COLUMBIA, Pa., June 4.—Charles Wesley Comoon, superintendent of the machine shops of James Perrottet, died at his house on Cherry street between Third and Fourth last evening, at nine o'clock, in the 60th year of his age. Mr. Johnson was born in Virginia in 1820, and after the death of his father ginia in 1820, and after the death of his father when he was very young, came to Lancaster county and resided in Mount Joy, where he engaged in the trade of black smithing. About eighteen years ago he moved to Columbia where he has since resided. For about twelve years he resided. For about twelve years he was yard boss at the Chestnut Hill furnaces during the incumbency of Mr. C. A. Nourse, as manager, but about four years ago he accepted a position with Mr. Perrottet, which he held until his death. Mr. Johnson has been married for forty years, and his last illness was the first sickness he had during that time. On last Wednesday he was stricken with typhoid fover, but hopes were entertained of his recovery until yesterday afternoon, when a change for the worse was observed. A wife and two sons are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. Mr. Johnson was a member of the Mount Joy lodge of Odd Fellows. The funeral will take place on Sunday atternoon at $200 clock. Mr. Johnson was a staunch Democrat and was a candidate for borough offices and, although an adverse majority caused his defeat, a very flattering yout testified to his worth as a citizen of Columbia.

Charles Fitzpatrick, a workman at York Haven, came to Columbia last evening and got on a drunk. He was arrested by Officer Hardnels. This morning he had a hearing

Hardnele. This morning he had a hearing at the office of Squire Frank and was committed to jail for five days.

Officer Kennedy, of the Pennsylvania railroau police, arrested two men last night for riding on freight trains. One of the men was colored and was very well dressed; he carried a small valies and a basket containing a complete set of barber tools. He gave his name as George Rosebury. Squire Frank committed them to jail for ten days each.

Lee Anderson, a colored resident of town, entered suit at the office of Squire Evans against Samuel Richardson, another colored entered suit at the office of Squire Evans against Samuel Richardson, another colored man, for throwing stones. Richardson threw a stone at a man and a small daughter of Anderson was struck by the missile; a terrible gash was cut in the forehead which received medical attention. A hearing will ake place this evening.

The National Game The Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the Columbia base ball club will play their first game of ball for this season, the opposing club to be the Keystones, of Manheim, Manager Bear feels confident that the town club will make a good showing and a fine game may be expected. The following uniform has been adopted: Gray cloth pants and shirt, square cap of same color trimmed with narrow band of red, white canvas shoes, red woolen stockings, and red worsted belts. For the first game the seating capacity will not be arranged, but the manager expects that within a short time good accommodations will be furnished to the patrons of the Wanted in York.

Last evening Constable Donaghue came to this city to arrest J. Smith, a young man who had skipped from that county after being arrested on the charge of being the father of an illegitimate child. For some unknown reason Donoghue wanted a Lancaster officer to make the arrest. Officer lieschler agreed to act, and he caught the man in the Seventh ward. The prisoner was locked up in the station house, but the constable said he could not bear to see him in such a place. The two then went to the Morringe house where they slept together, and this morning left for York.

The Matrimonial Campaign in Renove, Pa. A young lady has written to the Renove News, answering an inquiry to that paper which asked why so many of Renovo's young men went out of town to find wives The writer thinks that the men get used to seeing the faces of the town girls and do not admire them as much as they do that of a stranger. She claims to know a case of a man in that town who was too bashful to ask a town girl to marry him, but asked a stran-ger. In both these instances the writer adger. In both these instances the writer admits that the rule works both ways, and in the case of the girls is a little more so. She wants everyone to watch the next strange man that comes to town and see how the girls rave over him.

From the Carlisle Valley Sentinel.

The Prohibitionists of New Jersey are a practical set of people. They have nominated General Clinton B. Fiske for governor, and at the same time the convention raised four thousand dollars for campaign expenses. The nomination of a man like General Fiske is New Jersey will give a strong impetus to the prohibition cause in Pennsylvania and the Middle states. The prohibition issue is a live one and it is here to stay, for it appeals to every hearthside.
