— Hurdette, in Brooklyn Engle. WHY DEER PARK WAS SELECTED.

A Promise Made by the Bride to Ex-Senator

Davis' Daughter in Naples. A letter has been received by a lady in Washington from Miss Jennie Davis, theexsenator's daughter, in which it is explained why the president selected Deer Park as the place for spending his honeymoon. Up to Decoration Day, which the president passed in New York, he had decided on no place, but immediately after his return to Washington on Tuesday Col. Lamont hurried down to Wash Nailor's and ordered two carriages to be shipped at once to Deer Park. The whole matter had been settled by Miss Folsom when the president saw her on Decora-tion Day, and this is how it all came about as explained in the aforesaid letter :

While Miss Folsom and her mother were at Naples during their recent European trip, they met Miss Jennie Davis, and the three spent much time together, the girls becom-ing fast friends. About this time the mar-riage of the president and Miss Folsom began to be talked about and the news reached Naples, surprising Miss Davis greatly, as her new friend had never even mentioned the president's name to her. One day Miss Davis asked Miss Folsom if the reports were true. The latter evaded the question by saying something about "those toolish newspaper stories."

"Well, then," said Miss Davis, "Will you answer this question? If you do marry I'resident Cleveland, will you promise to spend the honeymoon up at Deer Park with me?" "Miss Folsom could not say so without implying that the marriage was enough of a cossibility to merit consideration, so she said laughingly: "Yes, if anything of that kind laughingly: "Yes, if anything of that kind ever occurs, I will go to beer Park."

Soon afterward they parted. Miss Davis returning direct to America, and Miss Polsom going to Paris to see about the wedding outfit. When the public announcement of the marriage was made. Miss Davis wrote to Miss Folsom, reminding her of the promise made in Naples, and saying that she was expected at Deer Park. The letter was received last Monday, the same day the president called on his betrothed in New York. The rest of the story needs no telling, when it is remembered that as soon as the president reached Washington he ordered the carriages to be sent to Deer Park.

The president and Mrs. Cleveland Saturday afternoon, having taken function with day afternoon, having taken runcheon with the Davis family, took their trout-fishing trip, but instead of murdering some of ex-Senstor Davis' pets—which could only have been done in plain view of the thirty or more been done in plain view of the thirty or more newspaper correspondents—they drove to Deep creek, some nine miles from Deer Park, where Mr. T. Harrison Garrett has "preserved" about three miles of a rather pretentious stream. While Mr. Davis protects his trout for the purpose of looking at them, Mr. Garrett cultivates the speckled beauties for the fun of catching them. Mr. DeLoder, one of the fish commissioners of Maryland, makes it his especial care to see that Mr. Garrett's preserve is kept well stocked, and young land-locked salmon as well as trout are liberally supplied. But Deep creek is by no means an ideal trout stream. Although its course is through the heart of the Alleghanies it is little more than a canal in appearance. it is little more than a canal in appearance The "glades" of the mountains are compara tively level, and for much of its length Deep creek takes a tortuous course through low, swampy land and its bed is often cumbered with logs and driftwood. The timber and bushes have been cleared from one side of the creek, and a path has been made along its margin, so that Mr. Garrett and the guests be delights to entertain at Deep creek cottage can fish without being subjected to the hardship of a tramp over ground.

Biton the president and Mrs. Cleveland engaged in the sport, and the former was very successful. Mrs. Cleveland, however, not being expert in the art of game fishing, was mable to land a fish although she had several opportunities. The lady is not disposed to give in our or a first way. posed to give up on one trial, and will try again. Upon their return to the cottage they were driven by the postofice, where they stopped for a moment. Upon reaching the house the president, after assisting Mrs. Cleveland out of the carriage, called to the guards, and one or two correspondents who where sitting on a bridge, to come up and see what a tine catch they had made, and exhibited in a basket twelve or lifteen elegant trout. The president appeared to be very proud of his success, and according to his determination, as expressed, he will doubtless try the sport again during Colonel La-mont's sojourn here.

A Baptist Minister's Experience.

"I am a Baptist minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman I graduated in medicine, but left a lucrative practice for my present profession, forty years ago. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy. Thomas' Edectric Oil cured me. I was also troubled with hourseness, and Thomas' Edectric Oil always relieved me. My wite and child had diphtheria, and Thomas' Edectric Oil cured them, and if taken in time it will cure seven thuse out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold, or cough, and if any one will take a small teaspoon and half fill if with the Oil, and then place the end of the spoon in one nostril and draw the Oil out of the spoon into the head, by suiffing as hard as they can, until the Oil falls over into the throat, and practice it when a week, I don't care how offensive their head may be, it will clean it out and cure their catarth. For deafness and carache, it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent medicine that I have ever fell like recommending, and I am very anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you that I would not be without it In my house for any consideration. I am now suffering with a pain like rheumatism is my right limb, and nothing relieves me like Thomas' Edectric Oil." Dr. E. F. Crane, Corry, Pa.

MEDICAL

A QUESTION ABOUT

Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thou sands of times. "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that Iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cores not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cores indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Maiaria, Chilis and Fevers, Tired Feeling, useneral Debility, Pain in the Side, Back of Limbs, Headache and Neuraliza-for all those aliments iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute, Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symytom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY fron medicine that is not injurious, Physicians and druggistar recommend id.
