

THE LAND OF STONY BOORS.

At evening when the lamp is lit, Around the fire my parents sit, And I sit at home and talk and sing, And do not play at anything.

THE WHITE HOUSE BRIDE.

All Reports Agree That the President Will Marry Miss Folsom.

The Buffalo News says: "Rumors of President Cleveland's engagement to Miss Folsom have been traced to sources so reliable as to leave no reasonable doubt of their accuracy. There are further rumors that the president intends to make his home in Albany on his retirement from public life. Whatever may be his intentions in that respect, the choice of a bride from among Buffalo's fair ones, and especially one to whom reference is made here only in terms of highest praise, must draw him nearer in thought and sentiment to his old home. In common with his many old-time friends, we extend to him our warmest congratulations and best wishes."

SEVEN YEARS AGO.

Seven years ago in her church seat Miss Folsom became acquainted with Charles Townsend, a son of wealthy parents and a fascinating gallant, who was, however, impulsive, capricious and changeable, both in society and in love. It was not long before she had tried his talents in several fields, but tired of them rapidly, and seemed never likely to settle down permanently in any sphere. He, in the meantime, was a newspaper reporter, a clerk in a drug store, an embryo lawyer and a railroad clerk. Miss Folsom was, as usual, a newspaper reporter, and she was so impressed by the attentions of Mr. Townsend that she was induced to accept of his suit. She was, however, a very sensible girl, and she was not long to be deceived. She was, however, a very sensible girl, and she was not long to be deceived.
