Lewis Linder, a tailor, of Altoona, who possessed a fine development of chest, offered to allow any one to strike him a blow with full force on that portion of his body. This chai-lenge was accepted and a blow administered which resulted in his death soon afterward. Moses Griffith, aged 45 years, a highly re-spected farmer of Port Bowkley, Luzerne county, put off in a boat in the Susquehanna Friday afternoon toget some driftwood, The swellen current carried the boat away and upset it, and Griffith was drowned.

Curious Accident in a Church

There was a curious accident at St. Joseph's church, New York, last Sunday evening, recalling the mishap of Eutychus in the days of St. Paul, and under his preaching. During the services a man who was sitting on the callery rail and leaning against the wall, sud-denly lost his balance and fell down into the sanctuary below. A longshoreman, heprob-ably grew drowsy and fell asleep, like his predecessor in apostolic days. Women lainted, and there was a rustle and stir of ex-citement, but a panic was probably averted by the fact that so many saw just what was by the fact that so many saw just what was the nature of the accident. The result of the James Bonbright, of the firm of Hood, Bonbright & Co., of Philadelphia, died pos-Bonbright & Co., of Philadelphia, died pos-sessed of real and personal estate valued at $400,000. He appoints his widow and his son executors, and directs them to continue his interest in the firm with which he was con-necled, or any firm to be formed by the sur-viving partners. His estate is divided amongst his w.dow and five children. One clause of the testament, which was executed two years ago, directs that within ninety days $5,000 shall be divided among such charities as the executors may determine, with especial regard for the testator's preferences so far as known.

Assignment of General Army Officers.

A general order was issued by the war department Friday afternoon announcing the following assignments: Major General Schotield to the division of the Atlanta, Major General A. H. Terry to the division of Major General A. H. Terry to the division of the Missouri, and Major General Howard to the division of the Pacific. Brigadier Gen-eral George Crook was to day relieved from command of the department of Arizona at his own request and assigned to the depart-of the Platte, formerly commanded by Gen-eral Howard. Brigadier General N. A. Miles, now in command of the department of the Missouri, has been assigned to the de-partment of Arizona.

The Same Human Nature.

Many vain attempts are made to repeat the remarkable success of Benson's Capelne Plaster. This splendid remedy is known, sold and used everywhere, and its prompt action and unri-valled curative powers have won for it hosts of right sounding names, such as "Capelicin," 'Cap-sieum," etc., intended to deceive the curcless and unwary. These articles possess none of the virtues of the genuine. Therefore we hope the people will assist us to protect what are at once ther interests and ours. Ask for Benson's Plas-ter and examine what is given yon, and make sinre that the word "Capelne" is cut in the mid-die of the plaster liselt, and the "Three Seats" keeler will show you these subguards without hesitation.
