At a regular drill of Company C, held in armory last evening, the following apments were made to the different post-caused by the old incumbents being seed to higher offices. Orderly sergeant, am Abern: fifth sergeant and quarter-Harry A. Bennett; corporals, T. S. A. B. Fox and John H. Keesey.

or since the advent of the Salvation Army Ever since the advent of the Salvation Army in Columbia there have been a number of young men who go to the meetings to make a disturbance. On last Saturday evening two of these young men were very disorderly in their conduct and were complained against by the Salvation people at Squire Franks. On Monday afternoon a hearing was given to one of the persons and he was placed under ball for $100 pending a settlement between the Salvation people and the disturbance of the meetings. The other young man falled to put in his appearance.

Engine "Susquebanna," of the Reading & Columbia railroad, has been in the shops for repairs for several weeks past. The engine has been thoroughly overhauled and put in first-class order, and commenced making its usual trips yesterday.

The new frogs at the crossing of the Reading & Columbia and Pennsylvania railroads will be placed in position on next Sunday, when the running of trains will not interfere in the work.

Five out of the six houses now being erected by Mr. A. G. Guiles, at the corner of Second and Lawrence streets, have already found tenants. The demand for houses is very brisk in Columbia.

The regular monthly meeting of the Vigilant fire company will be held in the engine house this evening.

The following officers were installed last evening at the regular meeting of Susquehanna Lodge, No. 80, of Odd Fellows: Noble grand, Frank Stoeker; vice grand, F. B. Musser; secretary, R. J. M. Little; assistant secretary, John A. Mouk; treasurer, Samuel M. Stape.

The new dynamo intended for the commer-cial circuit of the Electric Light company has been adjusted and last evening was put in operation on the store line. Mr. John Wilson has arrived home after a week's visit to Pho-nixville.

THE NEW MAYOR. Fair Words from the Republican Newspapers of the City. From the New Era.

In his allusions to our financial affairs, the ster and sewerage, the police, street ing and the fire department questions, his views are sound and suggestive, and if they shall be kept steadily in view and their efficiency studied, we have reason to hope the best interests of our people will be con-sidered and the continued prosperity of the city be assured.

If the new mayor holds to the opinions already quoted, he will have the hearty support of the New Era, but this paper reserves the right to criticise and condemn any action on his part which it believes are contrary to the principles now laid down by him. In the fact that politically the views of the mayor and councils are different, we have a guarantee that hasty and ill advised action on the part of these co-ordinate factors in our municipal government will be held in check and the best interests of the city be considered.

Ability, Honesty and Independence.

Mr. Morton has ability, honesty and will power. He calls a spade a spade and means what he says. So the promises he makes in his inaugural address and the views he en-tertains, we seel confident he will endeavor to carry out—whether he will be successful or not is another question. So far as the man and not his politics is concerned, we believe he will be as popular a mayor as we have ever had.

Letters Granted.

The following letters were granted by the register of wills, for the week ending Tues-day, April 6:

Opening of Large and Commodious Furniture
Rooms on South Queen Street.

Walter A. Heinitsh has taken the large and commodious furniture rooms in Schaum's new building, opposite the Fountain Inn, South Queen street, and fitted them up in a style of unsurnased elegance. nsurpassed elegance.

The building itself is one of the finest in the

The building itself is one of the finest in the city, being $\mathbb{Z}$ feet front, 126 feet deep, and, in, cluding the basement, five stories high, and each story comprises but a single room, extending from the front to the rear of the building, and every room is lighted in a manner superior to almost any other structure in the city.

Mr. Heinitah has departed from the usual plan of decorating his immense show windows, by making one of them represent a sleeping apartment furnished in the most excellent way, containing a full set of solid walnut farniture, inment furnished in the most excellent way, containing a full set of solid walnut furniture, including bedsteads, dressing burean, chairs, mattresses, bedding, hand-made coveriet, queensware, fancy and perfumed bottles, and every article needed in a fully furnished chamber.

The other show window is fitted up to represent a dining room, the solid cherry extension table being set with all the dishes, cutiery and table linen necessary for a first-class banquet. The sideboard of beautiful pattern, the walnut chairs and other furniture are all in keeping, and all of the finest workmanship.

The first floor of the building is filled with chamber suits, in all woods, including mahogany, rosewood, cherry, walnut, ash, oak, and others; and are of infinite design. There are besides in this room, a great variety of easy chairs, in rattan, cane, willow and other makes, and all are so arranged that the visitor can see at a glance just how any particular suit will look in his or er chamber.

The second floor is largely devoted to the finest makes of parior furniture, upholstered in such great diversity of styles that even the concoisseur is un able to decide which of the many noiseur is un able to decide which of the many styles is most beautiful. This room contains also a great variety of sideboards, cabinets, book cases, hat racks, extension and fancy ta-bles, fancy chairs and scores of other pretty things that go to make up the details of a fully furnished house; and nearly all of these goods are of home manufacture and every piece guar-anteed to be as represented.

The third floor is devoted to the display of goods of medium quality—chamber suites of all popular patterns and colors, chairs, sofas, lounges, upholstered in hair, plush, cretonne and a dozen other styles; sideboards, tables of all kinds, kitchen sinks, camp stools, &c., &c.

The fourth floor is the stock room, and contains a great sunnly of surnlys goods and duplitains a great supply of surplus goods and duplicates of articles on the other floors. The basement room, which is as large as any of the others, is used as a receiving room, and contains as large a stock of goods. Here it is that they are set up and put in condition to ex-hibit to customers or the public in all other

A specialty in Mr. Heinitsh's establishment is the sectional spring mattress, of which he is the exclusive owner in this part of the state. It is claimed to be the easiest, softestand most spring mattress made. Mr. H. also carries the largest line of rattau and fancy chairs, screens, easels and pedestals in this city; and it is safe to say there is not in the state a more beautiful suite of turniture rooms nor outside of Philadelphia an establishment that contains a larger or better elected stock of furniture.

"A Ray Baby."-This evening this comedy will be given at the opera house, and the indications are that there will be a large audience. Mr. Cravan plays Old Sport, and Marion Elmore is Fenus. New scenery is introduced and plenty fense. New scenery is introduced and plenty of excellent music.

"The Rajah,"—On Thursday evening "The Rajah," will be presented at the opera house. This is a fine play, and the Albany Argus says of the company: "Mr. J. G. Saville took the leading role and gave an excellent account of himself. Miss Rille Deaves, as "Gladys," is facility to Albanian begins and says. miliar to Albanians, having played the same in the original company. She is one of those beautiful and graceful young women who seem to adorn every costume, and yet who has so much ability as to render her pleasing; aside from these charms. Miss Ethel Brandon was bott elever and captivating as "Emilla," and Mr Charles W. Stokes good as "Cragin." The Kempa Concert.-The Y. M. C. A. Lad

Auxiliary have made arrangements with the famous Kempa family for one of their grand concerts, to be given in the Court House, on Friday evening, April 9. Those who heard them in Grace Lutheran church a few weeks ago, speak of them in the highest terms.
