

DAILY INTELLIGENCER. Published every evening in the year. (Sundays excepted) BY STEPHEN A. HERRMAN. INTELLIGENCER BUILDING. No. 7. W. CORNER GREEN AND SQUARES. LANCASTER, PA.

WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER. (Eight Pages.) Published every Wednesday morning. Five Dollars a Year in Advance. THE INTELLIGENCER, LANCASTER, PA.

The Republican County Conventions. The INTELLIGENCER has no interest whatever in the contest among the Republican politicians of this county for the spoils and supremacy of their party.

Not fifty of the English passages are two hundred years old. An earl's an earl for all that. One of the most daring attempts at robbery recently reported occurred in New York when a clerk, who had been employed five years in a dry goods house, disguised himself and attempted to steal a large sum from the vault of the establishment, with which he was thoroughly familiar.

There are four hundred applicants for the consular-general at Paris. Isaac R. Diller, of Chicago, is said to be in the lead. He has a good name to run at a Lancaster county primary.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., has long enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most placid cities in the Union. Its private resources will be taxed to new responsibilities in that direction from today forward, as Prohibition now becomes the law of the state.

THE LESSON OF A LIFE. Hon. George A. Jenks, who has just resigned the post of assistant secretary of the Treasury, is a man of an illustrious name.

General Negley has been detected at the primaries in his effort to secure another congressional term. The general says he was beaten by fraud.

AS A GAIN FOR THE STATE. As before intimated the Democrats as a party have nothing to gain by the substitution of an able and better Republican representative in Congress for a weak and incompetent one.

resorted to more unscrupulous measures to get and hold place. If he is finally dropped by the State, with whom he has made common cause, because he is a general nuisance, he will find no other element to take him up.

ALL THE critics agree that Logan's new book is a deadly assault upon the English language.

There is reason for satisfaction in one of the popular signs of the times, noted by a writer describing a recent scene at the Casino in New York.

LEWISTON DEFEATS LANCASTER. A Poor Game Which was Christy Marked by Savage Kicking.

On Saturday the Lancaester and Lewiston clubs played their annual game, and the home side was successful. Rain interfered with the contest in the eighth inning, and the score then stood 8 to 1 in favor of the Lewiston.

It is said that the Chicago club will do as well as last year. Some of the players are not observing the league's ruling, which they took before the season opened.

It was the boast of the New York club that they were not shut out once in a hundred games. That right, they were not shut out since the season opened in making all their friends.

John Manning, of the Baltimore, has played right field in fifteen games without an error. He had twenty-six put-outs and one assist, and for all was the best.

The League games on Saturday were: At Detroit, Chicago, 10 to 2; at St. Louis, Philadelphia, 10 to 2.

The St. Louis club could not hit Tony Mullane on Saturday. They had but two singles and a double, and scored only three runs.

Trenton will have some base ball after all, as the management of the Lewiston club has decided to transfer their club to that city.

When the names of the Atlanta players were first published it was stated that the team would keep a manager busy.

When Frank Rings, of the Pittsburgh club, got drunk a few nights ago, he broke out in a rash and had to be taken to the hospital.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN FAIR. A Brilliant Opening at the Lancaester Club on Saturday Night.

The fair for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Knights of St. John was opened on Saturday night at the Lancaester club, on West street, with a large attendance.

On the right as you enter the rink, a fancy table covered in honor of the organization, which opened the fair in the field, Knights of St. John.

The lower half of the east side of the rink is taken up with St. Anthony's table, in charge of Mrs. John McCrehan.

The fair was opened with a grand concert, given by the St. John's choir, under the direction of Mr. J. P. Stroud.

The committee of members who made all the arrangements for the fair are: Martin Diehl, John A. C. Martin, secretary; Charles F. Stroud, Fred E. Stroud, John McCrehan, John H. C. Martin, August Strouwenel, Ernest Heam, James Gillen and Mrs. A. W. R. R. R.

Many persons are afflicted with eruptions of the skin, both of the face and body, which are cured by the use of the medicine.

In advertising a medicine, it is best to be honest. A deception will never do; the people want the truth.

A Word of Caution. Beware of cheap imitations of the medicine.
