PRAYER AND ALMS.

Each word of prayer; each gift, the pledge
Of gratitude, to Jesus given,
Shall be for thee a little wedge
Between the golden gates of Heaven.

GRANTING THE CARDINALATE.

How Pope Leo Confers the Distinction on the Princes of His Church.

Rome Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.

The pope held a consistory Monday morning for the creation of seven new cardinals, three of whom go to France, two to America and two remain in Italy. The consistory was of a private nature, none but members of the sacred college being present. It was held in Consistorial hall, his holiness being seated on his throne, and cardinals grouped about him. At eleven o'clock the pope, attired in white and looking very feeble, entered the hall. Cardinals numbering thirty-two knelt as his holiness entered.

After having received the homage of the cardinals the consistory was formally opened by an address by the pope. He spoke in Latin, and in the course of his address to the cardinals made this reference to the growth and importance of their Catholic church in the republics of France and America:

"As our apostolic solicitude extends to the Catholics of every nation, we have thought it proper on this occasion to select some distinguished bishops both from the old and from the new world to be elevated to your ranks. In the first place we turn our eyes to France, where the church proudly possesses a noble band of prelates closely united to the apostolic see, worthy of highest praise and faithful to the charge committed to them, discharging their duties sometimes under great difficulties and employing all their powers in defense of the holy see. On this account we have resolved to add a few of these French prelates to the sacred college in order to draw that generous nation closer to the Roman pontiff. We come now to America. In the second place the United States and Canada attracted our attention. The flourishing state of Catholicism in that confederacy, which developes itself daily more and more, and the condition and form according to which the ecclesiastical canons of that country are formulated, advise us, or rather demand, that some of their prelates be received into the sacred college. Now with regard to Canada, it is a known fact with what resolute adhesion they cling to the true faith, with what love they adhere, and with what loyalty, faith and affection unite their hearts and minds to the holy see. Wherefore we hesitate not to enroll among the members of the sacred college one of the archbishops of Canada, knowing that it will redound to the glory of the Catholic faith and the spiritual welfare of millions on the other side of the sea."

His Holiness then announced the names of the new cardinals, as follows: Victor Felix Bernadou, of Sens Benedict; Maria Langenieux, of Rheims; Charles Philips, Place of Rennes; James Gibbons, of Baltimore, and Alexander Taschereaux, of Quebec, all archbishops; Monsignor Theodoli, of Rome, ex-secretary of the Vatican, and Father Camillo Mazzela, of Naples, Jesuit, who was formerly professor at Woodstock, Md. Father Mazella is the first Jesuit created cardinal by Leo and second in the sacred college.

The pope after nominating the cardinals turned to the members of the sacred college, pronouncing these words: "Quid vobis videtur?" ("What is your wish?") There being no dissent, the nominations were ratified by the college. The consistory was thereupon terminated. A quarter consistory will be held Thursday, when red hats will be conferred upon the new cardinals.

Suing Her Father for Breach of Promise.

A curious suit for breach of promise will be tried at the next term of the Burlington county (N. J.) supreme court. Miss Ella Wilcox, a young woman well known in the society of Mount Holly, became engaged to be married to John Cook, of the same place. Mr. Cook went through all the regular formalities, and asked and obtained Mr. Wilcox's consent to marry his daughter. The wedding was to have taken place on May 18. Three days before the wedding day, for some unknown reason, Mr. Wilcox changed his mind about the desirability of Mr. Cook as a son-in-law, and said the ceremony would not take place. When Miss Wilcox told Mr. Cook of this change in feeling on the part of her father, the prospective bridegroom got angry and left the house, saying he was disgusted and was going away, never to return. Miss Wilcox thought this all over, and the more she thought the more angry she became at her father. Last week she hunted up a lawyer, and with his assistance she began a suit for $10,000 damages for breach of promise against her father, alleging that he was the sole cause of her lover's estrangement, and that she needed about that amount to patch up her broken heart and hunt up another fellow. It is believed that this is the first suit for breach of promise ever begun in which the girl's own father is the defendant.

A Lucky Man.

"A lucky man is rarer than a white crow," says Juvenal, and we think he knew. However, we have heard of thousands of lucky ones and we propose to let their secret out. They were people broken down in health, suffering with liver, blood and skin diseases, scrofula, dropsy and consumption, and were lucky enough to hear of and wise enough to use Dr. Pierce's "Golden Discovery," the sovereign blood purifier, tonic and alterative of the age. 30-W,S&W

Geo. W. Tompkins, M. D., 78 Cumberland street, Brooklyn, N. For Lumbago these Plasters surpass liniments, &c."
