"Well, tell me what it is," said Jack,
Now getting rather warm.
"Oh you have lots of it," she said,
"In fact an endless mass;
You have a never ending vein
Of surest 'natural gas';
You've been a bore for many a day,
So let the tables turn;
Now let the company bore you;
You're full enough to burn."

AT MISS CLEVELAND'S LUNCHES.

Some of the Lights and Scenes of These Brilliant Affairs.

Robt. P. Porter in the Press.

The lunches given by Miss Cleveland to the wives of representatives and senators have not proved so successful as was expected. This, in a great measure, I think due to the fact that the women present are from all parts of the country, and as there is not among the sex that Free Masonry which does away with formality among men of diverse interests, the conversation does not become general. Miss Cleveland not offering to take the lead, no one else presumes to, and, lacking the stimulus the presence of men affords, it at times is in danger of flattening out altogether. Talking is carried on in a low monotone and between groups of two or three. At the last of these lunches the guests were kept waiting three-quarters of an hour for the wife of a new Western member who failed to put in an appearance. At last Miss Cleveland decided to wait no longer for Mrs. ——, and the company were about to start for the lunch room, when suddenly the lady appeared with some small parcels in her arms and a well-filled hand-bag.

"Oh, Miss Cleveland," she said, "I hope you haven't been waiting. Dear me, I'm so sorry; but fact is I wanted to do up my shopping and thought it would not matter."

Occasionally bright things are said at these lunches. At the one given last week the conversation turned on the rage for coats of arms and family mottoes among the leaders of society here. "I know a good one for the Whitneys," said a senator's wife.

"What is it?" asked several ladies.

"All's (oils) well that ends well," was the reply.

"Isn't that a quotation from Shakespeare?" said the wife of a congressman who had not quite "caught on," if I am allowed to quote Miss Cleveland. "Oh, but Shakespeare was not up to the Standard, you know, dear," said the lady who suggested the motto.

A lady seated near Miss Cleveland's right barely tasted of any of the dishes placed before her. Her hostess observing this commented on her lack of appetite, and inquired its cause. "Oh," was the reply, "I took care to fortify myself before coming, for I didn't know what we would have to eat." A remark, by the way, almost equaled by a lady at the other end of the table who, with a disgusted look at the made dishes and French dishes, said: "I never eat anything unless I know what it's made of, and I'm afraid of this fancy looking food."

At the conclusion of these entertainments a few of the favorites are generally requested to remain. The president's sister makes known her wishes in this respect with the same intonation that she used when directing he scholars to stay after school. "You will remain!" she says. What takes place at the inner circle's meetings the public are not supposed to know.

The Wyandottes Have Reached the Top.

EDS. INTELLIGENCER: There are many different breeds of fowls, but there has been none yet that so nearly as the Wyandottes fill the wants of each and every one. The farmer wants them because they are a fowl that grows rapidly, fledges early, makes flesh fast and is well able to take care of itself; and in the hands of expert fanciers they combine many of the most excellent qualities to be desired, either as layers or as table birds.

Our fancy poultrymen want them expressly for their beauty and the great record they make for themselves as egg producers. For example, seven pullets, the property of Amos Souders, of Millersville, laid 33 eggs before they reached the age of nine months. It is said by poultrymen the eggs of such young pullets are not on an average as fertile as those of older birds; but this must be a mistake, as of the above mentioned pullets, forty-three eggs have been placed under three hens, and the result was forty-two chicks. This evidently proves that it does not hold good in all cases as the eggs had not been tested at any time, nor was any selection of any kind made.

"One Nail Drives Out Another,"

is a French saying that finds exemplification in the way one disease will substitute itself for another and graver one, in very many cases. Liver disease for instance will soon induce blood disorders, throat ailments, skin affections and eventually, because of impoverished blood, consumption itself, unless, indeed, it be treated in its incipiency and early progress by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" which acts as a specific in these ailments, accomplishing a rapid cure by its powerful alterative action upon the great organs of the body. m10-W,S&w

MR. I. B. NOXON, Cashier of the First National Bank, of Sing Sing, N. Y., suffered greatly from Costiveness and Dyspepsia, due to overwork and want of regular exercise. After wasting much time and money in seeking a remedy, he began taking the old reliable Brandreth's Pills, two every night for three weeks. He now has a good appetite and capital digestion, and will answer any written or personal inquiry regarding his remarkable cure. mar4-1wd

Physicians Have Found Out

That a contaminating and foreign element in the blood, developed by indigestion, is the cause of rheumatism. This settles upon the sensitive sub-cutaneous covering of the muscles and ligaments of the joints, causing constant and shifting pain, and aggregating as a calcareous, chalkey deposit which produces stiffness and distortion of the joints. No fact, which experience has demonstrated in regard to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has stronger evidence to support than this, namely, that this medicine of comprehensive uses checks the formidable and atrocious disease, nor is it less positively established that it is preferable to the poisons often used to arrest it, since the medicine contains only salutary ingredients. It is also a signal remedy for malarial fevers, constipation, dyspepsia, kidney and bladder ailments, debility and other disorders. See that you get the genuine. mar6-1d

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle. For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, No. 139 North Queen street.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Curious to think that desks and chairs kill people, but they do. Taken in large quantities office furniture is fatal as yellow fever. We sit and write ourselves away. Sedentary habits produce constipation; that begets dyspepsia; rheumatism and kidney trouble follow in their train and death ends the chapter. You whose lives passed over desks and in the confined air of office sought to keep Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" always on hand for the stomach and brain.

GLASSWARE.

HIGH & MARTIN.

CHINA HALL.

A Few Facts.

Housekeepers in selecting wares for your tables, etc., especially those just buying new outfits, it is important that you select the best in the market. How embarrassing to a lady, especially if she has table pride, and what lady should not have, to find that her ware is all full of small cracks, and that grease has penetrated and made it look black and ugly.

A cause and a remedy. All semi-porcelain or granite ware in its biscuit state is porous. It is then covered with natural or artificial glass to prevent its penetration by liquids. This is termed glazing. The glaze must vary as it must fuse or melt according to the ware upon which it is placed.

It must also dilate or contract in proportion to the biscuit or else it will crack or craze and produce the above result.

Unequal or insufficient firing or burning may and will sometimes produce the same results.

You may, and will no doubt ask, "How then can you tell whether you are getting a good article?" Simply and only by buying those makes which experience has taught dealers to recommend as the best and take their guarantee.

Such makes you can find and such guarantee you can get by calling at

JEWELRY AND ART!

In calling attention to our offerings in this line, the public are invited to a close and critical examination of the goods which we believe we can fairly claim are of a standard equal to any ever offered in the largest cities of our land, and we ask comparison of prices, knowing that ours are lower for the fine goods offered than the ruling of prices elsewhere.

Our Stock of Unset Diamonds is large, and we will make up from these any style of work desired.

All the Newest Patterns of Ladies' Wear always in Stock, and Birth or Month Stones of the whole calender can be had promptly. The Gems—Diamond, Ruby, Emerald, Sapphire, Topaz, Opal and Pearl always on hand, and set to order. Oil Paintings, Marble and Bronze Statuary, and Musical Boxes, always cheerfully shown by our attendants. Everybody is invited to call and be shown through our stock.

CARRIAGE WORKS.

NORBECK & MILEY.

THIRD GREAT THIRD GREAT

SPRING CARRIAGE SALE

At Norbeck & Miley's,

CORNER OF DUKE AND VINE STREETS, LANCASTER, PENN'A.,

Monday, March 22, 1886.—10 A. M. and 2 P. M,

TERMS—NINETY DAY NOTE; SIX PER CENT. OFF FOR CASH.

GREATEST OF SALES, GREATEST IN NUMBERS, GREATEST IN VARIETY. FINEST IN FINISH, ALL STYLES AND GRADES. ALSO, A FEW SLEIGHS.

First-Class Vehicle at Low Prices is astonishing, but we do it, and as proof, we refer to any buyer at former sales. Over 600 jobs sold at former sales and not $20 worth of repair. Our sales in Lancaster city and county in the last few years are larger than any two retail factories in the city or county. We manufacture more than any three factories in above mentioned district. This is no paper talk, but a fact. A public inspection is invited to examine work. Procure a bargain. Don't listen to abusive, jealous and lying competitors, but attend and see for yourself. Sale MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1886, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. TERMS—Ninety days, with approved security; six per cent. per annum off for cash. B. F. ROWE, Auctioneer.

CARD—We know some of our competitors have abused our reputation on account of holding sales and reducing the price of a first-class job, but we challenge them again, as before, to produce as much first-class stock, or construct a finer vehicle of any style. We mean business, and those it concerns can have satisfaction by calling on or addressing Norbeck & Miley.
