THREE SUSPICIOUS MEN

DATEMBED IN DT THE ENERGHTIC POLICE OF COLUMBIA.

They Turn Out Not to Be the Peop fanted From Schuylkill County-Hand ily Hurt-Congratulating Postmaster Young-Town Notes,

Regular Correspondence of INTELLIGENCES.

COLUMNIA, May 28.—Some time ago Officer Wittick received a description of two men who had escaped from the Schuylkill county juil and he has been on the lookout ever jail and he has been on the lookout ever since to apprehend them. One of the men who escaped had his left arm cut off close to his shoulder, and by this means was easily to be identified. This morning the officer noticed three suspicious men walking along Front street. They were followed by the officer, arrested, and taken to the office of Squire Frank for a hearing. They gave their names as Philip Reiliey, John Deuster and Robert Farrell, all claiming Philadelphia as their home. The man named Reiliey had his left arm cut off close to the shoulder and answered the description of the escaped answered the description of the escaped prisoner, with the exception that the color of his eyes was entirely different. The squire was satisfied that the men arrested were not the right ones and they were at once discharged from custody.

440, of the Pennsylvania railroad, was engaged in putting in four cars on the siding of the warehouse, and Christian Sheuk, the flagman of the train had his hand between the cars to withdraw the boit of the coupling.
The cars were pushed back too far and struck against the bumping block, which caused to them to shove together. By the cars coming together Shenk had his lett hand badly bruised.

The news in Columbia this morning of the confirmation of Charles F. Young, as post master at Columbia by the Senate, caused the friends of the new postmaster to congratulate Shawnee Picnic. The Shawnee fire company have decided to hold a grand picnic in Heise's woods on Whit-Monday, June 14. The management of the picnic is in charge of the following members of the company: Chairman, Jos. B. Brown; assistant, Thomas Tulle; master of ceremonies, George Dyvel; grand conductor, Wm. H. Lutz; floor manager, Chas. McCall. A number of other members compose the committee of arrangements. The invitations to the picnic have been issued. Town Notes.

Some of the lower grades of our public school are now holding the annual examinations are made for the purpose to learning the proficiency of the pupils, and if the examinations are passed successfully the pupils will be transferred to higher classes.

The present cold weather had a bad effect on the fishing for shad, and very poor success attends the labors of the men engaged in this business. The weather has been so cold at the different batteries that some of the men have suspended work. The muddy condition of the water is another cause of the poor catch.

poor catch.

New and valuable books are almost constantly being added to the Shock library of Columbia, making it a piace where any person can secure the standard literature of the day 21 a very reasonable cost.

Five Children on a Long Trip. Five of the passengers on Fast Line, which arrived in this city at 6:05 from the West, this morning, were little children who had come from Peoria, Illinois. Benjamin White moved from Manheim to Peoria several years ago. Recently his wife died, leaving five children, the oldest aged eleven years and the youngest 2 to 8. White resolved to return to this county and being unable to leave Peoria he sent the children East to the grandfather, who resides in Manheim. The oldest child is a boy and he took care of the others on the trip. Upon their arrival in this city Upon their arrival in this city the children were taken to the Reading depot and sent on the train to Manheim.

Narrow Escape From Death. John Hughes, a brakeman attached to the Lancaster shifter, made a narrow escape from death yesterday. He was standing on the Dutch Cheese Fiump..... front of one of several cars, which were besing shifted in a siding, in the northern part of town. The brake wheel suddenly broke when he was on the bumper and he felt off. He quickly grasped the revolving axie and clasped both hands around it. He was dragged the length of several cars, and besides having his wrist sprained, was badly cut and bruised.

The Principal and Interest? From the Chambersburg Repository. In May, 1856, a gypsy woman robbed a person living in or near this place, of $5,000. If the person is still living and can establish the fact that he or she as the case may be is the one that lost the money, they can learn some-thing to their advantage by calling at this
