AN OLD DEED

Which Was Given For Newlin Township, Ches ter County, in 1734, R. C. Edwards, of Quarryville, who is among the INTELLIGENCER's oldest subscribers, to-day showed us a curiosity in the shape of a very old deed. It was given on June 10, 1724, by Charles Read, Job. Goodsonn, Evans Owen, George Hitzwater and Joseph Pidgeon, representing the Society of Free Traders of Pennsylvania, to Nathaniel Newlin. It is for a tract of land lying on both sides of the Brandywine creek, in Chester county, containing 7,100 acres. The sum of 600 pounds was paid for the land on the same day that the deed was given, and the witnesses were D. W. M. Evans and Miruk Davies. The deed was acknowledged before John Wood, "one of his majesty's justices of the peace," on April 4th 1728.

The land for which the deed was given, now forms the township of Newline, which was named after Nathaniel Newlin. The Brandywine creek runs through it and the property is valuable. Within its bounds the almshouse of the county is situated. Mr. Edwards was born in this township. Newlin. It is for a tract of land lying on both almshouse of the county is situated. Mr. Edwards was born in this township, and his father, Plumer Edwards, was a surveyor, who died in 1827. This deed was found among his oid papers; it is of parchment and temarkably well preserved. The signatures attached to the paper show that the signers were excellent penmen.

Another curiosity which Mr. Edwards has in his possession is a very old pocket-book which was used by his father. The style of it is very ancient, but Mr. Edwards has no idea of its age.

Why an Episcopal Clergyman Resigns. The Rev. Dr. John Fulton, one of the mos nent Protestant Episcopal clergymen of the West, has tendered his resignation—to ahip of St. George's church, St. Louis, and will for a time at least withdraw altogether from the ministry. This step he takes after months of careful consideration, and is out-spoken in his reasons for it. He has, he says, a feeling amounting to disgust for certain spoken in his reasons for it. He has, he says, a seeiing amounting to disgust for certain features of the judicial system of the Episcopal church, and he thinks a loud and indignant protest necessary to rouse the church to reformatory action. Regarding his future occupation, Dr. Fulton has no definite plans, but it is possible that he will practice law. He has been a clergyman at St. Louis for just ten years.

Team Stolen.

The police authorities have received word to be on the lookout for a horse stolen last night near Farmington, Md., from John Cameron. The stolen team is supposed to have been driven in this direction. The horse is a light bay, sixteen hands high. The vehicle stolen was a six-post Germantown buggy.

Hope They Are Right.

The Lancaster Inquirer publishes a column and a-half of interesting interviews with prominent city and county business men on the industrial situation. Their general tone is that a promising business future is near at hand. And, by the way, the Inquirer has quite a newsy supplement this week.

The rumor that Levi Hoffman, whose death from pneumonia we mentioned some days ago, had met with foul play and been robbed appears to be without foundation. The most of the money which he had received for some cattle sold by him, and which a contemporary said had not since been accounted for, is safe in bank. A portion of it was paid by Mr. Hoffman to his hired man, and some may have been expended for other purposes Henry Hoffman, his father, was with him when he died, and he believes that he died of pneumonia, which his attending physi-cian, Dr. John M. Deaver, said he died of.

Fun at the Rinks. Prof. May, with his dogs, closed a two nights' engagement at the Laucaster rink last night, when a large audience was present. After the dogs' performance the professor mesmerized several persons, who created lots of fun. This atternoon at a mattner the Midgets appeared, and they will also perform this evening.

At the matinee of the Mannerchor rink this afternoon George Whitby gave an acro-batic performance, Lucy Whitby swung clubs and Charles Witmer walked a wire.

Death of Mrs. Henry Ehrisman Mrs. Susan Ehrisman, wife of Henry Ehrisman, the well-known carpenter and builder, died at the residence of her husband. No. 543 West Chestnut street, this morning at 5 o'lock. She had been ill for some time with enlargement of the liver which was the cause of her death. Deceased was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, and a kind and affectionate wife and mother. She leaves three children as follows: Mrs. Samuel Kantz, Miss Mame and Edward Ehrisman, The funeral will be held on Tuesday.

Grand Army Emblem, Alderman Barr this morning received from Philadelphia a handsome Grand Army emblem. It is 3 feet 8 inches in height, and 2 feet 5 inches wide, and would be a great or nament to the post room. It was sent to him by the maker and an effort will be made to raise the cost of the same by subscription and present it to George H. Thomas post. The emblem is a Grand Army badge enlarged and is a handsome piece of work.
