ONLY A NIGGER PREACHER.

During the deadly yellow fever epidemic in Mississippi in 1878 the incident upon which the following lines were founded had actual occurrence. The lines were written by Mr. Sam W. Small, the Evangelist co-laboring with the Rev. Sam Jones in Chicago at present. They were written hastily, late at night, in the editorial rooms of the Atlanta Constitution, and printed next morning. At that time they were reprinted in nearly every daily paper in America, and in many journals in England.

The Rev. Ben Black, a colored Methodist minister at Holly Springs, proved himself a hero during the prevalence of the scourge. He visited white and black ministered comfort wherever he went, and at one time was the only minister present in the village to console the sick and aessist at the burial of the dead.

Ben Black! Well, I reckon I know him—
That Holly Springs preacher, you mean?
Yes, he's black as natur could grow him
'Mongst all the black niggers you've seen.
He wuz born on the old plantashun
An' registered thar ez a slave,
But the Lord in His wise all-creashun
Put in him a heart that is brave.

He wuz out thar fightin' all evil
An' tryin' ter save his own race
From out of the jaws of the devil,
By the power o' go-pel an' grace;
He wuz thar when the yaller inflieshun
Come stalkin' long over the lan',
An' the hour of the awful affliction
Show'd up the true grit of er man!

Thar wuz then er stampede of the people,
Ez well of the po' an' the rich;
The preacher lost sight of his steeple,
An' his "duty," an' "cross," an' all sich!
They fled from ther kith an' ther kin, sir,
Ther faith waren't ez strong ez that thread,
An' only a few stayed to win, sir,
That battle 'mongst dying an' dead.

Old Ben never flickered er second,
Ner faltered when weary an' faint,
But wherever the stricken un beckoned
He bent to his work like er saint!
Right thar at the bed o' the whitest
He took up a merciful stan',
Or tred with her step that wuz lightest
When death wuz the closest at han'.

He talk'd of the Lord an' his power
Ter save an' make holy the heart;
He told the weak soul not to cower
In ther face of death's pestilent dart;
He spoke the sweet message of heaven
Ter them that never had hear'd it,
An' put a firm faith in them even
Thet know'd of the future an' feared it.

I tell yer that old black preacher
Was worth thar his weight in pure gold,
Fer he followed close path in the steps of his Teacher
Like them "gentlemen did of old:"
I've seen many parsons in churches
A shoutin' of duty an' deth,
But they left all ther folks in the lurches
When of danger thar comes er first breath.

I've heer'd many high-toned sparkles
Go shoutin' around about niggers,
An' swearin' the souls of the darkies
Weren't worth eany more'n er chigger
But of thar's a man in this party
With er heart in him as big as er flea
That won't cheer fer old Ben right hearty,
Why, then—he's got ter lick me!

Fer I say thet the Lord had er reason
Fer paintin' the old nigger's hide,
An' He meant him to turn up in season
With all the world square on his side
An' when all in judgment come even
Ef I pass you can bet on this thing—
Thar'll be one nigger angel in heaven
I'll line with ter praise an' ter sing!

Miss M. J. SINGISER, at U. S. Mint.

"He who is false to present duty," says Henry Ward Beecher, "breaks a thread in the loom, and will find the flaw when he may have forgotten its cause." A case in point occurs to us. Mr. Wm. Ryder, of 87 Jefferson street, Buffalo, N. Y., recently told a reporter that, "I had a large abscess on each leg, that kept continually discharging for twenty years. Nothing did me any good except Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery.' It cured me." Here is a volume expressed in a few words. Mr. Ryder's experience is entitled to our readers' careful consideration. The Sun. W&Sw

MEDICAL.

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters

ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and druggists recommend it.

AYER'S PILLS.

Constipation

Is a universal and most troublesome disorder. It causes Headache, Mental Depression, impairs the Sight and Hearing, destroys the Appetite, and, when long continued, causes Enlargement of the Bowels, and Piles. Constipation is speedily cured by Ayer's Pills.

For a number of months I was troubled with Costiveness, in consequence of which I suffered from Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and a disordered liver. My eyes also troubled me. I was compelled to wear a shade over them, and, at times, was unable to bear exposure to the light. I was entirely three boxes of Ayer's Pills. I have hesitation in pronouncing this medicine to be the best cathartic ever made.—James Eccles, Poland, Ohio.

I suffered from Constipation, and, consequently, from Headache, Indigestion, and Piles. For years, Ayer's Pills, which I took at the suggestion of a friend, have given me effectual relief. I commenced taking this remedy two months ago, and am now free from Constipation, the removal of which has caused my other troubles to disappear, and greatly improved my general health.—W. Keefer, Amherst, Mass.

I suffered from Constipation, which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me, completely.—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

CUTICURA REMEDIES.

A Little Sufferer

Cleansed, Purified, and Beautified by the Cuticura Remedies.

It affords me pleasure to give you this report of the cure of our little grandchild by your CUTICURA REMEDIES. When six months old his left hand began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption (scrofula of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, his head was completely cured, and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged, and continued the use of the remedies for a year and a-half. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always remain; his hands are strong, though we once feared he would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure. If the above facts are of any use to you, you are at liberty to use them. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS,
No. 612 Clay street, Bloomington, Ill.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathesome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in its curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.

It is to every young man's interest to dress himself in such a manner as will become him. There is no other part of his dress that will so much change his appearance as his Hat. If the Hat is not the proper one to suit his face, build and general appearance, no matter how finely he may be dressed in other particulars, he does not look well.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

GO AROUND THERE AND HOWL.

When a hound shall howl at the gate,
In the dusk or the dawning day,
A soul that is weary of life
Shall silently pass away.—Anon.

The following letter received from an agent of the Northwestern Mutual contains an idea:

AGENCY OF THE NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
G. N. REYNOLDS, General Agent, 121 King St., 239 East Orange St.,
LANCASTER, PA., April 2, 1886.

To the Editor of the Weekly Statement:

DEAR SIR: Some Mutual Life agent very kindly sent me a copy of your last issue in which you notice my little circular letter to my policy holders.

I must fully enjoyed the very happy way in which you did it, but am also somewhat puzzled over your advice for me to visit Pasteur for treatment, for Pasteur only cures attacks of hydrophobia. A patient must have been bitten by a mad dog to go to him for treatment.

As my circular in question states, and as it is a fact, it was written only as a result of a long continued series of attacks from your Reading agent, Robert Holmes. So if I am suffering from the bite of a mad dog, then he must be that animal in question.

Common law requires the owner of a mad dog to suppress it and put it out of the way. Mr. Holmes is your lawful agent, and therefore it must be your duty to suppress him and put him out of the way. * * * *
Yours truly, G. N. REYNOLDS.

That there are strong indications that something has been biting Mr. Reynolds, we are willing to admit. There are symptoms in which virulent matter fructifies and reaches a growth, unknown to the body in which it originated.

History also recounts peculiar back action results. For instance, the Richmond Observer says:

"A carpet-bagger was recently bitten by a copper-head snake. The C. B. continues to hold office and draw two salaries. The snake died."

Prof. Pasteur recounts a case in which a dog, bitten by a supposed rabid animal, began in a few days to eat up the carpet and chew the chair legs. This dog died in three weeks, after disturbing the peace of the neighborhood, while the dog that did the biting lived to a respectable old age.

Taking Mr. Reynolds' own admission that he has been bitten and then considering the fact that he at once began to chew the Mutual's surplus fund and gnaw the assets, and we must arrive at the conclusion that he has intensified the original virus, and that "after disturbing the neighborhood" for a brief season, he will be heard of no more, while the original canine will wag his tail with satisfaction.

Do not lose sight of the quotation at the head of this column, however; by following out the suggestion it contains, Mr. R. may get rid of his troublesome adversary.

Go around there and howl.
