Yesterday aiternoon a tramp went into the Fard of Jacob S. Snyder, living at Front and Locust streets, and seeing no person in sight, went into a room and picked up several articles. As he was coming out he was met by Mr. Snyder, who gave the tramp a well-deserved thrashing. On several occasions Mr. Snyder has been bothered with tramps, but always gave them a warm reception, saying this is a better way than to go to the trouble of having them arrested.

THE MEDICAL SWINDLERS.

The Latest Concerning the Doings of Swindlers Hale and Ponner Dr. Hale is still in Jali at Pittsburg for swindling. He keeps up his nerve, how-ever, and tells fabulous stories of the brown fronts, &c., that he owns. He claims stone fronts, &c., that he owns. He claims that he will be able to pay the indebtedness in full. At the hearing Friday morning Bruce Chauntibrand, according to the Pitti-burg papers, told a very straight story, to the effect that he first met Dr. Hale in Lancaster, and by his overflowing and very per caster, and by his overtlowing and very persuasive language he induced Chauntibrand to secure a company and receive one-third of he profits. The doctor told him of his untold wealth, and that the venture would be a success to a dead certainty, and this induced him to enter into the contract.

The Leader says "Chauntibrand, who very honorably went to Mr. Kelly at the Monongahela house, and told him exactly how he had been taken in, is the most badly left victim of them all; he got together a little company and paid over $100 out of his own pocket to bring them here, and which was to be returned to him in a few days by the "Crusus" Hale, but out of it all he received $1.70. Chauntibrand and his stranded company propose to give an extra entertaincompany propose to give an extra entertain-ment at Laisyette hall Saturday evening, in which they will be assisted by several mem-bers of the different combinations playing bers of the different combinations playing here this week, in order to secure it, if possible, a sufficient amount of money to take them back to their homes. The doctors seem to have borne a bad reputation before. A dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va, says: "Dr. W. H. Founer is now under indictment here for a serious offense. He came here from Waynesburg, Pa., where he father is a wealthy farmer, about a year He came here from Waynesburg, Pa., where his father is a wealthy farmer, about a year ago, and opened an office as a specialist. After his indictment he was bailed out, and jumped his bond. Chief of Police Smith pursued him to recover a horse which he was driving and which was not his, and Fonner refurned, renewed his bond, and again disappeared. He had not since been heard from till his exploits in Pittsburg were made known."

were made known." Of Hale the following is said : "Hale came here in 1882 and exhibited half a bushel or so of alleged diamonds, and told the same story about his wealth and skill that he told in Piftsburg. The state board of health had a warrant issued for him for irregular practice but he got wind of it in time and escaped, going to Toledo, O., where he was jailed for ending obscene matter through the mail Hale was back recently, and he and Fenner

rom the Lancaster Inquirer, Rep. Mayor Morton's statement that "the administration of the city government is a business matter, to be conducted on business principles" expresses the convictions of all ntelligent citizens on that important topic, and if the idea thus stated is faithfully carried out by the new mayor his administration will have a just claim for confidence on good men of all political parties.

It is about time that there was less of party spirit in the control of our city affairs. In-competency and dishonesty should no longer receive tolerance through supposed party necessities. Tax-payers, and citizens who want to see our city government something want to see our city government something more than a political plum for small politicians to scramble over, will rejoice at any manifestion of a spirit looking toward reform in this particular. When it does come, let it be from what quarter it may, if it is the genuine article, it will be greeted with the approbation of all patriotic citizens.

Dr. Brooks Delivers a Lecture Professor Edward Brooks, Ph.D., formerly principal of the Millersville Normal school, ddressed the Philadelphia teachers' institute Friday evening in the lecture room of the girls' normal school, at Seventeenth and girlis' normal school, at Seventeenth and Spring Garden streets, his subject being "The Teacher's Ideal." There were more than two hundred present, the ladies being greatly in the majority. Professor Brooks held that thought is the philosopher's stone and that he modern teachers should devote more time to the cultivation of the faculties of perception and imagination in their pupils. He claimed that character, the highest pro-duct of culture and education, was larged duct of culture and education, was largely moulded and fashioned by the teacher, and to this particular development he asked for more persistent work.

Visiting Old Friends. Henry J. Butler, a talented young member of the Lancaster bar, who left this city a little more than a year ago to practice his prolession in Fort Scott, Kansas, was in Lancaster on Friday looking up the many friends that he made here during his brief residence in the city. It will be pleasing information to them all to know that he has been conspicuously successful in his adopted Western home, having resently bought out his partner in a flourishing real estate business. Mr. Butler is a son of ex-State Treasurer Butler, ng information of Lionville, Chester county, and a brother of Thomas Butler, a leading member of the Chester county bar and resident in West Drunk and Disorderly. Adam Schullin, a white mar, has made complaint against Mary Washington, a colored woman, for disorderly conduct; and Mary has countered upon him by charging him with both drunken and disorderly conduct. Both parties made enough noise in Alderman Pinkerton's office this afternoon to convict them of being disorderly; but as they did not have their witnesses present both were ommitted for a hearing on Monday afternoon.

A Farmer's Driving Accident. A farmer named Fulmer, of East Hemp field township, while driving to his home from market this morning, met with a mishap on the Marietta turnpike, near this city. He did not observe a pile of ashes on the side of the road and driving over it, his wagon was upset and Mr. Fulmer and his companion were thrown out. Fortunately they escaped with slight bruises. The wagon was alightly wrester. was slightly wrecked. Lectures for a Sunday School.

OAK HALL

Information for this Day.

You'll find an almost embarrassing variety in the Clothing we have to show for the season. It couldn't be otherwise when you consider that Oak Hall is the main clothing mart for the nearly a million men within trading distance of of this city.

We drew your thoughts to a few things out of the wonderful stock, equally recommended for excellence and cheapness. A Spring Overcoat, English Worsted, real silk sleeve linings, real silk facings—a capital exam-ple of a genteel garment; price, $1250. The same cloth without the fixings, for solid wear, $10. A Double Breasted Frock Coat Dress Su t Elsewhere you might pay pay $5 more for it. We are content with the profit it brings us at $15.50.

A pair of Trowsers, double milled and twisted (the manufacturer done his part), suitable for every occasion, $3.50. Children's Suits at E. A good assertment for boys from 10 to 13. Smaller sizes only. For a little more money we can suit you in any
