reform, and they were greatly disappointed at the large vote cast for Weaver.

The sixth ward is the largest ward in the district. It was also the best organized. Leo Hartman had charge in this ward and through arrangements made by him early in the morning the vote was cast on Saturday. The result was a poll of 619 votes. Weaver had no one to look after his interests and the result was a total of 418 votes for him.

The seventh ward is the smallest of the district. It was also the best organized. Tom Cochran, Charles Kline and the Sammons were active in their work in the ward and he had the polls from the opening to the closing thereof.

The eighth ward beats the deck for rapid voting. To start with the election officers did not think it necessary to go through the formality of being sworn. They went at it at six o'clock in the morning and at six o'clock in the evening the polls were closed and the returns handed in. The vote had grown to 413, 16 of which were declared to be illegal.

The ninth ward all the politicians, including the Snyder, Gardner, and others, were together for the purpose of casting the vote. The vote polled was 175 and 25 of this number were given to Weaver.

The tenth ward all the politicians, including the Snyder, Gardner, and others, were together for the purpose of casting the vote. The vote polled was 175 and 25 of this number were given to Weaver.

The eleventh ward all the politicians, including the Snyder, Gardner, and others, were together for the purpose of casting the vote. The vote polled was 175 and 25 of this number were given to Weaver.

Strino and a couple dozen of the other boys.

If Stehman's friends had suppressed the literary bureau on North Duke street, "Stimany" would have been beaten.

The papers of the Northern district, particularly the Little Express, can shut up shop for the next few months. All that was in them for the past few months were paid articles in the interest of Stimany.

The summy men had plenty of money. Let us, May 21.—In old Warwick nearly 500 votes were cast. Early in the afternoon it was noticeable that some of the Stehmanites were not as active as they were wont to be at former primaries, and it was whispered about that they had been bought, notwithstanding the threats of the Express. But you know it makes all the difference when you are grossed. That there was plenty of "bribe" among the summyites can not be denied, as it was in the hands of men who never spend their own.

We heard one farmer say that Saturday was a good day to make money; that he never attended a primary, that he made less than a dollar and often a good deal more.

The result was that Stimany has carried the entire vote. Ranck, Blough and Boyd were the choice for legislature.

A VERY POPULAR CANDIDATE. Stehman and Reinhold Sweep the Town—Big Vote of C. C. Kaufman.

COLUMBIA, May 23.—The Republican primary election Saturday passed off in a quiet manner in Columbia, although the workers in the different wards were very active in getting out the full Republican strength in support of the Stehman-Reinhold ticket.

The most prominent politicians of the town were in fact, a head hunt for the assembly ticket C. C. Kaufman, of the town, received the almost entire support of the workers and was elected by a large margin. His vote was 774, which is only 25 votes behind the vote for congressman.

The politicians were working hard to get a good home vote and they succeeded. Stehman and Reinhold received good support in Columbia and there was very little opposition to their ticket.

The total vote in Columbia was as follows: C. C. Kaufman, 774; Stehman, 774; Reinhold, 774.

One Man Who Made His Contest as a "Nice Talker" and "Good Hand-Shaker." Wm. D. Weaver, esq., who has beaten the powerful Stehman combination and proved himself a very effective campaigner.

As soon as the polls closed, the politicians began assembling at the headquarters of their choice where tally papers were kept.

Saturday. When the husbandmen were quietly arranging for their favored candidate, who should drive up to the hotel but A. R. Poisel, of Lancaster, better known as "Nick," who announced to the quiet villagers of Rawlinsville that he was there on official business.

The good people not feeling well disposed to the seeming intruder, but seeing that the husbandmen were in a tight hand of good fellowship to Nick and asked him to join them in the social glass, of which there are at least 25 voters in the district, and if they did not vote for Reinhold they were very ungrateful.

return judge of Cornwall acknowledged the Reinhold has seven voters in this city, though the return paper gives him none, and it is further said that more than seven Republicans of Cornwall will swear they voted for Reinhold.

When Lancaster city was reached the returns from the different wards were objected to by Weaver's friends and referred to the committee.

ALLEGED STARTLING DISCOVERY. A Claim That the Gas in a Room Repeats All of the Sounds Therein.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—The Post today publishes a story, the substance of which is that Professor Alexander Graham Bell and his associates, Dr. Chichester A. Bell and Sumner Tainter, have recently made a discovery, and in relation to it, have worked out a number of inventions which they believe to be of no inferior importance to the discovery of the art of telephoning itself, and the inventions to which that discovery has led.

Dr. Chichester A. Bell has discovered that a falling jet of water or a flame of gas burning in a room imitates, as well as the world at large, repeat the sounds, and every sound uttered in the room. Dr. Bell has found that when a couple of friends join in a conversation in the drawing room of an evening, that the gas which burns over their heads repeats every word they say.

POWDERLY'S PROCLAMATION. WHY THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR CONVENTION IS CALLED TOGETHER.

An Official Statement of the Reasons for the Calling in Cleveland—Arrival of the Delegates—Powderly Designated by Newspaper Men—An Important Assembly.

CLEVELAND, O., May 24.—The following call, issued by Mr. Powderly to the Knights of Labor, gives a list of the causes for convening the general assembly in special session at Cleveland this week, and of the matters that will be brought up for action:

Acting under authority vested in me as general master workman, I do hereby call the general assembly together in special session. The causes leading to the calling of the special session are:

1. The rapid increase in membership requires changes in the laws which the general executive board have no authority to make.

2. The laws in relation to the government of boycotting are wholly inadequate to compel obedience on the part of assemblies that believe in boycotting for every offense, whether great or small.

3. The laws in relation to strikes do not cover the ground necessary to give the general executive board control to interfere in such matters until after a strike has been inaugurated.

4. The order has become involved in difficulties with the societies and an effort is being made to create a rupture between these societies and the Knights of Labor.

5. The laws in relation to the government of boycotting are wholly inadequate to compel obedience on the part of assemblies that believe in boycotting for every offense, whether great or small.

THE ANNUAL "CARNIVAL OF FRAUD" IN IOWA AND COUNTRY.

A Driven Battle between the Combination, Sorely Beaten For Senator and Weaver. Summy Triumphs—The Legislative Delegation a Stand Off—A Dirty Campaign and Plenty of Money.

The Republican primary elections on Saturday were very hotly contested, and the result was the poll of a very large vote; the day was fair; the bosses were busy; the people were abundant and the issue was close and sharply defined. The money that was about to be put where it would do most good, and then it was lavishly spent. Stehman is undoubtedly elected state senator over Summy, but by not nearly as large a plurality as his friends expected, having about 500 over his opponent, while Reinhold by a still smaller plurality, the country reserves having saved him; for legislature in the Lower district Peoples and Baldwin are elected; in the Upper district Smith, Kemper and Kaufman.

If the factors of the Stehman-Reinhold ticket take the trouble to look at last Monday's issue, they will find reports from nearly every district of the county of the probable result in each district, as to the candidates voted for on Saturday. They will also find on comparing the vote polled by the lead in candidates with the indications, that the special correspondents selected by the STEHMANites were truthful and reliable, and the predictions made were verified.

The vote polled was between 1100 and 1200, the chief of the Stehman-Reinhold ticket in the district attorney fight and the contest for senator in the Northern district, and both factions worked as they never worked before.
