Builtness to Resume.

The Columbia coal chutes have been overhauled and put in first-class order for the resumption of the shipping trade to the Southern market It is expected that operations at this place will commence about the middle of the present month. The canal was ready for the opening of navigation, but the recent heavy rains had caused washouts along this place which retarded the opening for some time, but the damage has been generally repaired and about the 15th of this month bosts can commence running to Baltimore.

The armory will te occupied during this week by other parties, and the Salvation army will be compelled to suspend their army will be compelled to suspend their meetings for this week. Their meetings will commence on next Sunday. On last Saturday night considerable trouble was had at the the armory by the Salvation people and some young men. These people imagine that every person who attend their meetings come to make a disturbance, and generally start the trouble by talking in an arrogant tone to the young men and they are answered in the same manner.

Town Notes, Louise Arnot and company will appear in the opera house this evening in "The Two Orphans." This company is very highly ken of for the excellent manner in which the different plays are produced and, as they the different plays are produced and, as they appear at popular prices, large audiences will doubtless be present on every evening. Miss Arnot assumes the leading role in the play for this evening.

A large band of gypsies passed through Columbia on Sunday afternoon, attracting considerable attention on account of their fine stock and handsome wagons. The band had thirty-five horses in their possession. They are encamped near the Henry Clay furnace. Another small band are stopping at Nissley's hill. During Sunday crowds of people were drawn to these camps to see these peculiar nomadic people.

Business at the police courts is very dull and the officers report the town quiet.

Escaped from an Officer. This morning Officer Lewars went to the county prison after Ross Doster, Samuel Williams and George Breen, to take them to Alderman McConomy's for a hearing on the charge of breaking open and stealing peanuts irom the stand of Erhart Huber at the North-ern market. Doster and Williams were handcuffed together and walked along with the officer, until at the corner of Plum and Grant streets, where Johnson slipped the cuff of the wrist of Doster. Williams ran the wrist of Doster. Williams ran Plum street toward the locomotive works, and Doster down Grant streets. The officer left Breen stand and went in pursuit of Williams, but he was too fleet-footed for off Williams, but he was too fleet-footed for the policeman and he made his escape, the officer giving up the chase after running sevofficer giving up the chase after running several squares. The officer had his revolver at home. It he would have had it he might have brought the fugitive to terms. Breen made no effort to get away. He claims to be able to prove his innocence of the charge preferred against him. Doster is well known to our policemen. The police believe that neither Willams or Doster will remain long away from liams or Doster will remain long away from the city. If they do they are a good rid-

THE MALONES SEWER.

The City of Philadelphia Ordered to Give Special Bond for Damages.

Francis W. McDowell, the owner of a paper mill in Manayunk, situated between the Schuyikili river and the tow-path, has applied to Judge Biddle for an injunction to ain R. J. Malone & Bro., the contractor for the construction of the intercepting sewer from carrying that work through his property. The sewer will pierce its foundation walls and prevent the use of a water tank said to be essential to the operation of the mill. The city has given a bond in the sum of $30,000 to secure the damages of persons injured by the sewer, but McDowell claims that this is wholly insufficient, inasmuch as the damage to one particular property owner will exceed $50,000. He claims that the in-jury to his property will be at least, $2,000, while the injury to his tenant, W. J. Elliott, will be about $15,000. will be about $15,000.

After hearing argument Judge Biddle made an order providing that an injunction should be issued on Saturday next, unless before that time the city shall assign $2,500 of the $30,000 bond to McDowell, without prejudice to the city's right to show that he has no title sufficient to enable him to recover on the bond. Upon the entry of the assignment the application for the injunction is to be considered refused.

Bishop Howe's Episcopal Visitations. Pennsylvania, visited this city yesterday, and preached and confirmed large classes in both St. James and St. John's churches.

The services in St. James took place in the enoon, the bishop officiating and being as-ed by Rev. Dr. Knight and Rev. Hardy. The bishop's sermon was based on the text found in the 13th chapter and 27th and 28th verses of Matthew. After the sermon a class bom an address was made by the bishop. rty-four catecumens were confirmed, to la the evening Bishop Howe preached a samon from Matthew 13, 7, and confirmed a class of thirty. The services were impres-sive and the congregation unusually large.

On Saturday last Drs. Bridge and Weber state veterinary surgeons, visited the farm of S. A. Frey, near Masonville, this county, and killed two cows, two calves and a yearling steer that were affected with pleuropneumonia. Mr. Frey has lost about thirty head of cattle from this scourge, and has yet a herd of eighty head, some of them more or loss afflicted with the disease.

much superior to that rendered by the society at their previous entertainment, and the great improvement made reflects much credit upon their able leader Mr. C. C. Seitz. We would not be doing justice to those who recite recitations should we not say they were especially well rendered. We must also note that the very excellent order maintained shows that chief magistrate Mr. Sam Matt Friday, in whose charge this affair was placed, is master of his office. The exercises placed, is master of his office. The exercises

WHO WANT THIS INFORMATION! Two Inquiries of a Fashionable Nature From a Philadelphia Paper. To the Editor of the Press.

Stn: Please inform me whether it is compatible with the laws of propriety or even with conventional laws for a young lady about to leave town to give her photograph to a gentleman upon his request.

Very respectfully, H. ASTERISE.

LANCASTER, April 6.

It depends entirely on the terms of intimacy. If the gentleman visits the lady's family and is regarded as a friend, and not as an acquaintance, there is probably no objection to his request being granted. As a rule, however, young gentlewomen can not be too particular in regard to bestowing their photographs.

Sin: In taking a lady to ride horseback in your city, what is considered the correct dress for a young man? Will you describe, "from spu: to plume," the costume of one who desires to appear the very "pink of fashion" and yet not to seem foppish? Is it considered right to ride on the side of the lady on which her riding habit falls? he lady on which her riding habit falls Please inform us as to gloves, spurs, boots, top-boots—do gentlemen ever ride with top-boots in your city?

LANCASTER. LANCASTER, April 9.

Don't "desire to be the very pink of tash-That will at once make you foppish, which you say you wish to avoid. Riding attire for a man of good style can consist of a buttoned cutaway cost and waistcost of dark cloth, trousers of the same or a lighter shade, fastened by straps and falling over patent leather boots: tall hat and buck or dogskin gloves; black or white scarf tie. It is not correct to ride in top-boots unless hunting or serving as a groom. Use small box spurs. Ride on the other side of the lady's habit; opinions, however, differ as to that point.

AN " INJUN-KILLER" SHOT.

A Gang of Embryo Heroes of the Plain Broken up by Accident. George W. Branson, alias "Buffalo Bill, son of Constable George H. Branson, living on Crease street, near Girard avenue, Philadelphia, was shot in the head Saturday after noon by a companion named Adolph Mayer, alias " Buck Taylor," of 247 East Girard ave nue. The wound is dangerous. Mayer was Branson was leader of a gang of boys who had set their hearts upon going West and wiping out whole tribes of Indians. Their ages ranged from nine to fourteen years. In addition to the two mentioned, there were "Mustang Joe" Beckhart, Charles, allas "Reddy," Hutton, "Pud" Heller, "Max" Brueckman, "Billy" Stewart and "Jockey the Kid." "Buffalo Bill" Branson has been stealing money from his old grandmother at intervals for the past six months and buying dime novels for the gaag. Last week "Buck" Mayer stole $30 from his father's pocket-book and purchased five small rifle pocket-book and purchased live small rifles and about $1,200 cartridges for the gang. Saturday the boys hired a boat and crossed the Deiaware river to Pea's Shore, near Camden, N. J., where they went on their first hunt. Young Mayer fired at a bird perched on a bush, and behind a tree and and received the bullet in his fore-head. The boys hurried their injured chief to the boat and brought him chief to the boat and brought him to the city. Young Mayer conducted him to his home, while the other boys hid the guns under a lumber pile, with the ex-ception of "Mustang Joe," who pawned his.

" Dr." Fonner Captured in Wheeling. Dr. Fonner, Dr. Hale's partner in the swindling firm of Hale & Fonner, has been apprehended in Wheeling, W. Va. He went rom Pittsburg to Washington county, when he first left, and thence to West Virginia. He is said to have taken all the money made by the firm with him, thus crippling the con-cern, and leaving his pal, Hale, in the hands of authorities. Detective Sol Coulson, of Pittsburg, left for Wheeling on Saturday to bring Fonner back. On his return he wil be given a hearing on a charge of fraud. The actors who were the victims of the sharpers were given a benefit in Lafayette hall Saturday evening by their colleagues in that city.
Sunday's Pittsburg Dispatch says: Detective Sol Coulson returned from Wheeling Saturday evening, whither he had gone after
Dr. Fonner, of Hale-Fonner fame. His man was under arrest there, however, on a serious charge. After that case is settled he may be brought back here. Coulson says that Fonner told him he was anxious to come back here because of the stories Hale told about him. He blames Hale, and says that he got no money out of the stair.

The Washington Territory Bill Passed. At the session of the Senate on Saturday, the Washington territory admission bill was taken up and passed-yeas, 30: nays, 13, The Democrats voting with the Republicans in the affirmative were Messrs, Butler, George, Jones, (Ark.) and Morgan. The negative votes were all Democratic. The bill authorizes the inhabitants of Washington territory and the adjacent part of the territory of Idaho to form a state government, with the name of the state of Washington; provides for a convention to formulate and adopt a constitution; the convention is to meet at Walla Walla at such time as the Governor of the territory shall designate, and when the new constitution shall be completed it shall be submitted to the people for ratification; if ratified it shall be certified to the president of the United States, who shall then by public proclamation declare the state admitted to the Union without further action by Congress. The bill now goes to the House,

What a Demijohn of Whisky Caused. On Saturday Harrison Smith, who works around among the farmers in the neighborhood of Petersburg, determined to get on a big drunk. He purchased a whole demijohn of whisky and then began his painting. He spent almost the whole of Sunday lying along a road near Petersburg with his whisky. Early this morning about a dozen whisky. Early this morning about a dozen families of the town were awakened up by the Comanche-like yells of an individual. Among those who were disturbed was Constable S. G. Pickie. He arose from bed and found Mr. Smith and his whisky standing in front of the house. Smith was astonished to find that he was so near an officer. Pickle took him into custody and 'Squire Graybill committed him for 30 days. Smith carried his demijohn with what remained of the whisky; so when his term expires he will have a "bracer."

Why It is Hot at the Equa From the Philadelphia North American. Two soot-black Africans stood at Seventh and Lombard streets yesterday afternoon discussing the weather. They anathematized the variableness of the climate in much the same manner that white folks would do, and then the conversation lagged a little, "I think I'd rather live down on the quatah," said one after a pause; "frum wat I've heerd bout de weathah there its moah dependable upon than it is heah, and a pusson is not all the time heldin' up his heels to keep the chilblains frum achin. By the way, Mose, what makes it so hot 'round the quatah."

Amusements. Mayothis Evening.—This evening Frank Mayo will play "Nordeck" in the opera house. The piece has been seen here before and it is very good. The company supporting Mr. Mayo in-cindes Miss Kathryn Kidder, who plays the part of Wanda. The New York Times says of the place: "Few better plays than 'Nordeck' have been produced in New York of late. Mr. Mayo is an actor who ought to be seen more fre quently in the metropolis. As Waldemar he is picturesque, manly and even heroic."

Young Mrs. Winthrop.—Wednesday evening Madison Square company will play "Young irs. Winthrop" in this city. The reputation of this theatre is such that the management can not afford to have poor companies. The play is a very strong society drama, and the bills say, it reflects the interior of many a fashionable metropolitan dwelling, and teaches that wealth with all its surroundings does not ensure domestic
