

PAINTING THE COURT HOUSE.

Some Discussion Pro and Con About THE AWARD.

A Large Tax-Payer Who Asks some Comments-The Commissioners Interviewed and Give Their Explanations of the Award.

There is a good deal of scandal and discussion of earnest sort among the painters, dealers and tax-payers...

It is believed that while the commissioners had no right to consider them and then deliberately pass over the lower for the higher...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

Commissioner Hartman says that the lowest was not the best bidder...

What the Commissioners Say.

TO OPEN THE BASE BALL SEASON.

Lancaster to Play Williamsport at the latter Place on Saturday, May 8.

On Saturday, May 8, the Pennsylvania State Association of base ball clubs, of which Lancaster is a member, will open the season...

The schedule has been compared, and below are given Lancaster's dates:

LANCASTER AT HOME: Altoona—May 24, 25; June 14, 15; August 7, 9; September 11, 13...

Base Ball Briefs.

Atkinson and Taylor were the pitchers in yesterday's Athletic-Baltimore game.

Harkins and Oldfield formed the Brooklyn battery yesterday, and both were made of the former and the latter played a beautiful game.

The Allegheny players have made several home runs this season.

The New York Giants had but four hits off Smith's Newark yesterday, and the Jersey club had only two of Keefe's.

Casny and McVieira go in today as the opening batsmen for the Philadelphia against the Washington.

Exhibition games yesterday resulted as follows: Boston at Jersey City; Boston 1, Jersey City 4; New York at New York; New York 1, Jersey City 4; Elmira at Rochester; Rochester 1, Elmira 7.

Hoke is keeping straight and the Baltimore are finding him a valuable man.

Mr. Randall, on taking the chair, expressed his profound sympathy with the cause of the Irish people.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

Mr. Tilden, in his address, expressed his hearty sympathy in the movement for home rule.

THE CASE OF A MORMON.

Argument in the Supreme Court by GEO. TUCKER CURTIS.

A Review of a Remarkable Case—A Man Who Seems to be in Jail For His Opinions, Not His Practices—An Able Argument by a Great Lawyer.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—One of the most remarkable arguments which has been made in the Supreme Court of the United States since Judge Black discussed the famous Milligan case, was delivered to-day by George Tucker Curtis.

The defendant is a man of remarkable early attainments. He is 22 years of age and is a man of remarkable early attainments.

This man is now in the Utah penitentiary, and is confined in a cell for the purpose of preventing the future practice of polygamous marriages.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

It was announced that its object was not to break up family relations which had been formed when the men were young and single.

DR. FAINESTOCK'S DEATH.

News of His Death at His Home, Wallalla, S. C.

The Professional and Scientific Career of an eminent Citizen—A Philanthropist for Sixty Years—His Studies in Animal Magnetism and Spiritualism—His Many Gifts.

A telegram to Lancaster, received this forenoon by the relatives of Dr. William B. Fainestock, brings to them the news of his death at his home in Wallalla, S. C.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

Dr. Fainestock was born in Wallalla, S. C., where his father was one of the leading physicians here, and for a long time, in connection with his practice carried on a drug store on West Wallalla.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.

A Bill Reported for Its Repeal—Money-Exchange and Repeal.

Features of the Measure Designed by Representative Latham, of Texas—Fourth of July Clause Under Consideration Among the Grave and Dignified Senators.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—[House.] Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.

A Bill Reported for Its Repeal—Money-Exchange and Repeal.

Features of the Measure Designed by Representative Latham, of Texas—Fourth of July Clause Under Consideration Among the Grave and Dignified Senators.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—[House.] Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.

A Bill Reported for Its Repeal—Money-Exchange and Repeal.

Features of the Measure Designed by Representative Latham, of Texas—Fourth of July Clause Under Consideration Among the Grave and Dignified Senators.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—[House.] Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.

Mr. Latham, of Texas, reported a bill to repeal the trade dollar act of 1876, and to provide for the payment of all dues to the United States and not to be issued.