CHARMED WITH CALIFORNIA. estrian Writes His Impressions of th

The following extract is from a letter from

dr. Chas. Lotz, of this city, who is now travelling with the Buffalo Bill company
The letter is dated, San Francisco, March 8:

"Having travelled from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from ocean to ocean, I am at last in the Paradise of the United Statea. This is the country to live in: birds are singing, flowers of all kinds are in full bloom and we are having warm spring weather. Here I would like to remain: I am charmed with California. I have travelled a great deal, but I have never seen anything which will compare with this country. I have seen and noticed many incidents, en route, which were amusing, and some which, to a close observer,
would prove instructive."

"While in Utah, I entered into conversation with a Mormon, and, slowly gaining his confidence, I questioned him as to how many wives had. He replied that, as for himself, he had, thank fortune, only one and she was almost too much.

"We arrived in San Francisco on Sunday, March 8, at 10 o'clock in the morning, and, after dinner, I went to the Cliff house and Golden Gate park.

"The Cliff house is situated on a very high hill, overlooking the ocean, from which place I could see hundreds of sea lions enjoying the sun on the rocks about half a mile from shore. From here I went to the Golden Gate park, which is the finest park I have ever seen. The cable railway leading to the park is, without doubt, the finest in the country.

"I visited the Chinese quarters, which are mostly on Dupont street, where prominent among the business signs are those of Kwong. Shew, Lun & Co., importers and dealers in Chinese and Japanese fancy and dry goods, acquerware, etc., and Fong, bang. Lung & Co., direct importers of silks, bronze ware, fans, parassols, etc."

The following card was enclosed with the letter:

I say yes, if it could be given them as one would a bonnet, or an acre of land, or a yoke of oxen. I believe in a busi-ness education not for one class, but for every class. I wish every young man in the country had a good business education, or such an edu-cation as should fit him to fill acceptably and usefully the position of a good merchant's cierk. I wish every man had such an education—every Such an education is imparted at the LANCASTER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE
