

NECESSARY SUNDAY WORK.

For the past week, and more especially the last few days, stories of the most exaggerated kind have been told of the condition of Dr. T. Davis, who was bitten by a dog some time ago. One report stated that the doctor was dead, and another that his wounds were so bad that he was expected to die.

Regular Correspondence of Intelligencer. OREGON, Pa., May 4.—The Columbia Mineral Association, composed of the pastors of the different town churches, have entered into a plan whereby they seek to do away with the running of freight trains on the Pennsylvania railroad on Sundays.

William G. Dutzler has received the tax duplicates of the state and county, and has posted notices in accordance with the act of June 25, 1885. The present office of the collector is at 330 Union street, but it will soon be removed to some place in the business portion.

During yesterday a committee of the Forest and Stream club of Columbia went down the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad for the purpose of inspecting a location for the camping of the club during the coming summer.

William B. Given, attorney for J. Milton Misher, sold a house situated on Plane street, to William C. Stone, for $1,200. A car of the United States Fish Commission passed through town yesterday on its way down the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad.

Miss Edith Padgett left town today for a visit to Toledo, Ohio. A concert was held in the armory last night for the benefit of the foreign mission board of the A. M. E. church, which was well attended.

REFORE JUDGE BATTISON. The testimony in the reply suit of Allison & Co. vs. the Philadelphia car builders against John O'Brien, the circus man, was closed late on Tuesday afternoon. Counsel concluded their argument this morning and the case was given to the jury shortly before noon.

REFORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON. The suit of the Meriden Silver Plate company against Hershey & Bro. was attached for trial on Tuesday afternoon and was in action to recover the value of 50 cases of knives and forks, purchased by defendants from plaintiffs. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs, and awarded them $1,000.

A Lecture on Gettysburg. The second lecture of the course for the benefit of the Sunday school fund of St. John's Lutheran church was delivered last evening by Rev. W. M. Baum, D. D., of Philadelphia. His subject was "The Battle of Gettysburg," which was graphically described. A large map hung on the wall served admirably to illustrate the positions of the several corps.

To Answer at Court. This morning Christian Sharp, merchant, East King street, this city, waived a hearing before Alderman Dean, and entered bail to appear at court to answer a complaint of false pretense preferred against him by C. A. Brown, of Philadelphia. The complaint charges that Mr. Sharp gave a check early in March for $17.25 in payment of an order for goods; that the check was not cashed as stated above; that he held the proceeds of that check but had not any money in bank at the time the check was given; and that he afterwards refused to pay the check or in any other way pay for the goods.

The Orange Street Water Pipe. The work of laying the new water main on Orange street, is progressing rapidly. The pipe has been laid on the square between Duke and Duke streets, and the trenches have been refilled. It will be laid a short time until the pipe is laid to North Queen street.

Assault and Battery Case. One of the results of the fight at Keiker's saloon yesterday is that five suits for assault and battery have been brought before Alderman Patrick Donnelly. The accused are Peter Diehl, James Eversman, Charles Brown, John Sumner and Larry Crowley. The prosecutor is E. E. Bruce, who alleges that the men used him as a body. A hearing will probably bring the suits to the surface.

Looked Up for a Stealing. George Gorman, a tramp, who annoyed several people by begging for money and who became very impudent when he was rebuffed, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Smith. He was looked up for a

Dr. Davis Continued Along Work. For the past week, and more especially the last few days, stories of the most exaggerated kind have been told of the condition of Dr. T. Davis, who was bitten by a dog some time ago.

Knights of St. John Fair. For several months the Knights of St. John have been preparing for a fair. The time designated for the opening of the fair is Saturday evening, May 15, and the place selected is the Lancaster rink.

Breach of Promise. Mary Posleter, through her attorney, W. H. Roland, has entered a suit in the court of common pleas against Joseph König for damages for breach of promise. Mary's affidavit sets forth that for over a year past she was engaged to be married to Joseph, and without provocation he jilted her and intends to marry to another.

Did Little Good. The work of the Salvation Army seems to have come to a sudden close in this city. "Captain" Duffin and his family have left for other fields. It is said that the army made little headway, and some persons that were supposed to have been church members, were expelled from the church.

Civil Suit for Damages. B. F. Davis, attorney for Jacob W. Hollinger and Mary his wife, today entered a suit for damages against Wallace D. Evans. The allegation is that Evans assaulted, with intent to rape Mrs. Hollinger, and for that offense she seeks civilly for damages. A criminal suit is also pending against Evans.

The Knights Templar Conclude. The thirty-third annual convolve of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of the United States, which was held at the 25th and 26th ind. The annual parade will take place on the 25th.

Assaulted His Wife. David Kolbach, of Mount Joy, complained against before Alderman Fordney for assaulting his wife, has entered bail for a hearing on Monday morning.

A PALACE OF FASHION. Grand Opening at Atrich Bros. To-night—An Evening of Music and Entertainment. Atrich Brothers have opened in this city six years ago, and it once took up a leading position in the furnishing of ladies' supplies.

The suit of the Meriden Silver Plate company against Hershey & Bro. was attached for trial on Tuesday afternoon and was in action to recover the value of 50 cases of knives and forks, purchased by defendants from plaintiffs.

A Lecture on Gettysburg. The second lecture of the course for the benefit of the Sunday school fund of St. John's Lutheran church was delivered last evening by Rev. W. M. Baum, D. D., of Philadelphia.

To Answer at Court. This morning Christian Sharp, merchant, East King street, this city, waived a hearing before Alderman Dean, and entered bail to appear at court to answer a complaint of false pretense preferred against him by C. A. Brown, of Philadelphia.

The Orange Street Water Pipe. The work of laying the new water main on Orange street, is progressing rapidly. The pipe has been laid on the square between Duke and Duke streets, and the trenches have been refilled.

Assault and Battery Case. One of the results of the fight at Keiker's saloon yesterday is that five suits for assault and battery have been brought before Alderman Patrick Donnelly.

Looked Up for a Stealing. George Gorman, a tramp, who annoyed several people by begging for money and who became very impudent when he was rebuffed, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Smith. He was looked up for a

REFORE JUDGE BATTISON. The testimony in the reply suit of Allison & Co. vs. the Philadelphia car builders against John O'Brien, the circus man, was closed late on Tuesday afternoon.

REFORE JUDGE LIVINGSTON. The suit of the Meriden Silver Plate company against Hershey & Bro. was attached for trial on Tuesday afternoon and was in action to recover the value of 50 cases of knives and forks, purchased by defendants from plaintiffs.

Table with columns for various commodities and their prices. Includes items like Flour, Sugar, Coffee, and other goods with their respective market values.

Table titled 'Chicago Market' showing prices for various commodities such as Wheat, Corn, and other agricultural products from Chicago.

Table titled 'Live Stock Markets' detailing prices for different types of livestock including hogs, sheep, and cattle.

Table titled 'New York Stocks' listing various stock market indices and their current values.

Table titled 'Household Market' showing prices for common household items like butter, sugar, and flour.

Table titled 'Local Stocks and Bonds' providing information on local financial markets and investment opportunities.

Table titled 'NEW ADVERTISEMENTS' listing various services and businesses available in the area.

Table titled 'SET-OUT THIS EVENING' advertising for a social event or performance taking place that evening.

Table titled 'WANTED—A YOUNG MAN TO LEARN' advertising for a training or apprenticeship opportunity.

Table titled 'PLAYING CARDS AT 10 & 16' advertising for a card game or social gathering.

Table titled 'NEW ADVERTISEMENTS' listing various services and businesses available in the area.

Table titled 'SET-OUT THIS EVENING' advertising for a social event or performance taking place that evening.

Table titled 'WANTED—A YOUNG MAN TO LEARN' advertising for a training or apprenticeship opportunity.

Table titled 'PLAYING CARDS AT 10 & 16' advertising for a card game or social gathering.

Advertisement for 'ROYAL BAKING POWDER' highlighting its quality and purity. Text includes 'Absolutely Pure' and 'This powder never varies'.

Advertisement for 'WANTED-A RESTAURANT COOK' seeking a professional for a new establishment.

Advertisement for 'Summer Goods!' featuring various seasonal items and clothing.

Advertisement for 'EMBROIDERIES!' showcasing various needlework services.

Advertisement for 'Parasols and Sunshades' at popular prices.

Advertisement for 'New York Store' located at No. 6, 8 & 10 East King St.

Advertisement for 'AWNINGS' and window treatments.

Advertisement for 'Slip Covers for Furniture' and other home furnishings.

Advertisement for 'UPHOLSTERY GOODS!' for furniture covering.

Advertisement for 'FOR RENT' of a property on North Queen Street.

Advertisement for 'SCOTT'S ELECTRIC HAIR COLOR FOR' highlighting its benefits for hair.

Advertisement for 'WY PAY $10 FOR A SET OF TEETH' offering dental services.

Advertisement for 'PRESSMAN WANTED' seeking a professional for a printing press.

Advertisement for 'DIVIDEND NOTICE' from the Farmers National Bank of Lancaster.

Advertisement for 'AA. Use Manheim Roller Flour' for baking purposes.

Advertisement for 'OR NEW BRAND, THE "LATEST"' flour product.

Advertisement for 'ESTATE OF PHILIP WOLF, LATE' regarding legal proceedings.

Advertisement for 'ESTATE OF MICHAEL DOUGHERTY' regarding legal proceedings.

Advertisement for 'NEW SPRING GOODS' and clothing items.

Advertisement for 'LEVAN'S FLOUR' and other grain products.

Advertisement for 'PUBLIC SALE OF HORSES' featuring various breeds.

Advertisement for 'BLACKBERRY, CHERRY, GINGER' and other preserves.

Advertisement for 'PATENT STRAP PANTALOONS' and clothing.

Advertisement for 'New Red Front Shoe Store' and footwear.

Advertisement for 'CHAS. A. REECE' and other services.

Large advertisement for 'Upholstery Department' by Hager & Brother, featuring various fabrics and services.

Advertisement for 'SPECIALTIES' including 'BLACK SILKS!' and 'FAHNESTOCK'S'.

Advertisement for 'Counterpanes from Auction!' by Metzger & Haughman.

Advertisement for 'NEW CASH STORE' and various goods.

Advertisement for 'STAMM, BROS. & CO.' and other businesses.

Advertisement for 'SUMMER SILKS' and 'THE ARGAND'.

Advertisement for 'JOHN S. GIVLER & CO.' and other services.