MARRIED IN TAMAQUA.

The Bride Given Away by Her Brother, Who Is Well-Known in This City. A dispatch from Tamaqua, Pa., says that

Miss Mary E. Salade, daughter of the late Dr. E. S. Salade, was married Thursday evening in the Calvary Episcopal church of that place to Dr. Robert Neal Ramsay, Rev. Dr. Barker officiating. In spite of a drenching rain-storm, which lasted the entire day, a brilliant assemblage of guests from this and other states witnessed the mar-riage, which was more than ordinarily imriage, which was more than ordinarily impressive. Promptly at half-past six the church doors swung open to admit the bridal party, the organ playing the march from "Lohengrin." The ushers, Richard Norris, of Washington, D. C., Herbert Thompson, of Thompsontown, and Claude G. Whetstone, of Philadelphia, led the procession, followed by the brides-maids, Miss Anna Berger, of Philadelphia, Miss Mamie Levan, of Hamburg, and Miss Marie E. C. Fry, of Tamaqua. The brides-maids in the order named wore pink moire, blue moire and cream satin bracade, all en train, duchess lace and diamonds. Following these came the bride, a beautiful brunette, leaning on the arm of her brother. Lewis Audenreid Salade, a graduate of Franklin and Marshall college of last year's class, who gave the bride away. She wore class, who gave the bride away. She wore an exquisite wedding gown of Ottoman faille Francoise, trimmed with point lace, and dia-monds. At the foot of the chancel they were monds. At the foot of the chancel they were met by the groom and his best man, J. B. Irish, of Mahanoy City, and the Episcopal marriage service was performed by the officiating clergyman.

A reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, after which the bride and groom started, via Williamsport and Niagara, on an extended wedding tour.

Among the gifts was a check for $1,000 from the bride's mother.

An Hour With the Japa.

Thursday evening Rev. Dr. W. E. Parson lectured in St. John's Lutheran church for the benefit of the church fund. His subject was "An Hour With the Japs," and he made was "An Hour With the Japs," and he made it a very interesting hour for those who heard him facture. Dr. Parsons spont five years in Japan in an official capacity and became very well acquainted with the manners, customs, religions and politics of that peculiar people; many of these peculiarities were dwelt upon in the lecture, together with descriptions of the topography and geography of Japan. A considerable sum of money has been realized by St. John's church through this course of lectures.

He had been taken from the bautso swamps in the Figi islands to Calcutta when he was seven years of age and was educated and brought up by missionaries of the Episcopal church. He had also spent a number of years in Spain, where he remained until he was 23. He said he was 70 years of age, having been born on the lith of March, 1816. He wore his peculiar costume because it is native dress and is very cool in warm weather. He is trying to learn all he can of the customs of the country and intends on leaving here to go to Chester and thence on north.

IT WAS KEPT PERT OCIET.

A Daring Burglary in This City That Occurred a Week Ago, A daring burglary took place in this city on the night of Thursday of last week, but the affair was not made public until to-day. On that night burglars went to the house of John H. Bushong, who resides and keeps a flour and feed store at Walnut and Christian streets. The key was sticking in the rear door from the inside. It is supposed that the thieves turned it from the outside by means of a pair of nippers. They then went up stairs and entered the room in which Bushong and wife steps. They car-ried off a pair of pantaloons belonging to Mr. Busheng, which contained a pocketbook with $60 in money and a lot of jupers. The next morning the pantaloons were found in the back yard. The money was gone, but the papers left behind. A silver watch was also taken from Mr. Bushong's room.

Neither Mr. Bushong nor any of his family said anything about the burglary, except to a couple of persons, who were told to keep the affair entirely secret, as they thought they might in that way catch the theves. For this reason the newspapers did not get the item, but the thieves were not captured.

Mr. Bushong does not believe in giving much publicity to matters of this kind. The evidence that he means what he says is that he told an INTRILITORNERS reporter to day that last summer a year ago he had his pocket picked of $200 in Lebanon. He never said anything of the robbery even to his closest friends.

Wheel Knocked Off by Street Car Track E. H. Mellinger, of Soudersburg, was insuspiciously turning off North Duke street into East King at noon to day when one of the hind wheels of his buggy caught in the street car track and was torn off. The horse fortunately was a quiet one, and after the break-down stood still until the occupants, Mr. Mellinger and a lady, got out.

The street railway between the tracks at this point is in very bad condition. A deep hole there—and others at many points along the line-makes it dangerous to vehicles. serious accident might easily occur and the city or the company be mulcted in beavy damages. Repair is necessary. Where's Jake?

CYCLING ROUND THE WORLD

om Stevens on His Bicycle Crossing Persi to India. Thomas Stevens, whose tour around the world on a bicycle has been attracting great attention in Europe as well as in America, has reached Meshed, in Persia. A letter just received from him by Outing, at the instance of which magazine he is making the trip, will be the last news of the plucky bicycler until he has either met his fate at the hands of the natives or completed his run. Mr Stevens' letter is as follows :

I arrived at Meshed yesterday evening after an almost continuous struggle with the elements for twenty days. I made the mistake of starting too early in the season, and have paid the penalty in the shape of swollen streams, mud, snow, rain and bad weather generally. It was summer weather when ieft Teheran, but the climates of Teheran left Teheran, but the climates of Teheran and Khorassan are found to be whichy different. Starting out March 10, with summer betmet, low shoes and cycling stockings, a light outfit for warm weather. I reached Moshed on the 30th through two feet of snow. Khorassan is a fearful country to bicycle through to March. After a rain storm streams of in March. After a rain storm streams of liquid mud come down from the mountains and spread over the piain, forming an almost impassable barrier to a cycler. I have forded as many as fifty streams in a day, and the wind blows worse than it does in Wyoming or Nebraska.
The changes in temperature are also sud

The changes in temperature are also sudden and violent. On the 28th, forty-fiver-miles from Meshed, I got caught in a blirgard that would do credit to Minnesota. With cold severe enough to form teycles on one's eyelashes, and to transform one's downy upper lip into a solid take of ice, and with the air filled with binding snow, mountain torrents thigh-deep had to be forded, where one had to step out of the water into snow-drifts, I fell down in one stream, dropped the bicycle and wetted everything. With clothes frozen stiff, hands numbed, one finger slightly frost-bitten and the blizzard at its worst, I had to wade the blizzard at its worst, I had to wade through snow-drifts, ford other streams and toil on over the desolate mountains for miles before shelter was finally reached. And, then, such accommodation! A mere caravansary, crowded with mules, camels, donkeys and their drivers, and with pilgrims en route to Meshed, huddled together for warmth and shelter. Next morning the snow lay two feet deep between me and Meshed, but it was a question of forcing my way through or experiencing something like a week's delay in a place where nobody would voluntarily remain an hour. Packanimals broke a single trail through the snow, along which it was barely pessible to struggle ahead. After noon the sun asserted its power and it became uncomfortably hot. The narrow path became aukle deep in mind and slush, and for fourteen miles I had to wade through this and trundle the bicycle ahead with rear wheel aloft, occasionally varying this exhibitantly performance by ransary, crowded with mules, camels, don-ahead with rear wheel aloft, occasionally varying this exhibitanting performance by splurging through a stream. Comparatively speaking all else on the journey has been child's play! yet with good weather it would be a fairly agreeable journey with a bleyde. These are no difficult mountains and much good wheeling surface.

I have a little complaining to do, however, at this juncture—a complaint of the Russians. After the Russian minister at Teheran speaking to me so fair; alter going to considerable expense and trouble to provide myself with Russian money sufficient to carry me clear expense and trouble to provide myself with Russian money sufficient to carry me clear through to Japan via Merv. Samarkand and Southern Siberia, I received notice when half way to Meshed that I would not be allowed to go through. Here, also, with "Holy Russia" blocking my road on the one hand, I am assured on the other that I shall also be turned back at the Afghan iron-turn that the Afghan covernment, unable to People's research. shall also be turned back at the Afghan fron-tier: that the Afghan government, unable to guarantee my safety, will simply turn me back. This is comforting, to say the least. I am here the guest of Mr. Gray, an English telegrapher, connected with the Afghan boundary commission. Knowing before the news reached me on the road that the Rus-sians had refused to give me the road, he kindly sent a letter by the boundary commis-sion contrier explaining the difficulty to Col. sion courier explaining the difficulty to Col. Sir West Ridgway and asking him to try and obtain permission for me to go through Afghanistan. The return courier with an Afghanistan. The return courier with an answer is expected every day. The commission camp is some five hundred miles east of Meshed, and if no insurmountable obstacles present I shall probably reach India via their camp, Cabul and Peshawer. Great crowds are at this moment vocterously howling "Tomasha! tomasha! asp-i-awhen" (Let us see the iron horse) on the streets outside. Armed guards have just been stationed at our door by the authorities to keep
