Your best music you poured out; Piping to a stranger's ear, You forgot your lovers bere "Little lady, on my word, You do wrong a true-heart bird! Not one ditty would I sing, Meng the leaves or on the wing, In the sun or in the rain;

Stranger's ear would list in valu. If I ever tried a note, Something rose within my threat. T was because my heart was true To the North and spring-time new

My mind's eye a nest could see In you old, forked apple-tree!" Edith M. Thomas in St. Nicholas for June.

In Boston the bleycle parade Saturda norning was participated in by about 50 wheelmen. The start was made from the Hotel Vendome, and as the long line swung down Commonwealth avenue the sight was a brilliant one. The formation of most of the clubs was in columns of twos, though some of them rode in columns of fours. The latter gave the more compact and military look. The Rockingham club were the leadors of the line, and were in this latter forma-tion, and they were greeted with cheers and applause for their fine appearance. Not far behind them came the Massachusetts club, and their blue uniforms and white helmets looked exceedingly well. With the tricycle division of this club were two ladies on sin-division of this club were two ladles on single tricycles and three others with gentlemen on tanderns, making a novel sight for the league parade.

Other clubs in line followed closely. An easy pace was taken, and the line was about fifteen minutes in passing a given point. The route was covered in good form, and the return was made in ample time for dinner and the league championionship races in the afternoon.

The Topical Song Ruman.

From a New York Letter. President Cleveland's nuptials have been seized upon by all the writers of topical songs in town, and if he cared to come to New York he could hear the comedians of our theatres blurt out their opinions of his coming match in more or less absurd lines every night. That he would be displeased there there can be no doubt, for the songs are there there can be no doubt, for the songs are invariably coarse, and usually wind up with some refrain to the effect that Mr. Cleveland would never have caught his bride if he had not been president, or that she marries him in order to be, for a time at least, "the first lady of the land." The vulgarity of the topi-cal song of to-day is its most striking feature, and the actor who can approach the nearest to blasphemy or suggestion gets the greatest applause. Miss Folsom has been lifted into a position at the very head of the topics of insane topical songs. Her bitterest rival could not wish her worse luck.

A Noble Ambilion. From the Chicago Herald.

" If I was worth as much money as Bo Garrett, " said a Baltimore & Ohio train boy, "do you know what I would do?" queried the brake-"Run a railroad?"

"Nawp."
"Travel in Yurrip ?"
"Nawp."
"Yacht ?"

"Yacht?"
"Nawp."
"What then?"
"I'd hire fifteen of the best base ball players in the United States, pay em' $10,000 a year apiece, take 'em round the country by special train, and knock the stuffin' out of all the champions in the business. That's what I'd call doin' somethin' for one's country, but none of our rich men seem to have any desire to have their names handed down to posterity."

AYER'S PILLS.

Constipation

Is a universal and most troublesome disorder. It causes Headache, Mental Depression, impairs the Sight and Hearing, destroys the Appetite, and, when long continued, causes Enlargement of the Liver, Indammation of the Bowels, and Piles. Constipation is speedily cured by Ayer's Pilis.

For a number of months I was troubled with Costiveness, in consequence of which I suffered from Loss of Appetits, Dyspepsia, and a discordered liver. My eyes also troubled me. I was compelled to wear a shade over them, and, at times, was unable to bear exposure to the light. I was entirely CURED BY USING three boxes of Ayer's Pills. I have no besta-tion in pronouncing this medicine to be the best cathartic ever made.—James Eccles, Po-land, Ohio.

leard, Ohio.

I suffer from Constipation, and consequently, from Headache, Indignation, and Pries, for years, Ayer's Pills, which I took at the suggestion of a friend, have given me effectual relief. I commenced taking this remedy two months ago, and am now free from Constipation, the removal of which has caused my other troubles to disappear, and greatly improved my general health.

W. Keeler, Amberst, Mass.

I suffered from Constipation, which assumed such an obstinate form that I teared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two bears of Ayer's Pills cured me, completely.—D. Burke, Saco, Mo.
