Endorsed by the "New Era" in a Colu Article of Which the Following is a Copy-Also for Reinechl.

There is probably some excuse for poor lob when he is suffering affliction more grievous than ever tell to the lot of any other man, to be somewhat reckless in his state ments of facts in contending with the Author of all Truth. But such excuse was not accepted, for he was rebuked by the startling puestion, " When stills that darkeneth ro cords without knowledge."

aware that the bosses who are managing Mr summy's campaign are sorely afflicted with doubts and fears as to the result of their illadvised schemes, we nevertheless, do not think the desperation of their cause justifies them in " darkening counsel" to the bonest farmers and laboring men of the Northern district "by words without knowledge" on the subject of corporations, railroad dis-crimination and the labor interest. What they say about the injustice done to farmers, millers and others by discrimination farmers, infliers and others by discrimination of rates in favor of Western shippers may be all true. The New Era has frequently dis-cussed this vital question and there has been no general dissent from its conclusions, that "the provisions of the seventeenth article of the constitution relative to railroads and canais" should be entered. As to the best matheds of doing this there is an honest methods of doing this there is an henest difference of opinion among those who have given the subject most carnest and dispresident the subject most canon and the passionate consideration, both in the state and national legislatures. That the supporters of Mr. Summy darken counsel by words without knowledge, either ignorantly or intentionally, is shown in their gnoring the fact that there is an anti-discrimiiation law on the statute books, with heavy mention of time and imprisonment, and that Mr. Stehman voted for this hill, and also voted with the friends of the Lee-Wallace

It is, therefore, not true, as as extensively advertised by Mr. Summy's sorrely distressed political Jobs, that "John M. Stebumari's trying to deceive the farmers and business men of the Northern district by telling them he favored an anti-discrimi-nation bill," for that is strictly true as is shown by the following official data, which we have carefully complicit from the journals of the S-nate for the sessions of 1881 and 1885 These are honest extracts from (110, 081). #### Body Not Found Vet.

The search for the body of Toblas Hess, the man who was drowned in the Conestoga at Slackwater, on Thursday, was continued yesterday. Thousands of people visited the place during the day. From the appearance of the crowd a stranger would have supposed that a pienic was being heid instead of a search for a dead man. Two hucksters, who are always on the alert to make some money, took advantage of the situation and pitched their stands on the grounds where they did a big business. All kinds of contrivances Qate ..... were used in the endeavor to secure the body. It was without success, however, and the dead man cannot be found. The water will be let out of the dam at Rock Hill, below Slackwater, this afternoon or evening, as many believe that the body has been carried nto it.

No Quorum Present

A special meeting of the County Agricultur-I society was called for Saturday, at Massaal society was called for Saturday, at Massa-soit hall, Strasburg, but on account of the failure of a sufficient number to attend, the meeting was not held. Several of the speak ers on the programme failed to appear, and after a brief discussion, participated in by those present, special meetings in the coun-try were voted a failure. It may have been possible that the threatening weather kept the members away. Oil City Crude Oil.

Large Sunday Puneral.

The funeral of B. H. Kauffman took place Sunday afternoon from his late residence on North Queen street. There was a large attend. ance and among those present were many members of the American Mechanics to which membersor the American attendance of a condition of a Reading council of which Mr. Kauffman was a member were present. Revs. Howsetter and Brubaker of the Memonite church conducted the services and the interment was made at the Lancaster constery.

Corner Loanging. Complaint has been made to the police authorities about a gang who make the pave-ment outside the Plow lavern their headquarters, to the great annoyance of passers by. The police have been instructed to abate the nuisance. The Centre Square corners were deserted last night, for the first time in many months. The young men who made those corners their loading place have evidently learned that the police mean business.
